

Epiphany of the Lord

Rise up in splendor, Jerusalem!
Your light has come, the glory of the Lord shines upon you.

An Epiphany Prayer

Lord Jesus, may your light shine our way,
as once it guided the steps of the magi:
that we too may be led into your presence
and worship you, the Child of Mary,
the Word of the Father, the King of nations,
the Saviour of mankind;
to whom be glory for ever.

(Frank Colquhoun)

WHERE WILL THE GIFT OF AWARENESS TAKE US?

It was an awareness of a star that led seekers to follow it. Along the journey, they learned about those in authority, as well as themselves. In listening, they left different than how they had arrived. Symbolic gifts were treasured by Mary who kept all things in her heart. Awareness of who her child would become grew in this encounter with the Magi. Herod, in contrast, used his newfound awareness to protect his power at any cost. His awareness led to fear and his desire to destroy.

This year has been like no other. Self-awareness came flooding into my life when I was trying to create an environment for prayer and reflection in the rectory. I was at Hobby Lobby picking up some green resin trees that caught my eye. I felt they would look good around a carving I have in the kitchen of an angel of resurrected joy. As I picked out a few that were not chipped, I made my way to the cashier. Trying to balance what I had in my hands, I began to look at something else, and at that moment a few trees fell from my grasp and found their way to the floor breaking into pieces. Until that moment, I did not know resin could break. The other eight people in line looked back to stare at me. The cashier called for clean-up at the registers as I tried to get the pieces into piles for the assistant to sweep up. I was mortified. I was also now two trees short. The embarrassment of thinking I could carry it all without a cart or basket brought me to a humble place. I miscalculated my abilities and felt I had everything in control. The result was a disaster. So often it is easy to overstate ourselves. Where does that awareness lead us? Do we ask for help and assistance? And when we do, do we follow it?

On a recent unseasonably warm Friday, I chose to tackle stringing the lights up on the outside bushes of the rectory. Looking back, I am glad there was no video being recorded of this event. Our intentions are always noble when we put decorations away at the end of the season, however, I had to ask myself why had I put the extension cord at the very bottom of the tub? I need it first to plug in. As I untangled all of the lights, I began to string the first set. One string at a time I went around each bush carefully and separately. Stepping back to see how my work was going, it was obvious it needed something. I had enough to add another string to each bush. As I made my way around, my legs got tangled in previously set wires. After completing just two of the bushes, I began to wonder why five bushes were ever planted in front of the house instead of just three. While I love seeing the lights, stringing them is definitely not my gift. I had to ask myself, why is this so hard? Do I think I am above it all? With mud on my shoes and tired of doing laps around the bushes, I became more and more aware of myself. I love rolling up my sleeves regularly and do not consider myself above tasks like this at all. Yet if I am honest, I do struggle with doing things I am not great at or that don't come easily to me. When I only do what I am good at, my life and vision are narrow. I miss opportunities to learn and grow. Do we avoid things we are not good at? What have we missed trying because we felt we could never do it? What can this awareness open us up to?

The gift of the Epiphany begins with the self-awareness we bring to the Lord. More valuable than gold, frankincense and myrrh is the heart that is self-aware. The Lord will always respond with His greatest gifts of forgiveness, mercy, and love. When we admit we need His gifts, the Epiphany that changed the direction of the Magi in biblical times can change the direction of our lives as well.

SUPPORT THE WORKS OF THE LORD THROUGH THE 2022 CATHOLIC MINISTRIES ANNUAL APPEAL

The 2022 Catholic Ministries Annual Appeal (CMAA) is now underway, and we are asking everyone to pledge their support to this important effort for our diocese, and our parish.

This year's CMAA theme, Devoted to the Works of the Lord, illustrates how the many ministries our annual appeal supports allow us to join together to do God's work throughout our diocese. From helping the poor and vulnerable to forming future priests and educating people of all ages in the faith, the ministries funded through your gifts are far more extensive than our parish could provide on its own.

This is a great opportunity for our parish! Please review the materials and prayerfully reflect on your gift to this year's annual appeal.

If you do not receive a CMAA mailing, please contact the parish office to request one.

SPIRITUAL COMMUNION

"My Jesus, I believe that you are present in the most Blessed Sacrament. I love You above all things and I desire to receive You into my soul. Since I cannot now receive You sacramentally, come at least spiritually into my heart. I embrace You as if You were already there, and unite myself wholly to You. Never permit me to be separated from You. Amen."

ALTAR SERVERS TO RETURN IN 2022

We are very excited for altar servers to return in 2022! As the ministry returns, it will look a little different than in the past. Family members will serve together; a parent will serve with their child(ren) to be present with them. For example, you may have siblings on a team and a parent will serve with their child(ren).

There will be an information meeting with specific details from attire to training. Please email altarserver@stanneparish.org by January 15, 2022 if you are interested in participating.

ANNULMENT SUPPORT DAY

A DAY OF SUPPORT AND REFLECTION.

DATE: Saturday, January 22, 2022
TIME: 9:00 AM - 12:00 PM
Blanchette Catholic Center
Crest Hill, IL.

Working on annulment papers alone without support can be emotionally overwhelming and frustrating. Papers may be placed in a desk drawer and/or not completed. In an effort to help petitioners complete their part of the process, the Office for Family Ministry, in collaboration with the Joliet Diocesan Tribunal, is once again offering an OPTIONAL Day of Support for Annulment Petitioners on Saturday, January 22, 2022 from 9:00 am to 12:00 pm In-person at the Blanchette Center for a $15 fee.

This workshop is designed for divorced persons who have already started the annulment process by petitioning the Diocesan Marriage Tribunal, have submitted their Matrimonial Fact Sheet and have a current case in process but have not yet completed the Marriage Summary Long/Questionnaire. Catholics and non-Catholics are welcome to attend, whether remarried or not.

The day will include time for prayer and reflection, a witness talk, and time for questions related to the long questionnaire. Pre-registration is required by January 17. Please register online at <https://bit.ly/2Bv0drA>.

LIFE IN ACTION | HIGHLIGHT OF THE MONTH

November 2021

"Dottie" was referred to Waterleaf through a national call center. During her intake she told us she had been at Planned Parenthood for an abortion at 7 weeks but couldn't go through with it. By the time of her appointment, she was almost 11 weeks pregnant and still undecided what to do. "Dottie" is very young, lives with her mother and has a nine-month-old baby. The father of her nine-month-old lives with his parents and is also the father of this baby. After her ultrasound, "Dottie" said she was going to have the baby, but it would be difficult since the father wanted her to abort. "Dottie" has returned for a repeat ultrasound and a resource assessment and still intends to parent. However, there are still many challenges with the father that she will have to navigate. With the full support of her mom and the help available at Waterleaf, she is determined to succeed.

BABY SHOWER

St. Anne Parish will be hosting a Pro-Life Baby Shower the weekend of January 22 & 23, 2022.

All proceeds will be helping newborn babies and mothers who receive services at Birthright of Joliet.

The Collection for this weekend will take place in the Narthex of the Church.

Family Scripture Connection & New Year Blessings!

Once again, we have much to celebrate. We continue the Christmas season by honoring Mary, the Mother of God this Saturday, January 1 and celebrating the Feast of the Epiphany of the Lord this Sunday, January 2. The Gospel tells us the story of the Magi (the three Wise Men or Kings). They followed the Christmas star and traveled far to pay homage (respect) to Jesus and bring him the gifts of gold, frankincense, and myrrh. Most of us have been busy celebrating the birth of Jesus and giving/receiving Christmas gifts this last week. But the Gospel is a reminder to continue these things into the New Year and always. We do not just celebrate Jesus on Christmas day; we honor and follow Him each day of our lives. And one way we can do this is to continue to give gifts throughout the year. I do not mean expensive presents wrapped in fancy paper. These are simple but meaningful gifts we give to God and others to show we respect and care for them. Listening to your parents and obeying them can be more precious than gold. So can an offer to share your toys, giving a stranger a smile, or picking up litter. What are some of the gifts YOU plan to continue to give in 2022 and beyond?

Return to On-Campus Classes Coming Soon!

Our K-5 RE classes will finally resume our on-campus schedule after Christmas break!

Monday or Wednesday Group B (5:45 class) will be back on campus on January 10 or 12

- Tuesday or Wednesday Group A (4:30 class) will be back on campus on January 18 or 19
- Monday Group A (4:30 class) will not back on campus until January 31 (due to the MLK holiday on January 17)

Please refer to the schedule you received via email in October for more information about on-campus dates and which lessons to cover at home on your "off" weeks.

HAPPY NEW YEAR

Families, you are still on break mode so if you are reading – blessings in 2022 and good health and much holiness to you and your family.

As you start to move towards school items and calendar activities, make sure your child's upcoming dates are on your updated calendar.

SUNDAY PRAYER SHAPING LIFE AND BELIEF

This Bulletin Shorts Series began in 2016 during the Extraordinary Jubilee Year of Mercy. Now, in this sixth year, it still aims to help the faithful and catechumens delve into the Sunday Scripture and wrestle with Christian life. The hope is to rest more and more in God's grace and act in more merciful ways. The style is mystagogical.

Corporal Works of Mercy

Feed the Hungry
Give drink to the thirsty
Shelter the homeless
Clothe the naked
Visit the sick
Visit the prisoners
Bury the dead
Give alms to the poor
Care of our Common Home

Spiritual Works of Mercy

Instructing the ignorant
Admonishing the sinner
Comforting the sorrowful
Forgiving injuries
Bearing wrongs patiently
Praying for the living and the dead
Caring for our Common Home

Solemnity of Mary, The Holy Mother of God – Saturday, 01 January 2022

Numbers 6:22-27. Psalm 67:2-3, 5, 6, 8. Galatians 4:4-7. Luke 2:16-21.

The Manger. The shepherds find Jesus, not in a crib, but in a manger, a feedbox for cattle. This image reminds us that he is indeed food for us now – Body and Blood in Communion. Let us also be amazed.

- † What continues to amaze me about Jesus' gift of himself?
- † How can I glorify and praise God this day and this new year?
- † What mercy work can I do to help those in need of shelter?

The Epiphany of the Lord, Solemnity – Sunday, 02 January 2022

Isaiah 60:1-6. Psalm 72:1-2, 7-8, 10-11, 12-13. Ephesians 3:2-3a, 5-6. Matthew 2:1-12.

Gifts. The Magi, these foreign interpreters of dreams, do the following: follow a star, travel a great distance, trust the words of others, bring and give gifts. In some countries, Epiphany and not Christmas is gift-giving day. This twelfth-day (when on the traditional 6th of January) brings to completion the manifestation of Christ – first to the Jews and today to everyone. No one is foreign to God's good grace.

- † How will I search diligently for Jesus?
- † Because God is merciful to me, what mercy work can I do for another?
- † What gifts will I give to others in need?

MISSION STATEMENT

God has called us to be Christian witnesses by the precious gift of our Catholic faith through Baptism. Just as Saint Anne had a role in God's plan so do each of us. We are called to faithfully teach and live the message of Jesus. We listen to God's word, grow in our understanding of it and respond to it through outreach and service in our own parish as well as the wider community. We exercise our responsibility to develop and see the gifts God has given us for the common good and to insure that our Eucharistic celebrations are truly joyful and meaningful.

SACRAMENT OF BAPTISM

Baptisms are generally held the 1st and 3rd Sundays of the month (some months this may vary) at 12:30 PM. Expectant parents are to call the Parish Office, six months before the birth of their child for preparation information.

Please do not choose Godparents until you receive the established Church guidelines for Godparents.

SACRAMENT OF MARRIAGE

Couples seeking the Sacrament of Marriage should call the parish office at least six months before the date of marriage. A wedding date may not be secured until meeting with the parish Deacon or Priest. At that time, the couple will be secured a date and begin the process of preparation for the Sacrament of Marriage.
