VOICE RECOGNITION

Today the Gospel reminds us that Jesus is the Good Shepherd. The sheep of His flock recognize His voice. It is because they recognize that voice that they follow Him. We live in a world of voice technology. We can speak to our phones, to our remotes and even to Alexa and other voice technology to control electronics in the house. From turning on lights and playing music to being informed about the top news stories of the day and more, we are all about the voice. Today, we are called not to do the talking but to do the listening. "My sheep hear my voice." Do we recognize the voice of the Lord Jesus? How do we imagine this interchange occurring? There is an intimacy to be found in how all this occurs. Jesus states that there is protection when we recognize His voice and follow. He states "No one can take them out of my hand." This means when we listen and when we follow, we are invited into the embrace and hands of our loving Savior the Good Shepherd. Nothing can separate us from that embrace.

Today the challenge is not how we use voice technology, but how we recognize the voice of our Savior.

Fr. John

THE CALL TO BE NURTURING

This weekend we remember in a special way all mothers, spiritual, biological, and adopted. These women of faith have a special place in the plan of salvation. They allow us to see and experience the nurturing embrace of our God. Through their actions, through their love, through their belief, we are all blessed.

My mom was a true gift. Being her youngest child, I benefitted from the fact that she had her parenting skills honed in by the time I was born. While she was sensitive and fair, she was always a good listener. Her greatest gift was loving my father and being the love of his life. The two of them gave us a deep foundation of faith by the way they took care of each other and understood each other. Although the four of us children were completely different, my mom knew how to spoil us and challenge us differently. As adults, coming home for a visit was always special. She would make sure to stock the downstairs freezer with our favorite ice cream bar or dessert. Our favorites were waiting for us whenever we stopped by. Of course, each of us liked something different and was loyal to certain brands. Yet until she passed, she would make sure to indulge us in this way. She also would labor over making iced tea in a way only she could. We were often greeted by the words, "I made iced tea for you yesterday so it is fresh." Her thoughtfulness was an example of the extravagance God shows us.

On this weekend we remember the great gift of nurturing love and ask God to continue to bless all mothers and spiritual women for how they make His gifts real in our lives.

Since I cannot now receive You sacramentally, come at least spiritually into my heart. I embrace You as if You were already there, and unite myself wholly to You. Never permit me to be separated from You. Amen."

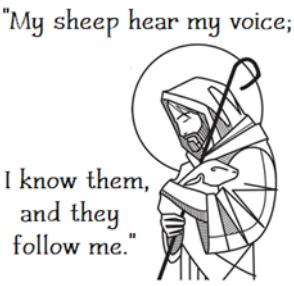
Family Scripture Connection

Did you know that sheep cannot live without a shepherd? They rely on the shepherd for everything and need constant care and watching over. A good shepherd leads his sheep to food and water, keeps them safe from predators and getting lost, and makes sure they are healthy and sheared. In the Gospel for this 4th Sunday of Easter, John reminds us that we are like sheep with the best shepherd ever. Jesus gave up His life to make sure we are safe, cared for, and worthy of eternal life. If we listen to Jesus's voice and follow Him, He will never lead us astray. As the flock of the Lord, let us raise our voices in thanksgiving and praise today for our Good Shepherd!



On-Campus Classes for K-5 RE

The Group B (5:45 classes) meet this week on May 9 and 11 for their final on campus session of the year. The Group A (4:30 classes) had their final on campus class last week.

We anticipate registration for the 2022-2023 RE year will begin in early June. Keep an eye on the bulletin for updates. Those families currently registered for RE will receive a phone call and email to alert you when enrollment starts.

Silence

Proving a point during the final DASH 2 session, I yelled quite loudly to get their attention and share about God's voice. When we are so active in our lives, so loud, we can't hear God speaking to us. Peter had to quiet his fears and shame to hear Jesus say: do you love me? And we all need to quell inner doubt to turn off the noise and enjoy the quiet of creation, to hear God's voice. With DASH sessions almost all complete, on this Mother's Day find time to be in comfortable quiet (and joy!!) together as a family and invite God into the fold.

DASH 1: You made it to the last week! Review game for those in 5:45. All other students? If your progress note prior to the last class looked good, you're great! If an email was sent with a document of work to do, work on that this month to complete the content for the year.

DASH 2: Whether your faith is "sourced" from the fountain, stream, or pool; whether you are filling up on the Holy Spirit with the openness the size of a pinhead or a bucket, Jesus is still at your side. Show up to Him often! May Faithbooster should be complete this month. I'll slowly go through each student's work to make sure all-over important things are done.

DASH 3: Done yet just begun. Last week the closing prayer service was just an invitation to continue your depth of prayer and continue to reach out to the Holy Spirit for strength. There are more things to come for those at this level but hang tight and wait for emails to come sharing next steps and any news.

SUNDAY PRAYER SHAPING LIFE AND BELIEF

This Bulletin Shorts Series began in 2016 during the Extraordinary Jubilee Year of Mercy. Now, in this sixth year, it still aims to help the faithful and catechumens delve into the Sunday Scripture and wrestle with Christian life. The hope is to rest more and more in God's grace and act in more merciful ways. The style is mystagogical.

Hearing the Voice of the Shepherd. Oh, to hear the voice of the One who keeps us safe. The One who protects us all. The One who leads us to the Father. We do know and believe that this shepherd still speaks today – often very softly.

† How will I listen for the voice of the Shepherd every day?
† How will I choose to follow the voice of this Shepherd and not other voices?
† How can I help others to listen to this voice? And follow?

St. Vincent de Paul Society
Gospel Reflection

Today, we celebrate "Good Shepherd Sunday" where we reflect on the care and love of Jesus for us.

We can demonstrate that love by helping people who desperately need help. Are you interested in helping the poor? Have you thought about joining the St. Vincent de Paul Society?

You are warmly invited to learn more about how we approach our mission to help those in need. On Tuesday May 17 at 7:00 PM in the Joachim Center, we will hold a meeting where several members will offer insight as to how we approach those who ask for help, and how we recommend and decide on financial outlays. We'll discuss what happens on our visits, including reviewing personal budgets, developing goals, suggesting solutions, and, of course, prayer. These simple acts of Christian charity not only help solve the problems that our neighbors are experiencing but also support our members in developing their own spiritual growth.

If you are interested in seeing how you might participate in these acts of Christian charity, please join us. There is, of course, no obligation.
