A NOTE FROM FATHER EICKHOFF

The last verses of today's Second Reading from the 2nd Letter of St. Paul to Timothy contain what is thought to be the words from a very early Christian hymn:

If we have died with him
    we shall also live with him;
if we persevere
    we shall also reign with him.
But if we deny him
    he will deny us.
If we are unfaithful
    he remains faithful,
    for he cannot deny himself.

This passage is explicitly described by St. Paul as a summation of his previous words to Timothy. Before this passage St. Paul encourages Timothy to be steadfast in his Christian faith and gives to Timothy the examples of a soldier, an athlete, and a farmer who remain dedicated to their task and their vocation and therefore gain the rewards promised to them. In the case of the soldier, the athlete, and the farmer those rewards are of earthly things. In the case of the Christian the reward is everlasting life with God. For St. Paul, all of the difficulties and trials he undergoes are worth it in order to win eternal life. And he encourages St. Timothy (and us today) to remain with Christ even when undergoing hardship.

Consider the words of the hymn. The first line speaks of how in Baptism we have been joined to Jesus Christ through sharing in His sacrificial death. We have died in Christ, but in dying, we also gain the hope of living forever with Christ. The second line reminds us that Jesus Christ is the true and eternal king of the heavens and the earth. All of the earthly powers and rulers will in time disappear, but Christ remains forever. We need to hold fast to Christ here and now and, if we do so, we will one day share in Christ's victory and rulership over all of creation. The next line reminds us that simply being Baptized is not an automatic "get into heaven free card." We must throughout our lives live by Christ's teaching, act on Christ's grace that has been given to us, and even in difficulties continue to believe in Jesus Christ. We all know how difficult this can be for us fallible human beings, and so the last line gives us hope. The last line reminds us that even though we often stray from God, God always remains good for the promises given to us.

On an entirely different topic, I will be on vacation next week (October 16-22) and will be backpacking in the Appalachian Mountains. I will not be able to respond to emails or phone calls during that time. I will return any messages after I get back.

Yours in Christ,

Fr. Stephen Eickhoff
Pastor

"My Jesus, I believe that you are present in the most Blessed Sacrament. I love You above all things and I desire to receive You into my soul. Since I cannot now receive You sacramentally, come at least spiritually into my heart. I embrace You as if You were already there, and unite myself wholly to You. Never permit me to be separated from You. Amen."

"Recent Federal Tax changes may make it advantageous for parishioners receiving RMDs (Required Minimum Distributions) to transfer funds from their IRA (Individual Retirement Accounts) to St. Anne Parish. "Please consult your financial planner or tax advisor before making any tax or contribution decision."

Your participation in the CMAA is important.
If you have not had a chance to participate in the Catholic Ministries Annual Appeal (CMAA) this year, there is still time. Please look for the mailing which will be arriving in homes shortly.

As your pastor, I encourage you to prayerfully reflect on God's gifts to you and to give a gift to the CMAA. Participation is the key to a successful appeal and a chance for our parish to receive a parish rebate, too. Every gift helps!

If you do not receive this mailing and would like to make a gift to the CMAA, please call the Diocese of Joliet Development Office at (815) 838-8515. Or, if you wish to make your gift online, please visit www.jolietdioceseappeal.org.

Our parish goal is $113,500.00 and to date we have received $121,487.00. $113,022.00 has been paid. 70% of gifts received over goal will be returned to our parish for our use. If you have not done so already, please prayerfully consider supporting the CMAA.

A gift to the CMAA, no matter the amount, will make a difference! Together, we can continue to spread the Gospel message in our diocese through our ministries and help others in need. Thank you for your support!

The NATIONAL EUCHARISTIC REVIVAL
"My Flesh for The Life of The World"

began on the Solemnity of the Most Holy Body and Blood of Christ, June 19th. On this day, the Catholic Church in the United States began the three year National Eucharistic Revival.

The United States Conference of Catholic Bishops has established a website for helping to distribute information about the Eucharistic Revival. On this website, you can find information about various Eucharistic talks and written documents. More importantly you can sign up for a weekly Heart of the Revival Newsletter which will send you updates and inspirational materials. You can also sign up to be a Prayer Partner. We encourage you to visit:

K-5 Family Scripture Connection

The Gospel story of Jesus healing the 10 lepers teaches us 3 important things:

1. God loves and values everyone! Leprosy is a highly contagious and terrible illness. In Jesus's time, people with leprosy were treated as unclean and no one wanted to be near them. But Jesus listened to them and helped them. He treated them with love and respect.
2. God honors faith! Jesus didn't heal the lepers right away. He told them to go to the priests to be cleansed. Because the lepers had faith that they would be helped if they listened to Jesus, they were healed!
3. God cherishes gratitude! Only one of the 10 lepers went back to thank Jesus. God will continue to love us even when we are not grateful and He never forces us to say thank you, but giving God our thanks is a beautiful way to show we love and worship Him.

How will you show your faith in God this week? What can you do to thank God for all He is and all He does?

Trust in Tough Times?
A common struggle among youth (and adults) is believing that God is real and loves us when something we ask for/want/or even need, doesn't happen. When an injury comes pulling you out of your favorite sport, do you yell at God, plead with Him and them maybe find a way to accept your state in life? Today's miracles of healing show Jesus's compassion that is a gift, to all, but only one person say thanks. In life, whether you get what you want from God or don't, give Him thanks and praise – it's part of the ingredients of faith which leads to wonderful things in your life!

DASH 1: Monday classes are off, check any possible emails for content to complete. Tuesday and Wednesday classes are on!
