GIVING TREE

COVID 19 continues to challenge the way we serve those in need. However, we have FAITH that God will lead us to ways to still help those in need this holiday season. The Giving Tree Program will be different again this year.

The Committee has been meeting and brainstorming and contacting the organizations that we assist to find the best way to meet their needs. Once again this year we will be providing gift cards so that these organizations can assist families in our local area as well as around the Diocese.

We would like to ask for your assistance in providing these gift cards to us.

We ask that you only purchase gifts cards from these stores as they are the ones that help the most:

▲ Meijer

▲ Target

▲ WalMart

We ask that you keep the denomination of each card to the following amounts:

▲ $10.00

▲ $20.00

▲ $25.00

You may place the gift cards in the collection boxes when you come to Mass. If you need to drop them off at the Parish office, please call first to arrange a time. To help us out, we ask that you write the denomination on the front of the card.

Donations needed by December 1, 2021.

If you have any questions,
please contact Marlene Byron at marbyron@comcast.net or
Sister Margaret Anne at pstast@stanneparish.org or 630-383-2306

Thank you for your compassion and assistance.

OUR NEW START LINE WITH GOD BEGINS WITH TRUST

On this first week of the liturgical season of Advent we are reminded by the Prophet Jeremiah that God will fulfill His promise. These days are coming, he says, when the covenant of David will find fulfillment in the new life of a Savior. It is one thing to know that God has the power to do it, but it is another to trust that He will. We have been waiting to get back to the new normal. We have been waiting for signs, some found in numbers of a positivity rate, others in the opening up of restrictions. We have been waiting to hear from those in authority that things will be different and there is a reason for new hope. Advent offers us time to reflect on how true God has been. It is a chance to start over with a fresh heart to rekindle our trust. We most likely will not find this kind of trust in society but we must search for it from within.

When I was preparing to run my first marathon ever, I had to move from always wanting to do one to actually signing up for one. This was a choice that required action. It also brought up fears such as, what if I can't finish what I started? What will my family think of me if I do not cross the finish line? My response to the fear was to not tell my siblings or my parents. My trust in myself marching into the unknown was one thing, but a failure to finish in the sight of others was paralyzing. This brought me to a commitment to train. In researching lots of running programs that guaranteed a finish, the commitment to actually make the sacrifice and do the hard work had to be all mine. It was personal. I believed I would finish, but it was different to actually set my feet on the course and actually do it.

God can and will fulfill His promise. His was not just a promise that ended in biblical times. This promise invites a response, to be vigilant and pray for strength. The awareness that comes with being vigilant helps us see the movement of God in our lives and in the world. The strength that comes with intimate time with God in prayer fortifies our confidence. The Gospel today invites us to be prepared to stand before the Son of Man. This takes commitment and hard work. It takes trust that God will be true. It takes sacrifice to keep looking forward to the finish line, Eternal Life. This Advent, God invites us to begin again, knowing He can and will guide our footsteps.

May this Advent be like no other!

SPIRITUAL COMMUNION

"My Jesus, I believe that you are present in the most Blessed Sacrament. I love You above all things and I desire to receive You into my soul. Since I cannot now receive You sacramentally, come at least spiritually into my heart. I embrace You as if You were already there, and unite myself wholly to You. Never permit me to be separated from You. Amen."

St. Vincent de Paul Society Gospel Reflection

As we begin Advent we are called to “wait” in joyful anticipation for the grace of Christmas to once again bless our lives. Wherever you live in our parish, there are poor families within walking distance of your home. When in need, they ring the rectory bell. They are, in effect, ringing your doorbell.

Your gift to the St. Vincent de Paul Society helps the poor celebrate the grace of God's love this Christmas. We thank you for your kind generosity on Thanksgiving. It will surely give those in need a warmer Christmas and help us spread His love throughout the year.

Family Scripture Connection

"May the Lord make you increase and abound in love for one another and for all, just as we have for you, so as to strengthen your hearts, to be blameless in holiness before our God and Father at the coming of our Lord Jesus with all his holy ones."

1 Thes 3:12-13

The picture shared is from the DASH 3 session on November 7 when the students did an activity learning about words spoken to them, or by them, and words God speaks [ones on the arch] to us all from Scripture (found in Ephesians 3). Those words connected to today's Scripture spotlight. It reminds us to stand before Jesus with our hearts strong in faith, full of love for others, living as God intends. This post-Thanksgiving weekend and 1st Sunday Advent is a perfect time to breathe in the holiness surrounding the new liturgical season. Start this Advent season right. Choose one of the underlined phrases to be your focus for the week. Talk about it as a family and how you will put it into action each day. Check in with each other at dinner or in the car on the way home at night.

Source & Summit Family Activity books: Make sure to check your email to know how/where/when to receive this awesome new resources to bring your family closer together in faith by focusing on the Gospel reading for each Sunday.

DASH 1: Group B is on campus and this week they have the opportunity to go to the Sacrament of Reconciliation during their class time. Next week, the 4:30 group will have the same opportunity.

DASH 2: ALL students come NEXT week, December 5 for Reconciliation (and small group time) from 4:30 – 6:30 PM. Make sure you have completed Catholicism 101 modules 1 – 5, (about Advent, Mary and prayer).

DASH 3: ALL students come NEXT week, December 5 for reconciliation (and small group time) from 4:30 – 6:30 PM.

SUNDAY PRAYER SHAPING LIFE AND BELIEF

This Bulletin Shorts Series began in 2016 during the Extraordinary Jubilee Year of Mercy. Now, in this sixth year, it still aims to help the faithful and catechumens delve into the Sunday Scripture and wrestle with Christian life. The hope is to rest more and more in God's grace and act in more merciful ways. The style is mystagogical.

First Sunday of Advent – 28 November 2021

Jeremiah 33:14-16. Psalm 25:4-5, 8-9, 10, 14. 1 Thessalonians 3:12-4:2. Luke 21:25-28, 34-36.

Fulfilling the Promise. This is the thrust of Advent. We know Jesus came once; we believe, because of that, he comes again to bring the Reign and Kingdom of God to completion. We, now, are in between those two comings. How are we to live? Not dismayed or anxious. No, we are to be vigilant and strong, ever hopeful, full of right action, justice, and mercy. We stand erect because God does not abandon us.

- † What dismays me about life today?
- † What will I do to please God, trusting I am and we are not abandoned?
What right actions, what works of justice and mercy will I do?

LIFE IN ACTION | HIGHLIGHT OF THE MONTH

October 2021

“Willow” walked into the clinic indicating she had an appointment ‘to get rid of her pregnancy’. When we told her we don’t perform or refer for abortion, but that we could provide a pregnancy screening which would include an ultrasound to determine gestational age and viability, she decided to stay.

During her appointment, she shared that she had four children at home and did not want another child. The timing just wasn’t right. She had no plans of telling anyone about her situation or her decision to abort. During her ultrasound, she was surprised to find out she was further along than she expected. Not sure what to do next, “Willow” made an appointment to come back the following week; however, she was a no-show. It was another three weeks before she returned.

When asked during her repeat ultrasound if anything had changed in her intention to abort, “Willow” indicated that she would parent, no matter how difficult. She stated very directly and simply, “It’s a life.” Where shock and uncertainty had dominated her first ultrasound, joy filled the room during her second. “Willow” may have walked into the wrong building, but she certainly came to the right place.

MISSION STATEMENT

God has called us to be Christian witnesses by the precious gift of our Catholic faith through Baptism. Just as Saint Anne had a role in God's plan so do each of us. We are called to faithfully teach and live the message of Jesus. We listen to God's word, grow in our understanding of it and respond to it through outreach and service in our own parish as well as the wider community. We exercise our responsibility to develop and see the gifts God has given us for the common good and to insure that our Eucharistic celebrations are truly joyful and meaningful.

SACRAMENT OF RECONCILIATION

SACRAMENT OF BAPTISM

Baptisms are generally held the 1st and 3rd Sundays of the month (some months this may vary) at 12:30 PM. Expectant parents are to call the Parish Office, six months before the birth of their child for preparation information. Please do not choose Godparents until you receive the established Church guidelines for Godparents.

SACRAMENT OF MARRIAGE

Couples seeking the Sacrament of Marriage should call the parish office at least six months before the date of marriage. A wedding date may not be secured until meeting with the parish Deacon or Priest. At that time, the couple will be secured a date and begin the process of preparation for the Sacrament of Marriage.

SACRAMENT OF THE SICK

If there is anyone at home who cannot get to Mass and the Sacraments because of illness or age, please call the parish office at anytime to request the Sacrament of the Anointing of the Sick.

RCIA (Rite of Christian Initiation of Adults)

Those interested in becoming Catholic or in learning more about the Catholic faith meet weekly. Call the parish office or e-mail rcia@stanneparish.org for more information.

STEWARDSHIP PARISH

We are a stewardship parish. This means that every parishioner with an income is asked to use a Sunday envelope, since we expect to meet our needs from the one collection at the Presentation of the Gifts.

NEW PARISHIONERS

All new families are warmly welcomed to Saint Anne Parish and we ask that you register your family through our website at <http://stanneparish.org/registration-form/>.
