We live in exciting times in our church. A Synod has been called to listen and to reflect. We, each and everyone of us, have been invited to participate. It is the opening of a dialogue. For us, we are invited to do our part.

A questionnaire has been composed to invite us to reflect on the three major areas of this dialogue. I encourage you to take the time before we enter the season of Lent to become a participant.

Our website is the connection point for participation. https://tinyurl.com/4fazx47k

Feel free to bring these questions to your prayer life. Pray over what God is saying to you! Inform us of what the Holy Spirit is prompting you to say in response to these points of reflection. Feel free to answer all or just some of the questions. Your participation is the Church's invitation to begin the dialogue for the future.

Thank you for taking the time to give us your input. The Parish Council will then send this on to the Diocese. We are asking you to please respond by March 1st as a prelude to our season of Lent. Once again these are exciting times as the Universal Church invites us to become a voice for the future.

Fr. John

MEANT TO BE TAKEN PERSONALLY

Today we hear a familiar message in the Gospel. In the Gospel of Matthew, we hear of Jesus gathering on a mount and famously saying, "Blessed are they." Today we are in a different location on a stretch of level ground and Jesus proclaiming, "Blessed are you." That is much more personal. In the Gospel of Luke, added to this are situations that are to challenge us. We hear "Woe to you." In this contrast, we enter the paradox of the spiritual life. It is personal and we can't escape. When we are rich and filled and laughing, we are to be aware that there will be another time when the opposite is true. Life is two sides of the same coin. It can be described as a roller coaster, an ebb, and flow. Inconsistently consistent.

How are we to live our faith in this paradox? One of the spiritual gems one can experience following Jesus is that His inclusion is always to the marginalized. When we feel most left out and in need, He is ready to embrace us. Likewise, when we are living well and things seem to be going our way, we are not to be so attached that our need to have it always be this way becomes the driving force of our lives. There is this cyclical loop. Woe when you are filled, you will be hungry. Yet before that, He states blessed are you in that hunger, because you will be satisfied. This message is a reminder that the hunger or being filled is not an end in itself, we are. God pours His love into us, at all times and in all ways.

This weekend many eyes will be upon the Super Bowl. From commercials to what actually takes place on the field, much conversation and comparisons will be made. In that stadium winners and losers will be determined. On social media, in newspapers, and in follow-up programming, winners and losers will be announced based on audience reactions. Comparisons to previous Super Bowls and Super Bowl advertising will be chartered. It makes for great dialogue, yet outside of the stadium and inside the church, the message is very different. Best or worst are not the categories found in God's love. Analyzing the ratio of response to the message is not part of God's approach. He simply loves with a Divine Love. With all the hype of the Super Bowl can we see a love that allows both Rams and Bengals fans to be equal? Can we embrace a vision where the team that receives the Lombardy Trophy and the team that doesn't are equal? Can we move to a vision in which the commercials we like the best and the ones we felt were a waste of time is inconsequential?

The Gospel today invites us to take it personally. Jesus wants us to not look outside ourselves, but to our own life experiences. He wants us to have a personal experience and relationship with Him. We will see a lot of examples of winners and losers and a lot of analysis of statistics. Only one thing matters. God sent Jesus into the world so that all might be included in His final gift, life won for us all on the cross. God always wins and there are no losers. He overcomes all sin once and for all.

This is the most perfect message.

SPIRITUAL COMMUNION

"My Jesus, I believe that you are present in the most Blessed Sacrament. I love You above all things and I desire to receive You into my soul. Since I cannot now receive You sacramentally, come at least spiritually into my heart. I embrace You as if You were already there, and unite myself wholly to You. Never permit me to be separated from You. Amen."

SUPPORT THE WORKS OF THE LORD THROUGH THE 2022 CATHOLIC MINISTRIES ANNUAL APPEAL

The 2022 Catholic Ministries Annual Appeal (CMAA) is now underway, and we are asking everyone to pledge their support to this important effort for our diocese, and our parish.

This year's CMAA theme, Devoted to the Works of the Lord, illustrates how the many ministries our annual appeal supports allow us to join together to do God's work throughout our diocese. From helping the poor and vulnerable to forming future priests and educating people of all ages in the faith, the ministries funded through your gifts are far more extensive than our parish could provide on its own.

Our parish's goal for the 2022 CMAA is $113,500.00, and 70 percent of any amount we raise over our goal will be returned to us.

This is a great opportunity for our parish! Please review the materials and prayerfully reflect on your gift to this year's annual appeal.

If you do not receive a CMAA mailing, please contact the parish office to request one.

Family Scripture Connection

The Gospel for this 6th Sunday in Ordinary Time is the Sermon on the Plain. This is Luke's account of the Beatitudes. I have heard these teachings of Jesus referred to as the "Be-Attitudes." In other words, attitudes about how to "be;" how to be happy and how to be a disciple of Jesus. At first, this doesn't seem to make sense. Jesus tells us "Blessed are you" when you are poor, hungry, weeping, and hated by others. How can this be a blessing? Well, it's all about your priorities (attitudes) and your faith. If you truly put your trust and faith in God first, no matter the challenges you face, you will be rewarded. God will not abandon you, and your reward in heaven will be great!

On-Campus Classes for K-5 RE

Families can assume that we are meeting for on-campus classes as originally scheduled (roughly every other week) unless you receive a last-minute phone call and email from us to inform you if class must be cancelled due to weather, COVID outbreaks or volunteer shortages. This week, the Group A (4:30 classes) will meet on February 14, 15 and 16.

DASH "Beatitudes"

- Blessed are those who choose to work on their relationship with Jesus for they will inherit the greatest treasure.
- Blessed are those with inquiring minds for they shall find the truth of God in their lives.

The Beatitudes help us to be counter-cultural in the world. Growing as a disciple allows us to embrace this puzzling message.

DASH 1: The 4:30 group is on campus this week. 5:45 group- check FlipGrid.

DASH 2: Students are back on campus at their usual times on Sunday, February 27 or March 3. Looking ahead to March, everyone will attend on March 13 from 4:30 to 6:30 PM for the sacrament of Reconciliation. Groups will meet at their usual time on March 17 and 20 for the final episode of The Chosen.

DASH 3: Your next on-campus class is March 6 or 10. Come ready to discuss how the Holy Spirit is part of your daily life and to learn more about the Gifts of the Holy Spirit. Just a reminder that on March 13, everyone comes from 4:30 to 6:30 PM for Reconciliation.

SUNDAY PRAYER SHAPING LIFE AND BELIEF

This Bulletin Shorts Series began in 2016 during the Extraordinary Jubilee Year of Mercy. Now, in this sixth year, it still aims to help the faithful and catechumens delve into the Sunday Scripture and wrestle with Christian life. The hope is to rest more and more in God's grace and act in more merciful ways. The style is mystagogical.

Corporal Works of Mercy	Spiritual Works of Mercy
Feed the Hungry	Counseling the doubtful
Give drink to the thirsty	Instructing the ignorant
Shelter the homeless	Admonishing the sinner
Clothe the naked	Comforting the sorrowful
Visit the sick	Forgiving injuries
Visit the prisoners	Bearing wrongs patiently
Bury the dead	Praying for the living and the dead
Give alms to the poor	Caring for our Common Home
Care of our Common Home

Sixth Sunday in Ordinary Time – 13 February 2022
Jeremiah 17:5-8. Psalm 1:1-2, 3, 4 and 6. 1 Corinthians 5:12, 16-20. Luke 6:7, 20-26.

Believing Justice and Mercy. In Luke's Sermon on the Plain, Jesus speaks to more than just his own people. We hear four blesseds and four related woes. He first calls all those in the crowd, and now calls us to rejoice and leap for joy at the blessed activities dealing with justice and mercy. The implication: do the blesseds; avoid the woes.

† How will I be just in dealing with others all week long?
† How will I be merciful to everyone just as God is merciful?
† What mercy work will I do? It will be _____ for _____.

Waterleaf
PREGNANCY | STD | EDUCATION | COUNSELING

"Tess" came to us six months after giving birth to her second child. She had decided to parent her 6-month-old the last time she was pregnant and was not happy about being pregnant so soon.

She had already inquired about abortion and was told to wait until she was six weeks pregnant. When the ultrasound revealed "Tess" was further along than she thought, she was surprised and just didn't know what to do because she was well over six weeks. While she had the support of the father, she still felt she could not parent and scheduled an abortion. The day before her scheduled abortion her car was towed, and she had no way to get to that appointment.

Over a period of six weeks, the medical and resource team met with "Tess" to provide her with medical information, emotional and spiritual support and whatever material assistance she needed to address her pregnancy. After four ultrasounds, "Tess" has indicated she will parent. It will be a difficult journey, but we will walk with her every step of the way.

St. Vincent de Paul Society
Gospel Reflection

In the Gospel today, Jesus gives us the blessings of serving the poor, hungry, and weeping people, for you will then rejoice and leap for joy. But Jesus also teaches us the decisiveness of choice: blessing or woe.

Choosing to help those who are suffering will fill your heart with the blessing of Jesus, and indeed your reward will be great in heaven.

MISSION STATEMENT

God has called us to be Christian witnesses by the precious gift of our Catholic faith through Baptism. Just as Saint Anne had a role in God's plan so do each of us. We are called to faithfully teach and live the message of Jesus. We listen to God's word, grow in our understanding of it and respond to it through outreach and service in our own parish as well as the wider community. We exercise our responsibility to develop and see the gifts God has given us for the common good and to insure that our Eucharistic celebrations are truly joyful and meaningful.
