We have been given a gift, we have been given faith. In the upcoming issue of Christ Is Our Hope magazine there will be a pastoral letter written by our bishop. Bishop Conlon invites all of us to take the time to read the pastoral letter. It is about evangelization. It is about being true to the gift of the faith given and the responsibility to share that faith with others. Simple evangelization happens when we live our faith in a way that is an invitation to theirs. The pastoral letter will also be accessible on the website of the Diocese of Joliet, in addition to being printed in Christ is Our Hope magazine. It is to be the subject of discussions in our Adult Faith gatherings. It will also be studied by our Parish Council. It is an important document for all of us and I encourage everyone to read it.

I would like to thank the Bereavement Committee for hosting our special All Souls liturgy. It is a humbling time to read the names of those who have entered union with God for all eternity. Sister Margaret Anne and her team provided a great atmosphere for us to pray. I would also like to thank the Art and Environment Committee for providing the Table of the Remembrance for our pictures. It was a joy to remember familiar faces.

Next week on Sunday afternoon I will be celebrating a teaching Mass with our eighth graders. It is a time to explain what we do so that we can better understand the profound love God has packed into the Sacrament of Eucharist. Please keep our eighth graders and their families in your prayers.

The plans for the St. Vincent de Paul Society continue to grow. I am grateful to all who have stepped up to be present to a great outreach to those in need.

The Finance Committee will be available in hospitality after the Masses next weekend to answer any of your questions about our budget. I am grateful to God for all of your generosity and stewardship. We are blessed as we do everything together.

Fr. John
Jesus is moved in today’s Gospel by an experience of a young person who shares his understanding with the Lord. What insight led to this sharing? It is interesting to note that the understanding that Jesus seeks goes beyond the words of knowing the law and the greatest commandment. The answer lies in the young person’s understanding that all of this love of God and neighbor is more important than all of the burnt offerings offered. It is this insight that the Lord treasures. So what does that say to us?

There is a distinction between just knowing the words of the greatest commandment and understanding it. It is easy for us to say we love the Lord with all our heart, all our soul and all our being. We are in the process every day at trying to do that. Each day we try to make God the priority of our lives. The second great commandment is to love our neighbor. Again we know the words and we strive to make that happen, at least until our neighbor becomes difficult. It is then we are put to the test and this is the journey of being a follower of Jesus. But what Jesus sees in the young person in the Gospel is understanding. He sees the young person’s insight that all of this is greater than offerings. Living the faith has a deeper connection to God than just going through the motions of offering sacrifice at the temple.

This comparison of priority is the understanding that is placed before us. How often do we just go through the routine of spirituality without really thinking about what we do? How often do we just check off the box that we prayed in the morning, yet never move to an awareness that the praise of God is to connect our soul to the will of God? Too often our faith routines become just that—routine. Understanding comes when we integrate our love of neighbor into our faith. How often have we seen someone leave Mass and then get frustrated in the parking lot because the vehicles in front of them are not moving fast enough? Or we leave Mass only to hear someone gossip about their neighbor?

Living faith is not about going through the motions. Living faith is not about doing things out of obligation. Living faith is a vibrancy of joy. St. Teresa of Calcutta found joy in walking among the poorest of the poor. She found excitement as she met Jesus on the street in the eyes of an abandoned child. She lived with the expectation that Jesus was in the face of everyone she met. This propelled her to a peace and joy beyond imagination.

We are all great about knowing our faith, the challenge is to have an understanding of it.

COMMUNION TO THE HOMEBOUND

If you know of someone unable to attend Mass regularly due to age or illness and wishes to receive Communion at home, please have them contact the parish office, 630-554-3331, so that arrangements can be made to have a Pastoral Care Minister bring the Eucharist to their home.

SAINT PEREGRINE MINISTRY

Saint Peregrine is the universal patron saint of those afflicted with cancer and chronic and incurable illnesses. The Mantellite Sisters Servants of Mary of Plainfield are the hostesses to monthly gatherings held on the second Saturday of the month at 4:00 PM. All gather to pray for healing from God through the intercession of Saint Peregrine. We will celebrate the liturgy together, proclaiming the Sunday scriptures. All gatherings will include a blessing with a first class relic of Saint Peregrine and a reception.

November 10

We know the two commandments: Love of God and Love of Neighbor go hand in hand.

It is through the priesthood of Jesus, the High Priest that we are brought into the communion of mind and heart.

Stewardship strives to unite us in this common bond.

God's Share

All of us are recipients of many blessings from God. In return, He expects that we praise Him for His goodness and thank Him for His generous gifts. Thanking, however, is not done in word only, but in deed, also.

In November we are celebrating and featuring those who are deaf or experience hearing loss

Hearing impairment, deafness, or hearing loss refers to the total or partial inability to hear sounds. Symptoms may be mild, moderate, severe, or profound. A person with a mild hearing impairment may have problems understanding speech, especially if there is a lot of noise around, while those with moderate deafness may need a hearing aid. Some people are severely deaf and rely on lip-reading to communicate with others. People who are profoundly deaf can hear nothing at all and can find themselves totally reliant on lip-reading and/or sign language.

In the United States, around 15 percent of people over the age of 18 years report some level of hearing loss. (www.medicalnewstoday.com/articles/249285.php “What’s to know about deafness and hearing loss?” by Christian Nordqvist, Last updated Wed. 27 June 2018, Reviewed by Alana Biggers, MD, MPH)

For additional information regarding this process, please contact the Licensure Specialist at your County’s Regional Office of Education.

WELCOMING YOUR CHILD

Saint Anne Parish Baptism Preparation Program

Baptism Preparation classes are usually held the first and third Wednesday of the month at 7:30 PM in the Joachim Center. You will need to attend both sessions before scheduling a Baptism. We encourage you to sign up for Baptism Preparation before the birth of your child. Baptisms are scheduled after the birth of your child and after you have attended both sessions.

To register for Baptism Preparation, please contact Sr. Margaret Anne Spagnola, 630-554-3331. We ask that you be a registered member of the parish in order to have a Baptism at Saint Anne Parish.

Please do not choose Godparents until you receive the established Church guidelines for Godparents.
REVERSE FOOD COLLECTION MINISTRY

Once a month, along with the regular collection basket, a separate basket is distributed filled with slips listing non-perishable food items. Parishioners are encouraged to take slips from the basket, purchase the items, and then return them to the narthex of the church the following weekend at any of the Masses.

After the 11:00 AM Mass on Sunday, Saint Anne volunteers collect the food items and transport them to the Kendall County Food Pantry in Yorkville where the items are unloaded and sorted. Saint Anne Parish is one of the major contributors to the food pantry and the food pantry depends greatly on our food contributions. Volunteers for this ministry are always welcome. It requires about 2 1/2 hours of time each month to load vehicles, transport the food and sort the items for future distribution.

If you are not able to shop, the Food Pantry accepts cash donations. For every $1 you donate, the Pantry can purchase over $6.00 in food from the food bank. You may place your donation in the collection the weekend of the Reverse Food Collection. Checks are to be made out to Kendall County Community Food Pantry.

For more information or to become a volunteer, contact Willie or Jay Vidmar, 815-436-6664 or by email: ladywil@aol.com or vidacres@aol.com. Please put “reverse collection” in the subject line to distinguish it from spam mail.

PEACE & JUSTICE : PRISONER ALERT!

Please Pray for this Persecuted Christian

On March 5, 2017, police arrested Cao San-Qiang (John Cao), a Chinese pastor known for his work among Myanmar’s poor. Authorities charged Pastor Cao with “organizing illegal crossings of national borders” and, one year later, sentenced him to seven years in prison.

- Pastor Cao, 58, is married to an American citizen and is a long-time resident of North Carolina. The pastor, who is currently being held in the Menglian Detention Center, had been crossing the border between China and Myanmar for three years without incident and with the knowledge of Chinese officials.
- In the Wa State of northern Myanmar, Pastor Cao helped build 16 schools that serve 2,000 impoverished children. He also established educational projects to help alleviate poverty among local minority groups.
- Experts believe his arrest and sentencing are related to the ruling Communist Party’s attempts to control the house church movement. Pastor Cao became a believer in his 20s. After he married an American citizen, attended seminary and settled in the U.S., he felt he had to return as a missionary to his home country of China.
- He worked for many years establishing schools in China before turning his attention to neighboring Myanmar in 2014. According to his son, his work in Myanmar was much more humanitarian than his previous work with the house churches in China.

Please pray for this Persecuted Christian, his wife Jamie Powell, and their sons Benjamin and Amos during the month of November. The power of prayer can work miracles. More information about what we can do and about others being persecuted is available at www.prisoneralert.com.

Coming Home:  A Free retreat program designed to help military men and women come to spiritual healing and reconciliation with God, themselves and with one another. There is NO charge for this retreat for our vets and their significant other. At this retreat, veterans are encouraged to share their story in a safe environment, in the company of other military.

Next weekend:  November 16-18 at Siena Retreat Center in Racine, WI.

Sound Familiar?
- I am having difficulty getting used to civilian life?
- I am impatient and frustrated and find myself isolating.
- I feel like God is MIA or KIA in my life.
- I cannot sleep and when I do sleep I have nightmares.
- I experience intense emotions like guilt, anger, and resentment.
- I often turn to unhealthy activities to mask my pain.
- My friends and family don’t understand me. They don’t “Get it.”

Retreat leader, Sr. Linda McClenahan, a veteran herself, served as a communications Sergeant in the III Corps area of Vietnam. She is now a Dominican Sister and Licensed Professional Counselor and Therapist whose ministry involves helping veterans deal with trauma. Sr. Linda is assisted by Augie Sisco, Major, USMC (Ret.), a Vietnam combat veteran and assistance director of Mayslake Vet Ministry.

MISSION STATEMENT
God has called us to be Christian witnesses by the precious gift of our Catholic faith through Baptism. Just as Saint Anne had a role in God’s plan so do each of us. We are called to faithfully teach and live the message of Jesus. We listen to God’s word, grow in our understanding of it and respond to it through outreach and service in our own parish as well as the wider community. We exercise our responsibility to develop and see the gifts God has given us for the common good and to insure that our Eucharistic celebrations are truly joyful and meaningful.

SACRAMENT OF BAPTISM
Baptisms are generally held the 1st and 3rd Sundays of the month (some months this may vary) at 12:30 PM. Expectant parents are to call the Parish Office, six months before the birth of their child for preparation information. Please do not choose Godparents until you receive the established Church guidelines for Godparents.

SACRAMENT OF MARRIAGE
Couples seeking the Sacrament of Marriage should call the parish office at least six months before the date of marriage. A wedding date may not be secured until meeting with the parish Deacon or Priest. At that time, the couple will be secured a date and begin the process of preparation for the Sacrament of Marriage.

SACRAMENT OF THE SICK
If there is anyone at home who cannot get to Mass and the Sacraments because of illness or age, please call the parish office at anytime to request the Sacrament of the Anointing of the Sick.

RCIA (Rite of Christian Initiation of Adults)
Those interested in becoming Catholic or in learning more about the Catholic faith meet weekly. Call the parish office or e-mail rcia@stanneparish.org for more information.

STEWARDSHIP PARISH
We are a stewardship parish. This means that every parishioner with an income is asked to use a Sunday envelope, since we expect to meet our needs from the one collection at the Presentation of the Gifts.

NEW PARISHIONERS
All new families are warmly welcomed to Saint Anne Parish and we ask that you register your family through our website: http://stanneparish.org/registration-form/.
