Lenten pruning leads to Easter glory

Recently, I stopped by a big home improvement store. The garden center was bustling with people shopping for flowers and plants. Happily, I sighed and thought, "Ah, spring is in the air!"

One of my favorite images in the Bible is that of the garden. It not only reminds us that we reap what we sow. But also, it all begins in the Garden of Eden with the creation of Adam and Eve and then their eventual fall from grace. Jesus experiences deep prayer, agony and betrayal in the Garden of Gethsemane before His crucifixion. At the resurrection, Mary Magdalene is the first to see the risen Christ, but she does not recognize Him, "supposing Him to be the gardener" (John 20:15). Throughout Scripture, gardens are a place to encounter the mystery of God. They are places of suffering, death and most importantly, new life.

Saying all this, let me acknowledge that I do not have a naturally green thumb. I admire people who possess that gift. Regardless, I am starting to dabble in some basic gardening.

At the bishop's residence in Joliet where I live, I have made the decision to have some large trees cut down in my backyard. The reason I am having them removed is not because I am "anti-tree." On the contrary, I love trees. However, there are so many in my backyard, that they have created a canopy over the yard through which no sunlight can penetrate. As a result, instead of grass, my backyard is basically a plot of dirt that, when it rains, turns into a muddy mess and at worst a swamp. As we remove a few of the trees, my hope is that the sun may shine through the remaining ones and that grass, flowers and plants may return to sprout, grow and flourish.

Scripturally, Jesus reminds us that gardens need to be pruned so that they may produce fruit: "He prunes it so that it may bear more fruit" (John 15:3). In the Catholic Church, spiritual pruning is not a negative exercise. Instead, it helps our spiritual growth by removing whatever inhibits or prevents us from growing in healthy and holy ways. Perhaps that is a good way to look at these past 40 days. Lent provides us the time to cut down and prune some things in our lives that prevent God's light from shining on and through us. We do so, specifically during Lent, with our acts of penance, prayer and almsgiving.

Continuing this theme of gardening around my house, late last fall I planted over 50 tulip bulbs around the statue of the Blessed Virgin Mary. After I planted them, I have constantly wondered, "Did the squirrels dig them up and eat them?" "Will they blossom and what color will they be?" "Will the Blessed Mother enjoy them?" Every day, I find myself eagerly awaiting these tulips to colorfully burst through the soil.

This is an act of hope! While I still cannot see the flowers, I eagerly anticipate their arrival. We, too, wait with faith and hope to celebrate the resurrection of our Lord and savior at Easter and boldly proclaim that He is not dead. He is not still in the ground. He is risen!

The lingering question is, "Why do we spend time at garden centers and in our own gardens, planting and caring for flowers and plants?" It is partially because they are tangible signs of beauty, hope and life. As St. Alphonsus Liguori rightly noted, "When we see a beautiful garden, or a beautiful flower, let us think that there we behold a ray of the infinite beauty of God, who has given existence to that object."

As we come to the end of this Lenten time of pruning in our own spiritual gardens, let us approach Easter with great joy and enthusiasm. In other words, with springtime hope, let us continue to search for and bask in the risen life of Christ, for He truly fills our world and lives with light, beauty and new life. †

WE CARRY THE LIGHT OF CHRIST

We are defined and become what we carry. Today the Universal Church comes to proclaim Jesus is alive, He has risen from the tomb. We proclaim that darkness has no power over Him or us. We proclaim He is the Light of the World. We are what we carry, we are the burdens that hold us back, and the goodness that lightens the weight. We are the joy that inspires and the sadness that consumes. We are at our best, imperfect, and at our worst a false projection of what we are not.

Even with all of this incomplete brokenness, we are called to be bearers of God's light. Jesus who is the Light of the World invites us to carry His light and be that light for others. Like the tomb that was empty, that shook the world to its core, so amazing is the gift that God bestows on us by allowing us to be carriers of His light in the world. Unworthy as we are, the torch is passed to us. It is unbelievable; our defining moments are to be the carriers of this most perfect light.

Our hearts are to be burning like those on the road to Emmaus. That fire from within is to lead us to recognize Jesus in the Breaking of the Bread. We are to move past our unbelief like Thomas and connect our pain with the pain of the Savior who has conquered death. We are to leave the comfort of our securities and plunge deeply into the depth of our Baptismal Vows we have renewed. To be a carrier of the Light of Christ means we are to accept this gift of His belief in us. We cannot do this on our own, so the promise of the Holy Spirit is given to us. It is to be received so we can know the direction we are to go. To accept the reality of Easter is to accept the reality that we are what we carry and we carry the Light of Christ.

May this moment become the moment, carrying the Light of the Risen Lord to others. We are what we carry and today God trusts us with the Light of Christ.

Happy Easter,

April 2022

Dear Friends,

On the weekend of April 23-24, our diocese will take up a second collection for the Catholic Home Missions Appeal.

Home mission dioceses are those dioceses in the United States and its territories that need outside help to provide basic pastoral services, such as the Mass, the sacraments, religious education, and ministry training for priests, deacons, religious sisters and laypeople. These dioceses often face fragile financial situations, vast distances or difficult terrain. Nearly 40% of the dioceses in the United States and its territories are considered home missions.

We are one Catholic Church. What happens to one of us, affects us all. As Pope Francis notes in Fratelli Tutti, "we need to develop the awareness that nowadays we are either all saved together or no one is saved." (Paragraph 137).

Let us remember our brothers and sisters in Christ in home mission dioceses so they may share fully in our Catholic faith.

Family Scripture Connection

The disciples' grief, confusion, and fear were transformed into hope and joy with the Resurrection of the Lord on Easter Sunday. For the next 50 days of the Easter season, we remember and celebrate that same joy. Christ loves us so much that he willingly gave his life and rose again so that we can also rise to new life! We are freed from our sins and look forward with hope to eternal life with Christ. How will you share the hope and joy of the season with others this year?

On-Campus Classes for K-5 RE

Group A (4:30 classes) meet on campus this week, April 18- 20. We WILL have class on Monday the 18 even though District 308 is off. Group B (5:45 classes) are not on campus again until April 25 and 27.

Days to Remember

Happy Easter! A 50-day party (which confused some DASH 1 students because 40 always seemed to be the answer for length of time.) Jesus desires to be the center of our lives. We remember special days for loved ones, right? Well, celebrate Easter joy – the love of Jesus in your life – through prayer time, your smiles, and how you help others. He came to life for you (for all of us); let's show our friends and family what it means to be loved by Jesus.

DASH 1: This week the 4:30 group meets on campus. We will discuss Easter Joy through Angels and Mary Magdalene. Those in the 5:45 group, please check out FlipGrid for any work to complete.

DASH 2: We meet next week for your final time of this year! While the in-person time will end, checking content due will continue. Remember sponsors should be chosen by now and information placed on the google form (a link in one of your Google Assignments.)

DASH 3: We don't meet again until May 1 but you know about all work due – especially your saint report which is due in Google Classroom by next week.

"As he walked by the Sea of Galilee, he saw two brothers, Simon who is called Peter and Andrew his brother, casting a net into the sea; for they were fishermen. And he said to them, "Follow me, and I will make you fishers of men." (Mt. 4: 18-19, Mk. 1: 16-17)

Why is it called Operation Andrew Dinner?

In the Eastern Church, St. Andrew is known as Protokletos ("First Called") as John the Baptist invited him to follow Jesus. After doing so, Andrew then brought his brother Simon Peter to the Lord. (John 1:38-41) Like Andrew, the Lord is asking priests to bring others to Him so that they may discover their vocation as well.
