

Word of God Sunday

MORE THAN JUST LISTENING

On this Word of God Sunday we are invited to reverence the gift of listening and the desire of God to speak to us. This excerpt comes from the website of the Catholic Bishops .

“Let the word of Christ dwell in you richly, as in all wisdom you teach and admonish one another, singing psalms, hymns, and spiritual songs with gratitude in your hearts to God” (Colossians 3:16)

On September 30, 2019, on the liturgical memorial of St. Jerome, Pope Francis announced that the Third Sunday in Ordinary Time would be celebrated as the Sunday of the Word of God. The inspiring text of his Apostolic Letter, “Aperuit illis: Instituting the Sunday of the Word of God” beautifully explains the relationship between the Risen Lord, the community of believers and sacred Scripture as essential to our identity as Christians.

Here is a small excerpt from the Holy Father's Apostolic Letter which breaks open the relationship between the Word of God and the Eucharist:

Sacred Scripture and the Sacraments are thus inseparable. When the Sacraments are introduced and illumined by God's word, they become ever more clearly the goal of a process whereby Christ opens our minds and hearts to acknowledge His saving work. We should always keep in mind the teaching found in the Book of Revelation: the Lord is standing at the door and knocking. If anyone should hear His voice and open for Him, He will come in and eat with them (cf. 3:20). Christ Jesus is knocking at our door in the words of sacred Scripture. If we hear His voice and open the doors of our minds and hearts, then He will enter our lives and remain ever with us.”

And in the Holy Father's conclusion, he writes, “May the Sunday of the Word of God help His people to grow in religious and intimate familiarity with the sacred Scriptures. For as the sacred author taught of old: “This word is very near to you: it is in your mouth and in your heart for your observance” (Dt 30:14).

It is up to us to do our part to open the door of our minds and hearts to this precious gift.

Fr John

THE AMPLIFICATION OF THE PROCLAMATION

Sound resonates throughout our planet. Those sounds can be very influential. In the past decade the influence of music and how we connect with it has changed. Music outlets have gone from vinyl to cassette to compact disc back to vinyl. Different apps can organize playlists and young influencers use songs in their Tik Tok videos. It is amazing how the outlets have changed, yet the need for sound and words remains a thirst in our very being. Lyrics from certain songs allow for the doorway to be vast and wide for interpretation. U2 can sing "let me in the sound," while Simon and Garfunkel can invite us to the "sounds of silence." What a backdrop of contrast and paradox for us to hear and listen to Jesus in the synagogue and ask, "How do we hear this? " Jesus will say this Scripture is fulfilled in our hearing.

All eyes are on Jesus as He takes the scroll and reads the words of Isaiah as they become a present-day proclamation. He lets them know it is a year of favor; the blind will see, those imprisoned will find freedom and the poor will find happiness. As all eyes rest on Him, He tells them and tells us, it is now fulfilled in their hearing. How is this proclamation amplified in such a way that it caught everyone's attention? How can we give this passage the power it deserves? All of us on different spiritual levels need new sight, need to be freed from what imprisons us and need to look at the poverty within us as good news. All of us need to embrace this year, this day, this moment as an experience of favor from our God. In the mess of the world our thirst has not changed, yet what we amplify defines us. To amplify this message is to sit in the assembly with awe knowing fulfillment has just happened because Jesus has spoken these words to us today, new and alive. How do we carry this power past the exit of the church building into the vehicle that brought us here? We are defined by what we amplify.

I often imagine what it must have been like in that synagogue. I often sit in an empty church or in an empty chapel to allow the sound of God's proclamation to resonate again and again into the passage from my ears to my brain and from my brain to my heart. The amplification of the proclamation happens when we thirst for the right sound. We are invited today in this moment to let the sound of God be the loudest, the strongest and the one we truly hear. Fulfillment will come in its hearing.

Fr. John

SUPPORT THE WORKS OF THE LORD THROUGH THE 2022 CATHOLIC MINISTRIES ANNUAL APPEAL

The 2022 Catholic Ministries Annual Appeal (CMAA) is now underway, and we are asking everyone to pledge their support to this important effort for our diocese, and our parish.

This year's CMAA theme, Devoted to the Works of the Lord, illustrates how the many ministries our annual appeal supports allow us to join together to do God's work throughout our diocese. From helping the poor and vulnerable to forming future priests and educating people of all ages in the faith, the ministries funded through your gifts are far more extensive than our parish could provide on its own.

Our parish's goal for the 2022 CMAA is $113,500.00, and 70 percent of any amount we raise over our goal will be returned to us. This is a great opportunity for our parish! Please review the materials and prayerfully reflect on your gift to this year's annual appeal.

Family Scripture Connection

There are two versions of the Second Reading from St. Paul to the Corinthians for this 3rd Sunday in Ordinary Time. In our busy lives, we may be tempted to focus on the shorter version so we can quickly move on to something we think will be more important or exciting. But the longer version is full of such an abundance of Good News that it is well worth taking the time to explore and get excited about.

We are ALL part of the body of Christ - no matter where we live, what we do, what we look like, how much money we have, or how popular we are. Even though the body has all kinds of different parts, none of them are more valuable or better than the others. It is easy to see the value of parts like the eyes, ears, nose, mouth, hands, and legs. But what about a part like the pinky toe? Well, that tiny little toe is crucial in helping us keep our balance! What about nose hair? It helps keep dust and allergens out of our lungs! Every part of the body has an important purpose and must be treated with respect. This week, think about what part of the body you might be and the value that you bring to the body of Christ.

On-Campus Classes for K-5 RE

For now, families should assume that we are meeting for on-campus classes as originally scheduled (roughly every other week). But with the rise in COVID cases, please be aware that we may need to send out a phone call and email if class must be cancelled at the last minute due to outbreaks or volunteer shortages. This week, January 24 and 26, the Monday and Wednesday Group B (5:45 classes) will meet.

One Body, One Faith

For each student/teen reading – keep up your commitment to all tasks asked of you to grow as a disciple, it really does make a difference! For each parent reading – keep on witnessing and encouraging your children to pray, be present at Mass, and uncover God's presence in each day. And every other parishioner reading? Pray for our youth to stand firm in faith.

DASH 1: The 5:45 group meets this week (if all goes accordingly to plan, we are learning about Ruth today and how being loyal and loving makes a massive difference.)

*4:30 groups, see you soon – next week in fact, in the meantime please do FlipGrid lesson.

DASH 2: Check Google Classroom for your at-home lesson and parents please check emails. This might be a dual student with specific homework (a video) just for parents connected to a special Confirmation task. Next on campus time is January 30/February 3.

DASH 3: See you this week: Sunday, January 23 or January 27.

Third Sunday in Ordinary Time – 23 January 2022

We devote this day to the celebration, study, and spread of the Word of God.

Nehemiah 8:2-4a, 5-6, 8-10. Psalm 19:8, 9, 10, 15. 1 Corinthians 12:12-30. Luke 1:1-4; 4:14-21.

Believing the Word of God. We are the Body of Christ (Corinthians) assembling as the graced community of believers (Nehemiah) each week to give thanks and praise, to share in Communion, and then sent to serve. We are part of the great Communion of Saints to whom is handed down the living Word of God – both the Scriptures and the Tradition as well as the very person of Christ who is the spoken Word of God (Luke). During the first Mass in a brand-new church building, the bishop shows the Lectionary to the assembly and says:

“May the word of God resound always in this building,
to open for you the mystery of Christ and to bring about your salvation in the Church.”

- † How will I look for the unfolding mystery of Christ in little and big ways today?

MISSION STATEMENT

God has called us to be Christian witnesses by the precious gift of our Catholic faith through Baptism. Just as Saint Anne had a role in God's plan so do each of us. We are called to faithfully teach and live the message of Jesus. We listen to God's word, grow in our understanding of it and respond to it through outreach and service in our own parish as well as the wider community. We exercise our responsibility to develop and see the gifts God has given us for the common good and to insure that our Eucharistic celebrations are truly joyful and meaningful.
