

He said, "To what shall we compare the kingdom of God, or what parable can we use for it? It is like a mustard seed that, when it is sown in the ground, is the smallest of all the seeds on the earth. But once it is sown, it springs up and becomes the largest of plants and puts forth large branches, so that the birds of the sky can dwell in its shade."

Father's Day Collection for Diocesan Infirm and Elderly Priests

"The heart of Christ's priests knows only two directions: the Lord and His people."

-- Pope Francis, Jubilee of Mercy for Priests, June 3, 2016

These words of Pope Francis strike a chord as we approach the Father's Day Collection for Diocesan Infirm and Elderly Priests on June 19-20 in parishes throughout the diocese. This annual collection helps meet the needs of our elderly, infirm and retired diocesan priests, especially those who have extraordinary medical expenses beyond what insurance can cover.

"It helps out with unusual expenses that a priest might encounter, like a huge dental bill or a hearing aid," said Father John Balluff, episcopal vicar for clergy for the diocese.

This second collection also helps to pay for repairs at the St. John Vianney Villa Priest Retirement Home in Naperville, an assisted living facility for retired priests. But we all know that few priests really retire, as they often fill in for a pastor who becomes sick or goes on sabbatical. They also celebrate daily and weekend Masses, hear confessions, perform funerals, celebrate weddings and anoint the sick.

Let's give generously to this second collection on Father's Day weekend:

FARMING IN THE HEARTLAND OF GOD

In the Gospel, Jesus uses a parable to remind us the precious Kingdom of God is like a farmer who scatters the seed and trusts it will grow without much control and knowledge. In our present time, we know that with agricultural education our farming community knows exactly what to do to get the best yield. They measure rain and nutrients in the soil, they understand what to do when the sprout begins to grow and when it needs protection and help. Farmers are a blessing and their knowledge of the land gives them an appreciation of God's creation. Yet in farming, there are some uncontrollable variables each season. There are soggy fields that might necessitate a late planting or drought that can bleach the soil. Harvest can be derailed by many factors. In all of this, from the very start farmers know that there are things they can control and there are things they cannot. They realize this every day which grounds them in faith. I know nothing about farming, yet I have been blessed to learn just a little in these past years here. Being mesmerized by the combine and watching it work, seeing the fields move from one stage of growth to another has been fascinating. Realizing the trust that resonates in working with the land, farmers work hard so that the plant can reach its potential and in doing so provide the most and best of feed for those who will receive it.

The parable invites us to reconnect with our trust and reliance on God. The one who scatters the seed must trust it will grow and trust what grows can be harvested. It is a beautiful lesson on trust. Jesus tells the listeners there are things they have no control over even if they think they do. The one who relies on God totally is the one who lives in the moment praising Him for all that He does. The more we surrender, the more we rely more on God than ourselves, the more we grasp the joy of the Kingdom where God is God and there is no other like His salvific love.

May our harvest be plentiful this year as we strive to rely totally on God,

Father John Ouper

from the APOSTOLIC LETTER
“PATRIS CORDE” OF THE HOLY FATHER FRANCIS, “WITH A FATHER’S HEART”

1. A beloved father

The greatness of Saint Joseph is that he was the spouse of Mary and the father of Jesus. In this way, he placed himself, in the words of Saint John Chrysostom, “at the service of the entire plan of salvation”.

Saint Paul VI pointed out that Joseph concretely expressed his fatherhood “by making his life a sacrificial service to the mystery of the incarnation and its redemptive purpose. He employed his legal authority over the Holy Family to devote himself completely to them in his life and work. He turned his human vocation to domestic love into a superhuman oblation of himself, his heart and all his abilities, a love placed at the service of the Messiah who was growing to maturity in his home”.

Thanks to his role in salvation history, Saint Joseph has always been venerated as a father by the Christian people. This is shown by the countless churches dedicated to him worldwide, the numerous religious Institutes, Confraternities and ecclesial groups inspired by his spirituality and bearing his name, and the many traditional expressions of piety in his honor. Innumerable holy men and women were passionately devoted to him. Among them was Teresa of Avila, who chose him as her advocate and intercessor, had frequent recourse to him and received whatever graces she asked of him. Encouraged by her own experience, Teresa persuaded others to cultivate devotion to Joseph.

Every prayer book contains prayers to Saint Joseph. Special prayers are offered to him each Wednesday and especially during the month of March, which is traditionally dedicated to him.

Popular trust in Saint Joseph is seen in the expression “Go to Joseph”, which evokes the famine in Egypt, when the Egyptians begged Pharaoh for bread. He in turn replied: “Go to Joseph; what he says to you, do” (Gen 41:55). Pharaoh was referring to Joseph the son of Jacob, who was sold into slavery because of the jealousy of his brothers (cf. Gen 37:11-28) and who – according to the biblical account – subsequently became viceroy of Egypt (cf. Gen 41:41-44).

As a descendant of David (cf. Mt 1:16-20), from whose stock Jesus was to spring according to the promise made to David by the prophet Nathan (cf. 2 Sam 7), and as the spouse of Mary of Nazareth, Saint Joseph stands at the crossroads between the Old and New Testaments.

Let us pray,

Hail, Guardian of the Redeemer,
Spouse of the Blessed Virgin Mary.
To you God entrusted His only Son;
in you Mary placed her trust;
with you Christ became man.
Blessed Joseph, to us too,
show yourself a father
and guide us in the path of life.
Obtain for us grace, mercy, and courage,
and defend us from every evil.
Amen.

Congratulations and God's Blessing to Aaron Malnick, S.J.

The Kingdom of God is like a mustard seed...

11th Sunday of Ordinary Time

Although we are back in the liturgical season of Ordinary Time, the Gospel message is anything but ordinary! The mustard seed is very small seed, but Jesus reminds us that it grows into a very large plant big enough for many birds to live in its shade. The kingdom of God (heaven) is like this. God is so powerful that He can take faith as small as a mustard seed and do amazing things with it. We, too, can do amazing things with even the smallest acts of kindness. And with God's help, these small things truly bring about the kingdom of God. So, what small acts of kindness can YOU do this week to help spread the kingdom?!?!

What's Next? Ms. Cathy will continue to post occasional family faith lessons on FlipGrid with ideas to celebrate the Gospel, Saints, and holy days throughout the summer. We are busy planning for the 2021-2022 RE year and hope to be back on campus for at least some of our classes. At this point we anticipate that registration will not begin until sometime in July. We will keep you updated here as planning progresses.

Faith Grows in Summer

As I shared last week, while you play and pray these wonderful summer days, I continue to look at the work for DASH levels completed this past year. When you read this, DASH 2 families should start receiving their next (final) updates and by the end of June I'll finish up again with DASH 1. There are a number of students doing all work for their respective level over the summer, which is great.

It's good to remember that growing in your faith never ends. Water your faith through prayer, coming to Mass, and finding God in all the amazing little (and big) moments around you. When DASH 3 teens answered a question about their wonder and awe moment with God, many referred to summer trips and feeling God's awesome presence in nature, mountains, oceans, or sunsets. As vacations or small trips are taken this summer, invite the Holy Spirit to play an active role.

SUNDAY PRAYER SHAPING LIFE AND BELIEF

This Bulletin Shorts Series began in 2016 during the Extraordinary Jubilee Year of Mercy. Now, in this sixth year, it still aims to help the faithful and catechumens delve into the Sunday Scripture and wrestle with Christian life. The hope is to rest more and more in God's grace and act in more merciful ways. The style is mystagogical.

Ezekiel 17:22-24. Psalm 92:2-3, 13-14, 15-16. 2 Corinthians 5:6-10. Mark 4:26-34.

This Is How It Is. Two parables about seeds today. The first one is about the secret growing from seed to harvest. The second is about the smaller seeds growing large. This is how it is with God's kingdom, God's rule. It is growing among us now. It is present with us today. But it is not yet finished. God still has much to do. So do we.

- † What is my part today, this week, to build up God's kingdom, God's rule?
- † What little thing can I do – think like Saint Thérèse of Lisieux – that will benefit someone else in a (surprisingly?) big way?
- † How can I care for the earth so seeds and plants can prosper?

The poster features a light blue background with various food and sports icons: a burger, a volleyball, a hotdog, a popsicle, a grill, and a beer bottle.
