

STATIONS OF THE CROSS IN A TIME OF PANDEMIC

[Written by Fr. John J. Ouper]

STATIONS OF THE CROSS IN A TIME OF PANDEMIC

[Written by Fr. John J. Ouper]

THE FIRST STATION: “CONDEMNED”

Jesus is Condemned to Death

Begin with song:

WHERE YOU THERE?

We pause to reflect on all those who have been falsely condemned and for those times we may feel that others have been unjust towards us.

IN ALL OF THIS MAY WE ENCOUNTER THE LORD JESUS WHO REDEEMS

We also pause to reflect on all those who have done the condemning, those who have at times abused power or allowed prejudice to lead their actions.

IN ALL OF THIS MAY WE COME TO THE LORD FOR HEALING

In the words of Pope Francis:

“By His cross we are saved,
By His cross we are redeemed,
By His cross we are healed and embraced.”

STATIONS OF THE CROSS IN A TIME OF PANDEMIC

[Written by Fr. John J. Ouper]

THE SECOND STATION:

“THE CROSS”

Jesus Takes Up His Cross

We pause to reflect on the weight of the crosses we and others are now carrying in this time of pandemic.

IN ALL OF THIS MAY WE ENCOUNTER THE LORD JESUS WHO REDEEMS

We also pause to reflect on the burdens we place on others, weighing them down,
making it harder for them.

IN ALL OF THIS MAY WE COME TO THE LORD FOR HEALING

In the words of Pope Francis:

“By His cross we are saved,
By His cross we are redeemed,
By His cross we are healed and embraced.”

STATIONS OF THE CROSS IN A TIME OF PANDEMIC

[Written by Fr. John J. Ouper]

THE THIRD STATION "THE FALL"

Jesus Falls the First Time

We pause to remind ourselves of the times we have fallen, of the sins that are ever before us and the ones we feel can never be forgiven.

IN ALL OF THIS MAY WE ENCOUNTER THE LORD JESUS WHO REDEEMS

We also pause to remind ourselves of those times when we have looked down upon others, because they have fallen and they have sinned.

IN ALL OF THIS MAY WE COME TO THE LORD FOR HEALING

In the words of Pope Francis:

“By His cross we are saved,
By His cross we are redeemed,
By His cross we are healed and embraced.”

STATIONS OF THE CROSS IN A TIME OF PANDEMIC

[Written by Fr. John J. Ouper]

THE FOURTH STATION “MEETINGS”

Jesus Meets His Mother

We pause to call to mind
the encounters with our parents, words spoken, experiences shared,
and the love that was communicated.

IN ALL OF THIS MAY WE ENCOUNTER THE LORD JESUS WHO REDEEMS

We also pause to call to mind
the things that keep families apart in this time of social distancing, the tensions that can arise and estrange us from one another.

IN ALL OF THIS MAY WE COME TO THE LORD FOR HEALING

In the words of Pope Francis:

“By His cross we are saved,
By His cross we are redeemed,
By His cross we are healed and embraced.”

STATIONS OF THE CROSS IN A TIME OF PANDEMIC

[Written by Fr. John J. Ouper]

THE FIFTH STATION “HELP”

Jesus is Helped by Simon of Cyrene

We pause to call to mind
the many outreaches of others that help ease the burden of those who are on the frontlines of fighting the COVID-19 virus in this time of crisis.

IN ALL OF THIS MAY WE ENCOUNTER THE LORD JESUS WHO REDEEMS

We also pause to call to mind
those who are now relying on others for help, those who have lost their jobs,
their sources of revenue and their businesses that have closed.

IN ALL OF THIS MAY WE COME TO THE LORD FOR HEALING

In the words of Pope Francis:

“By His cross we are saved,
By His cross we are redeemed,
By His cross we are healed and embraced.”

STATIONS OF THE CROSS IN A TIME OF PANDEMIC

[Written by Fr. John J. Ouper]

THE SIXTH STATION “IMAGES”

Veronica Wipes
the Face of Jesus

We pause to reflect on the many images of the face of Jesus that inspire, comfort and bring peace to so many in every part of the world.

IN ALL OF THIS MAY WE ENCOUNTER THE LORD JESUS WHO REDEEMS

We also pause to reflect on those moments when we have been invited to see the face of Jesus in the poor, the hungry and the homeless.

IN ALL OF THIS MAY WE COME TO THE LORD FOR HEALING

In the words of Pope Francis:

“By His cross we are saved,
By His cross we are redeemed,
By His cross we are healed and embraced.”

End with song: JESUS REMEMBER ME

STATIONS OF THE CROSS IN A TIME OF PANDEMIC

[Written by Fr. John J. Ouper]

THE SEVENTH STATION:
“BALANCE”
Jesus Falls the Second Time

We pause to remember
the agony of losing our balance and stumbling, the feeling of helplessness as we see the tragedies around us.

IN ALL OF THIS MAY WE ENCOUNTER THE LORD JESUS WHO REDEEMS

We also pause to remember the times we have tried to get back up on our own, instead of seeking God's help.

IN ALL OF THIS MAY WE COME TO THE LORD FOR HEALING

In the words of Pope Francis:

“By His cross we are saved,
By His cross we are redeemed,
By His cross we are healed and embraced.”

STATIONS OF THE CROSS IN A TIME OF PANDEMIC

[Written by Fr. John J. Ouper]

THE EIGHTH STATION:
“INSPIRATION”
Jesus Meets the Women of Jerusalem

We pause to reflect on the power of Jesus to gather together groups, to calm storms, to hold fears, to bring forgiveness and peace.

IN ALL OF THIS MAY WE ENCOUNTER THE LORD JESUS WHO REDEEMS

We also pause to reflect on the pain of not being able to gather at this time in usual ways, as well as the gatherings that are filled with bitterness and hate, where words are used to cause division.

IN ALL OF THIS MAY WE COME TO THE LORD FOR HEALING

In the words of Pope Francis:

“By His cross we are saved,
By His cross we are redeemed,
By His cross we are healed and embraced.”

STATIONS OF THE CROSS IN A TIME OF PANDEMIC

[Written by Fr. John J. Ouper]

THE NINTH STATION: “REOCCURENCE” Jesus Falls the Third Time

We pause to reflect on the deepening sense of despair we feel when we commit the same sin, the same action or inaction over and over again.

IN ALL OF THIS MAY WE ENCOUNTER THE LORD JESUS WHO REDEEMS

We also pause to reflect on those times we lose patience with the reoccurrence of the brokenness and sinfulness of others when unforgiveness traps us.

IN ALL OF THIS MAY WE COME TO THE LORD FOR HEALING

In the words of Pope Francis:

“By His cross we are saved,
By His cross we are redeemed,
By His cross we are healed and embraced.”

STATIONS OF THE CROSS IN A TIME OF PANDEMIC

[Written by Fr. John J. Ouper]

THE TENTH STATION:
"STRIPPED"
Jesus is Stripped of His Garments

We pause to reflect on the humiliation of the action when all is taken away, our security, our hope, our livelihood.

IN ALL OF THIS MAY WE ENCOUNTER THE LORD JESUS WHO REDEEMS

We also pause to reflect on those things that we find the hardest to let go of, the things that would leave us too vulnerable and too exposed.

IN ALL OF THIS MAY WE COME TO THE LORD FOR HEALING

In the words of Pope Francis:

"By His cross we are saved,
By His cross we are redeemed,
By His cross we are healed and embraced."

STATIONS OF THE CROSS IN A TIME OF PANDEMIC

[Written by Fr. John J. Ouper]

THE ELEVENTH STATION:
“PAIN”
Jesus is Nailed to the Cross

We pause to remember
His pain of no longer being able to move freely,
His hands that blessed and broke bread,
His feet that walked on water no longer being able to move.

IN ALL OF THIS MAY WE ENCOUNTER THE LORD JESUS WHO REDEEMS

We also pause to remember
our own difficulties to embrace the lack of movement, and the pain of limiting connections in these moments of the virus outbreak.

IN ALL OF THIS MAY WE COME TO THE LORD FOR HEALING

In the words of Pope Francis:

“By His cross we are saved,
By His cross we are redeemed,
By His cross we are healed and embraced.”

STATIONS OF THE CROSS IN A TIME OF PANDEMIC

[Written by Fr. John J. Ouper]

THE TWELFTH STATION:
“DEATH”
Jesus Dies on the Cross

We pause to reflect on the magnitude of this saving act that changed the world.

IN ALL OF THIS MAY WE ENCOUNTER THE LORD JESUS WHO REDEEMS

We also pause to reflect on the pain of those dying alone at this time, and those who are surrounded and engulfed by death every day.

IN ALL OF THIS MAY WE COME TO THE LORD FOR HEALING

In the words of Pope Francis:

“By His cross we are saved,
By His cross we are redeemed,
By His cross we are healed and embraced.”

STATIONS OF THE CROSS IN A TIME OF PANDEMIC

[Written by Fr. John J. Ouper]

THE THIRTEENTH STATION:

“LOVE”

Jesus is Taken Down from the Cross

We pause to reflect on the acceptance of a new reality.

The One who was alive is now dead and lifeless.

He is placed into the arms of our Blessed Mother;
her love for Him did not end in this death.

IN ALL OF THIS MAY WE ENCOUNTER THE LORD JESUS WHO REDEEMS

We also pause to reflect on the new ways we are to seek strength when surrounded by so much death globally and how we are called to trust that love still has power in this time of crisis.

IN ALL OF THIS MAY WE COME TO THE LORD FOR HEALING

In the words of Pope Francis:

“By His cross we are saved,
By His cross we are redeemed,
By His cross we are healed and embraced.”

STATIONS OF THE CROSS IN A TIME OF PANDEMIC

[Written by Fr. John J. Ouper]

THE FOURTEENTH STATION: “PLACEMENT”

Jesus is Laid in the Tomb

We pause to reflect on the places where death is entombed.

Jesus was placed in a new tomb never used before.

Where do we place the death of the way things used to be?

IN ALL OF THIS MAY WE ENCOUNTER THE LORD JESUS WHO REDEEMS

We also pause to reflect on the times we have failed to die or surrender to the places where new life can never enter.

IN ALL OF THIS MAY WE COME TO THE LORD FOR HEALING

In the words of Pope Francis:

“By His cross we are saved,
By His cross we are redeemed,
By His cross we are healed and embraced.”

End with song: WHERE YOU THERE?

COVER ART:
Stations of the Cross XII. Jesus Dies. Eric Gill woodcut.