GOD'S DWELLING IS WITH HIS PEOPLE

When we are looking at our calendar, what do we focus on? Where are we spending our time? When we are searching the internet, where have the last ten searches taken us? This tells us where we are spending our valuable time. For some, it might be places to visit, golf courses to play. I spend time looking at tee times for when I can get out. Others search for experiences and tickets. Some look for history or facts that can validate assumptions. Where we search is where we are planning on spending our time.

It is an amazing revelation, an incredible statement that we find in the Second Reading from the Book of Revelation. We are not only God's people, but God also longs to spend time with us. God wants to spend His time with us. He longs to change our lives, making a point of contact in our celebrations of the Sacraments and being present to listen to our prayers and devotions. He longs to change the world and make His dwelling with us. The God of our universe not only wants to spend time with us but also dwell with us, and be a part of us. He will not abandon us but makes a commitment to be here for us.

This week on the 18th I celebrate my 38th year of ordination. If there is one thing I know, it is God dwells with His people. I have been fortunate to see His handiwork in the lives of so many. He has made His love known when a prodigal child has returned to the family. His love shines forth in the eyes of grandparents as they see the next generation be Baptized. It happens when families reminisce about the past as they lay a loved one to eternal rest. God dwells with His people. He not only wants to spend time with us but wants to be an active part of the experience. I had an emergency call at 3:00 AM last week. As I drove to the hospital, I was moved to pray about the gift it is to bring the reassurance of God's presence to a person and family who needs it. It is through these sacramental signs God will reassure a family of forgiveness and the promise of new life. It was an energized morning. I am grateful to God for the opportunity to see firsthand His real presence changing the lives of so many. As I have been packing and clearing out things for my upcoming move, I am grateful to all those who through the years have written notes, sent cards, and shared with me how thankful they are for the moments God touched and changed their lives. Re-reading them is a constant reminder of how active God is in the lives of His people.

As the journey continues, may it find us in prayer to our God who dwells with us.

Fr. John

SPIRITUAL COMMUNION

"My Jesus, I believe that you are present in the most Blessed Sacrament. I love You above all things and I desire to receive You into my soul. Since I cannot now receive You sacramentally, come at least spiritually into my heart. I embrace You as if You were already there, and unite myself wholly to You. Never permit me to be separated from You. Amen."

Your Gift to the CMAA Makes a Difference! The Catholic Ministries Annual Appeal helps our parish and the Diocese of Joliet to provide countless ministries, programs, and services to support our friends and neighbors in immeasurable ways.

Our parish goal is $113,500.00 and to date we have received $108,072.00. $78,589.00 has been paid. 70% of gifts received over goal will be returned to our parish for our use. St. Vincent de Paul Society Gospel Reflection

In the Gospel today, Jesus says, "I give you a new commandment: love one another.... This is how all will know that you are my disciples, if you have love for one another."

You may show that you're Christ's disciple by joining the St. Vincent de Paul Society and helping people who desperately need help.

You are warmly invited to learn more about how we carry out our mission.

On Tuesday May 17 at 7:00 PM in the Joachim Center, we will hold a meeting where several members will offer insight on how we approach those who ask for help, and how we recommend and decide on financial outlays. We will discuss our home visits, during which we review personal budgets, develop goals, suggest solutions, and, of course, pray. These simple acts of Christian charity not only help solve the problems that our neighbors are experiencing but also support our members in developing their own spiritual growth.

If you are interested in seeing how you might participate in these acts of Christian charity, please join us. There is, of course, no obligation.

Family Scripture Connection

In the Gospel for this 5th Sunday of Easter, Jesus says, "I give you a new commandment: love one another. As I have loved you, so you also should love one another." Notice that Jesus doesn't say to only love when you feel like it. It is a command to love, and it includes everyone, all the time. We are being asked to love as Jesus did, which is way more than just being nice to others. Jesus loved so much that he sacrificed everything, including His very life. What are you willing to sacrifice out of love? Who are you willing to sacrifice for?

Year End & 2022-2023 Registration

THANK YOU to the students, parents, and volunteers for all of your hard work this year and for your prayers and support through the unexpected road bump of Ms. Cathy's surgeries. Although our on-campus classes are finished for the year, our faith never goes on vacation. We look forward to seeing you at Mass over the summer!

We anticipate registration for the 2022-2023 RE year will begin in early June. Keep an eye on the Bulletin for updates. Those families currently registered for RE will receive a phone call and email to alert you when enrollment starts.

Makeover for the inner spirit

"The One who sat on the throne said, 'Behold, I make all things new.'" Revelations 21:5

An overriding goal of D.A.S.H is that all youth open up their heart and soul to reaching out to God the Father/Son/Holy Spirit on a more personal level. Through prayer (time to talk) our inner self is constantly made new to handle things. Though formal DASH sessions are done for the year, keep up the conversation with God!

DASH 1: Today's Psalm response is: "I will praise your name forever, my king and my God." This past year you learned a lot about the Old Testament and the connections to our Catholic religion. Continue to praise God not just for being done with coming to class, but for knowing God/Jesus/Holy Spirit more.

DASH 2: Remember that, whether you are filling up on the Holy Spirit with openness the size of a pinhead or a bucket, Jesus is still at your side. Show up to Him often! Your May Faithbooster should be completed this month.

DASH 3: Keep on checking emails for news of what might be left to do, or what is still to come.

Volunteer for 2022-2023? Have a desire to share your faith with our tweens and young teens? Contact Julie Krakora to chat about opportunities for this coming year, especially for those in DASH 2 (mostly 7th graders). I, and the students you will connect with, are looking for adults who love sharing their faith and know just enough about it to make a difference in their lives.

Loving One Another. The gospel today is short and sweet. Glorify God – Jesus does it first and implies we should, too. Love one another – a direct comma to each one of us. These are disciple activities. These are essentials for our way of life.

- † How will my words and actions glorify God today?
- † Whom will I love – even someone who makes it hard for me to do so?
- † How will this glorifying God and loving others change me for the better?
