THE PROMISE OF THE HOLY SPIRIT

The Holy Spirit is promised and given. The Spirit is to teach us and to remind us. The Spirit is sent by the Father in the name of Jesus Christ. All of this is the truth stated in today's Gospel. This Advocate is to be our companion as we navigate our lives in these times. How is our relationship with the Holy Spirit? How in touch are we with the experience of the Spirit?

I heard something the other day that caught my attention as having some wisdom and significance. "Your comfort zone can be a very dangerous place." If we stay in our comfort zone, we will stay on the plateau. We most likely use it as an excuse to stay the same for many years and live with the same complaints, the same attitudes, and possibly never grow. The Holy Spirit is to lead us out of our comfort zone. It is to stretch us and challenge us. Is this happening in our lives?

To grow and stretch enough to leave our comfort zone takes courage. It involves trusting that the next experience or opportunity is just as important as the foundation of what we hold on to for our sense of security. Courage is one of the gifts of the Holy Spirit. Being courageous doesn't mean we are fearless. It means that fear does not paralyze us.

Some of the most courageous times in my life have come not from travel but from overcoming self-doubt. Persevering in unconditional love, even when it is hard to find the good in another because of the hurt and pain they cause takes courage. When I think of the Last Supper and Jesus washing the feet of the disciples, it strikes me how it is easy to wash the feet of those who agree with us, support us, and love us. It is not so easy to wash the feet of those who make life difficult, are challenging, or are disrespectful to us. A comfort zone is a dangerous place. It comes easily for us to protect it and never want to leave it. To be open to the Holy Spirit means we must do the uncomfortable for the sake of the Kingdom.

BISHOP HICKS' MONTHLY COLUMN

May 2022

Your parish family waits for your return

Shortly before Holy Week, I issued a letter noting I was lifting the dispensation from the obligation to attend Sunday Mass on Palm Sunday since the possibility of catching COVID-19 had dramatically decreased. I knew I would hear grumblings from individuals who had gotten used to attending a virtual, livestreamed Mass. But I was surprised to hear from several people who had no idea that such an attendance obligation existed.

Canon law is straightforward in its direction: "On Sundays and other holy days of obligation, the faithful are obliged to participate in the Mass." (Can. 1247) Now, this responsibility to attend Sunday Mass does not exist in the Catholic Church to be punitive. It exists as something that brings us life through the suffering, death and resurrection of Jesus Christ. We come together to celebrate Jesus' sacrifice as a Eucharistic community.

In simpler terms, being together matters. I was struck by the importance of this belief during this year's Chrism Mass, which was only the second time I had celebrated this powerful liturgy as the bishop of Joliet. Last year, we were limited to 20% capacity of the cathedral, so only a few priests attended, and about three people were sitting in every other pew. This year, a multitude of priests gathered behind me on the altar, and I looked out onto pews filled with so many good people of God from our parishes across the diocese. There were feelings of hope and joy and exuberance in the air. As I recessed down the aisle to a triumphal hymn at the end of Mass, I felt so alive – I felt like I was walking on a cloud! I could see the same excitement in the smiles of people as I blessed them on my way out.

When I reached the narthex of the cathedral, I saw Sr. Sharon Stola, OSB, the diocese's director of divine worship. I spontaneously said, "I hope this is OK. I just want to thank you for organizing all of this." And then I gave her a big hug and blessed her. I could see in her smile that she was resounding with the same joy I felt, as we were all gathered as one body in Christ.

Jesus stressed the importance of coming together to worship in Matthew 18:20: "For where two or three are gathered together in my name, there am I in the midst of them." The Second Vatican Council followed up on this by recognizing that "this full and active participation by all the people is the aim to be considered before all else; for it is the primary and indispensable source from which the faithful are to derive the true Christian spirit." And now, the U.S. Conference of Catholic Bishops, on the feast of Corpus Christi on June 19, is launching a three-year eucharistic revival to kindle a living relationship with our Lord, Jesus Christ, in the Eucharist.

Think of this eucharistic revival as a family reunion of sorts, since it is beginning as we embark on what we hope and pray will be a post-pandemic society. Please know that I am grateful for the technology that allowed us to worship virtually when safety measures restricted us from meeting in person. Livestreamed Masses served as a lifeline for us all, and they continue to serve as an option for the sick and homebound.

Yet, if you are able, come back to your parish, where your family in Christ is waiting for you. Return so that you may join your brothers and sisters in Christ to adore God, praise him, and receive his love in the Eucharist. Remember that we must first come together as one before we can "go in peace to love and serve the Lord." †

Family Scripture Connection

The Gospel for this 6th Sunday of Easter reminds us that we are never alone. Jesus tells us that if we love Him and keep His word, God will make His dwelling with us. Jesus also promises to send the peace of the Holy Spirit to us. He calls the Spirit the "Advocate" which comes from the Latin advocare meaning to "add" a "voice." The Holy Spirit is like a cheerleader or champion for us, filling us with comfort and helping us in everything we do. We never have to be lonely, worried, or afraid because our Advocate will always be with us, working in and through our lives, bringing peace.

Year End and 2022-2023 Registration

Although our on-campus classes are finished for the year, our faith never goes on vacation. We look forward to seeing you at Mass over the summer! We anticipate registration for the 2022-2023 RE year will begin in early June. Keep an eye on the Bulletin for updates, and pray about how you might be called to volunteer!

Musical Peace

Whenever I hear today's Gospel reading, I automatically start to sing a song from John Angotti: "By Name I have Called You." I have sung this in choir many times or have listened to my past choir's CD version of it. Every sing time I listen, or sing it, something in me calms with the musical melody, the combination of vocal parts singing different words but beautifully coming together in harmony. Today Jesus states: "Peace I leave with you, my peace I give to you. Not as the world gives, do I give it to you." We all need to pray and to know how to pray, how to allow our souls to talk to God.

This is why music is a prayer experience for those in DASH 3 and has been a Faithbooster in the past for those in DASH 2. The power of music, both listening and singing, is that it moves us in ways other things can't. It stirs up our heart, our soul, our mind to feel in ways we don't allow – that can be the Holy Spirit very active in your life! Continue to open the door to let the Holy Spirit enter.

All students in DASH: Just in case you aren't yet done (those doing homeschool for DASH 1 or some catching up in DASH 2, and DASH 3), please try to complete work by the end of this month.

DASH 2: Your May Faithbooster should be completed and posted by May 28.

DASH 3: Keep on checking emails for news of what might be left to do, or what is still to come.

Volunteer for 2022-2023? Do you love connecting life to faith? Do you enjoy talking about your faith with others? Contact Julie Krakora to chat about opportunities to be a faith facilitator for those in DASH 2 (mostly 7th graders).

TRUE REFORMERS: EPISODE 3 ST. PHILIP NERI

This week we celebrate St. Philip Neri, the Apostle of Rome. To a Rome ravaged by war and wearied by the decadence of the Renaissance popes, St. Philip Neri came as an unlikely reformer. Mystic, hermit, prankster, and effortless leader of men, Neri had a great sense of humor and an even greater heart.
