27TH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

The Lord replied, "If you have faith the size of a mustard seed,
you would say to this mulberry tree,
'Be uprooted and planted in the sea,' and it would obey you."

Luke 17:6

A NOTE FROM FATHER EICKHOFF

Almost all of the activities of St. Anne Parish are made possible by parishioners volunteering their time. Think of all the volunteers who serve as catechists and aides in our Religious Education classes or the parishioners who assist in various liturgical ministries as singers, Lectors, and Eucharistic Ministers. St. Anne Parish would be greatly diminished without volunteers. And so, I want to take this moment to thank everyone in the parish who volunteers their time and effort to help make St. Anne Parish a vibrant church.

I wanted to write the preceding words before coming to the main topic of my bulletin article today.

Most of the parishioners of St. Anne Parish who volunteer in various ministries – especially those ministries such as Religious Education that involve working with children – are required to undergo some form of background check and education concerning child sexual abuse (as defined in the Protecting God's Children charter) in order to volunteer in these ministries. The Diocese of Joliet (and yes, St. Anne Parish is a part of the Diocese of Joliet and the directions from the diocese on this matter are directives and not suggestions) is cracking down throughout the entire diocese on employees and volunteers who have not completed all the elements of the Protecting God's Children requirements. The diocese has issued an ultimatum that all employees and volunteers must be in compliance with the requirements that are needed for their particular ministry by October 13 of this year. Please note that the exact requirements for each person vary based on whether someone is an employee or a volunteer and in what ministries that person serves in. Employees and volunteers who are not in compliance with the Protecting God's Children requirements by October 13 will have three (3) days from the date he or she is informed of their non-compliance to fulfill the requirements. If, at the end of that three-day time period, an employee or volunteer is still not in compliance that person will be prohibited from working or volunteering at St. Anne Parish – or any other parish in the Diocese of Joliet – until they have fulfilled all of the necessary requirements.

If there is some part of the Protecting God's Children requirements that you know you have not yet completed, I urge you to finish them as soon as possible. If an employee or volunteer is missing some part of the requirements, they will be informed by email as to what they are missing and how to fulfill the requirements. If you receive such an email, please make the time to complete the requirements you have missed so that you can remain a volunteer at St. Anne Parish. Please note that many volunteers will have completed all the requirements when they first started to volunteer, but over time new requirements may have been added or other requirements may need to be redone. So, if you receive an email stating that you need to complete some requirement it does not mean that you didn't do them in the first place.

Yours in Christ,

Fr. Stephen Eickhoff
Pastor

Your participation in the CMAA is important.

If you have not had a chance to participate in the Catholic Ministries Annual Appeal (CMAA) this year, there is still time. Please look for the mailing which will be arriving in homes shortly.

As your pastor, I encourage you to prayerfully reflect on God's gifts to you and to give a gift to the CMAA. Participation is the key to a successful appeal and a chance for our parish to receive a parish rebate, too. Every gift helps!

If you do not receive this mailing and would like to make a gift to the CMAA, please call the Diocese of Joliet Development Office at (815) 838-8515. Or, if you wish to make your gift online, please visit www.jolietdioceseappeal.org.

Our parish goal is $113,500.00 and to date we have received $120,907.00. $111,835.00 has been paid. 70% of gifts received over goal will be returned to our parish for our use. If you have not done so already, please prayerfully consider supporting the CMAA.

A gift to the CMAA, no matter the amount, will make a difference! Together, we can continue to spread the Gospel message in our diocese through our ministries and help others in need. Thank you for your support!

Tiny Seed

K-5 Family Scripture Connection

Did you know that mustard seeds are very tiny; the smallest of all seeds that are planted in the ground? But Jesus tells us that if we have faith even as small as of one of those tiny seeds, we could tell a tree to pick up its roots and it would listen to us! Jesus was trying to help us understand that if we have faith and believe in Him, even just a little bit, we can do incredible things. Imagine how much more we could do if we had a big, strong faith! We help each other grow bigger and stronger in our faith each time we come together for Mass, for the Sacraments, for prayer, and for Religious Education. What can you do to help your faith grow this week? How can you help another person grow in faith?

Exuding Joy

I absolutely love the passage from St. Timothy in today's 2nd reading, and even engraved the verses 1 Tim 1: 6 – 8 on a bracelet as gift for a teen strong in her faith. But my focus is on the last two verses today: Take as your norm the sound words that you heard from me, in the faith and love that are in Christ Jesus. Guard this rich trust with the help of the Holy Spirit that dwells within us. The goal for a student's formation in DASH is to start to feel, better trust, or strengthen the Holy Spirit in them especially as the Spirit comes at Confirmation. It isn't easy to be a person of faith – it actually takes effort to turn your heart and ways over to God but it's so worth it!

DASH 2: Meets tonight (October 2) from 5:00 – 7:00 PM. Bring your Breakthrough Bible! October 16 and 23 are the next dates.

Awesome new event/opportunity coming soon for those in DASH (and 9/10th graders in DASH or newly Confirmed!) Stay tuned and check emails. If you have taken to heart things taught, you might do exceedingly well and leave with a reward!

St. Francis of Assisi: Sign of Contradiction

From 4PM Media and The Ministry of the Wild Goose comes a breathtaking film on the life of St. Francis of Assisi. A fool according to the standards of the world, St. Francis' life was a sign of contradiction, convicting others of the beauty of Christ and his Gospel.

Misery Meets Mercy: Saint Faustina

St. Faustina is known as the "secretary of Divine Mercy" because of the revelations of the Lord to her about His unfathomable mercy. Join Dr. Ben Akers and Fr. Mateusz as they discuss her proclamation of the message of Divine Mercy.

Praying the Rosary Like Never Before by Dr. Edward Sri

In this talk, Dr. Edward Sri discusses the main tenets of his book, The New Rosary in Scripture: Biblical Insights on Praying the Twenty Mysteries. He shares Pope St. John Paul II's practical strategies for praying the Rosary better so you can encounter Jesus more deeply in prayer.

St. Vincent de Paul Society Gospel Reflection

In today's Gospel Jesus tells His disciples, "When you have done all you have been commanded, say: We are unprofitable servants; we have only done what we were obliged to do."

This week, please help the Society of St. Vincent de Paul to bring the love and mercy of Jesus to those who feel left out and abandoned. Indeed, with those extra prayers and help, we are going beyond "what we are obliged to do."
