BAPTISM
of the
LORD
"I, the LORD, have called you for justice, I have grasped
you by the hand;
I formed you, and set you as
a covenant for the people,
a light for the nations,
to open the eyes of the blind,
to bring out prisoners from confinement,
and from the dungeon,
those who live in darkness."

Today, we celebrate the Baptism of the Lord!

The origin and foundation of Christian Baptism is Jesus. Before starting his public ministry, Jesus submitted himself to the baptism given by John the Baptist. The waters did not purify him; he cleansed the waters. "He comes to sanctify the Jordan for our sake . . . to begin a new creation through the Spirit and water" (St. Gregory Nazianzen, Liturgy of the Hours, I, 634).

Jesus' immersion in the water is a sign for all human beings of the need to die to themselves to do God's will. Jesus did not need to be baptized because he was totally faithful to the will of his Father and free from sin. However, he wanted to show his solidarity with human beings in order to reconcile them to the Father. By commanding his disciples to baptize all nations, he established the means by which people would die to sin—Original and actual—and begin to live a new life with God.

POSITIVE REINFORCEMENT

We can all easily picture the scene of Jesus at the River Jordan. John the Baptist is holding court on the shore. He is calling out sin and people are listening. He is inviting them into the water and telling them to reform. In Luke's unfolding of the story Jesus, like others, was Baptized and it is when He is praying, the voice of the Father opens the heavens and the Holy Spirit descends. It is after the experience, it is after the event.

So often our lives are enriched by what happens after the event. The power of positive reinforcement changes lives. Do you remember when a teacher called you forth and said you were good at something? When that happened an inner spirit erupted with joy and you worked even harder. When a coach has incredible words recognizing your efforts, it strengthens you to sacrifice even more. When a spouse says you really listened and heard what was said, it speaks to becoming an even better listener. All of this positive reinforcement builds desire to go further, to do more, to stay on the right path. We are just past one full week into the New Year and many are dieting. Everyone wants to see results. When we do, it causes us to dig deeper. When the scale tips the other way, we tend to just throw up our hands and have another cookie or helping of potatoes. Seeing growth, seeing improvement helps motivation.

In the Gospel, Luke is telling us where to find spiritual motivation. Jesus, after the water ritual of John the Baptist has gone to pray. While He is at prayer, the voice is heard. While at prayer, the Holy Spirit appears. This is significant. If we want spiritual reinforcement, one of the places that will make it happen is prayer. In prayer we will hear and recognize, in prayer we will be overwhelmed and challenged, but most of all it is in prayer where we will find encouragement. We all want encouragement from God. We all want to know He is with us. On this day we celebrate the Baptism of the Lord and as we close the liturgical season of Christmas, we are given an insight that is to last. When we pray, we will find the reinforcement that leads the soul to confidence.

May we find each other in prayer, rejoicing in the Lord, our Savior.

SUPPORT THE WORKS OF THE LORD THROUGH THE 2022 CATHOLIC MINISTRIES ANNUAL APPEAL

The 2022 Catholic Ministries Annual Appeal (CMAA) is now underway, and we are asking everyone to pledge their support to this important effort for our diocese, and our parish.

This year's CMAA theme, Devoted to the Works of the Lord, illustrates how the many ministries our annual appeal supports allow us to join together to do God's work throughout our diocese. From helping the poor and vulnerable to forming future priests and educating people of all ages in the faith, the ministries funded through your gifts are far more extensive than our parish could provide on its own.

Our parish's goal for the 2022 CMAA is $113,500.00, and 70 percent of any amount we raise over our goal will be returned to us. This is a great opportunity for our parish! Please review the materials and prayerfully reflect on your gift to this year's annual appeal.

This is a great opportunity for our parish! Please review the materials and prayerfully reflect on your gift to this year's annual appeal.

If you do not receive a CMAA mailing, please contact the parish office to request one.

Family Scripture Connection

This weekend we celebrate the feast of the Baptism of the Lord and the end of the Christmas season. In the Gospel reading, John the Baptist reminds us that although he uses water, Jesus Baptizes with the Holy Spirit and fire. We also hear about Jesus's own Baptism when God proclaims Jesus to be his own beloved Son.

What a wonderful opportunity to reflect on our own Baptisms. Perhaps you can bring out the family photo album or other significant reminders of your special day, such as a Baptism garment or candle. As a family, tell the story of each person's Baptism and renew your Baptismal vows together. (A Google search for "renewal of Baptismal vows" gives you many excellent Catholic sites to choose from). Recall that in Baptism, we are "reborn" into a new life in Jesus and begin our initiation (welcome) into the Catholic Church. We are gifted with grace through the Holy Spirit and our sins are washed away. How will you remember and celebrate such a wonderful gift this week?

SUNDAY PRAYER SHAPING LIFE AND BELIEF

This Bulletin Shorts Series began in 2016 during the Extraordinary Jubilee Year of Mercy. Now, in this sixth year, it still aims to help the faithful and catechumens delve into the Sunday Scripture and wrestle with Christian life. The hope is to rest more and more in God's grace and act in more merciful ways. The style is mystagogical.

MISSION STATEMENT

God has called us to be Christian witnesses by the precious gift of our Catholic faith through Baptism. Just as Saint Anne had a role in God's plan so do each of us. We are called to faithfully teach and live the message of Jesus. We listen to God's word, grow in our understanding of it and respond to it through outreach and service in our own parish as well as the wider community. We exercise our responsibility to develop and see the gifts God has given us for the common good and to insure that our Eucharistic celebrations are truly joyful and meaningful.
