PULLING UP WEEDS AT THE COST OF UPROOTING THE WHEAT

It is fascinating to hear Jesus in the Gospel parable say that it is best to let the weeds and the wheat grow together. Weeds can take away sustenance and minerals from the grain of wheat. It will make the harvest much more complicated. So often when we look at the garden and see weeds we may feel that things have been neglected. Wheat and weeds growing together challenges our standard for good gardens. But the Lord uses wisdom to say let them grow together. In the end, our focus might change. A Jesuit priest wrote a reflective book on this reality. His starting point was the premise that we do not know what our wheat is and what are the weeds in our lives. So often we would prefer to get rid of the painful things in our lives. We would avoid certain things. Yet looking back over the years, they just might become the real places of growth. His premise was that Jesus tells the workers to wait until the harvest so we could really understand what our weeds are and what our wheat is. We say often hindsight is 20/20.

It is not easy to be patient to wait until the harvest. We would like justice now. We want to rid ourselves of the weeds that cloud our vision or our well-being. At times we are not patient in the present time, we all long for things to be uprooted, to be thrown out. Wisdom comes only at the harvest. Jesus is asking us to give it time. In time our perspective might change. What truly are our weeds and what truly is our wheat? Has it changed over time as we look back at our lives?

God sees the good in us. God sees the potential in us. He is willing to give us all the time to grow. We have until His harvest. God does not long to uproot the potential. May we be honest about what is truly the good and what is truly the bad in our lives; about what is truly wheat and what are truly weeds.

After taking an over the counter pregnancy test, "Angela" was surprised to see it come back positive. She and her boyfriend, "Don", have a 2-year-old son together and another baby was not in her plans.

She came to Waterleaf for an ultrasound saying, "I just needed to see so I can make my decision." While meeting with her Waterleaf advocate, she shared that having an abortion would affect her emotionally and she feared other side effects as well.

After her first ultrasound Angela seemed undeterred and said "I'm leaning toward terminating. There is just a lot going on right now" however, she and Don agreed to return for a second appointment.

During the second ultrasound they were both quiet and suddenly the baby began to move around. The sonographer said, "The baby is dancing." Angela asked, "Are they not supposed to move at this time?" and the sonographer responded, "They move all the time, but you will begin to feel it around 15 weeks."

Angela was given pictures of the ultrasound, which she took home. They scheduled a third appointment and at that visit, Angela and Don decided to parent this baby. They stated amazement at how much growth occurred since they last saw the baby. They laughed as they watched their very active baby jumping on the screen. Angela is now working with a resource specialist in the Aspire resource program to make sure she has insurance and doctor care for a healthy pregnancy.

MISSION STATEMENT

God has called us to be Christian witnesses by the precious gift of our Catholic faith through Baptism. Just as Saint Anne had a role in God's plan so do each of us. We are called to faithfully teach and live the message of Jesus. We listen to God's word, grow in our understanding of it and respond to it through outreach and service in our own parish as well as the wider community. We exercise our responsibility to develop and see the gifts God has given us for the common good and to insure that our Eucharistic celebrations are truly joyful and meaningful.
