A NOTE FROM FATHER EICKHOFF

October will soon be here, and the Season of Fall will begin. The days sure seem to go by quickly here in Oswego. There is a lot going on at St. Anne this coming month of October. Here are some of the big events:

The feast day of Saint Francis of Assisi is coming up on Tuesday, October 4. Not wanting to wait until Tuesday we will have a special blessing of animals on Saturday, October 1 at 10:00am. Come with your dog, your cat, your bird (not counting woodpeckers), your lizard, your snake, and any other creature and meet by the bell tower for the blessing.

I hope you will be able to join us for the Pig Roast on Sunday, October 9. The Pig Roast will be held in the parish hall between the hours of 12:00pm and 3:00pm. You will note that this is the same time as the Bears game against the Vikings. Have no fear about missing the game! We will have the game showing on the walls of the parish hall so that you will not miss a single dropped pass, missed field goal, fumbled handoff, or whatever means the Bears will devise to lose the game. Tickets are $2 dollars each and will be available for purchase after all the masses this weekend.

There will be a special Mass that will include the Sacrament of the Anointing of the Sick on Saturday, October 15 at 11:00am in the church. If you have a serious illness or condition, are recovering from treatment, or getting ready for a surgery you are welcome to join us. After the Mass and the reception of the Sacrament of the Sick there will be a special bag lunch in the parish hall.

In addition to these special events there are the ongoing events at church that you might wish to attend during the month of October. For example, Adoration of the Blessed Sacrament takes place every Wednesday evening between 7:00pm and 8:00pm in the chapel; and every Friday morning between 8.30am and 9:00am in the church.

Also, make sure to keep aware of new events that will be announced very soon. We have some exciting ideas for youth activities that are coming up for example that will be announced in the next couple of weeks.

Yours in Christ,

Fr. Stephen Eickhoff
Pastor

SPIRITUAL COMMUNION

"My Jesus, I believe that you are present in the most Blessed Sacrament. I love You above all things and I desire to receive You into my soul. Since I cannot now receive You sacramentally, come at least spiritually into my heart. I embrace You as if You were already there, and unite myself wholly to You. Never permit me to be separated from You. Amen."

K-5 Family Scripture Connection

Would you rather be rich and popular or poor and lonely? Seems like an easy question, right?! But getting into heaven isn't about how much money you have or how popular you are. It's about how you treat other people. It doesn't do you any good to have lots of money and friends if you keep it all to yourself. No matter if we are fortunate enough to have a lot or if we have very little, the Bible reminds us that EVERYONE is called to show love to God and others. Treat others with respect, share what you have, welcome all people, and you will have a place in heaven.

Reconciliation Preparation

I look forward to seeing all 2nd grade parents and students at our special meeting to begin preparing for First Reconciliation THIS Thursday, September 29 at 6:30 PM.

Competing for God

The letter to St. Timothy today is a letter to someone who was a youth, like you. Can you imagine someone you love telling you: But you, man of God, pursue righteousness, devotion, faith, love, patience, and gentleness. Compete well for the faith. Most people are great at giving their all for things that have a tangible reward (goal achieved, competition won) but struggle doing the necessary things for the heavenly race/reward. D.A.S.H is about helping you train your spiritual muscles, so come along and compete for God.

Awesome new event/opportunity coming soon for those in DASH (and 9/10th graders in DASH or newly Confirmed!) Stay tuned and check emails. It might connect to a race with a reward!

DASH 2 See you NEXT week (October 2 5:00–7:00 PM) to start our year. Make sure you bring your Breakthrough Bible to each session.

DASH 3 In the moment, ignoring extra work feels great, but in the long run it causes issues. Start out the semester on a good note – don't procrastinate on your Personal Learning Choice and make sure to utilize the app Reimagining the Examen for your prayer time this month.

Bishop Hicks' Column

September 2022 | Memories of St. Oscar Romero arise from today's Nicaragua

In 2005, I began an extraordinary assignment in my priesthood, working and living for five years in the country of El Salvador. This small Central American country embodies and emanates the spirit of St. Oscar Romero. When I first arrived to begin my missionary work, I started learning about this martyred archbishop. Needless to say, he quickly became one of my heroes and eventually one of my favorite saints.

During the 1980s, El Salvador had plummeted into a polarized and violent civil war. When the government began killing priests, nuns and laity, Archbishop Romero began to speak against the oppression with a loud and courageous voice. He became known as the "voice of the voiceless."

Officials with this brutal government began to threaten this dauntless shepherd and told him bluntly that if he continued to preach against their regime in favor of peace and justice for all people, he would be silenced by imprisonment or even death.

Regardless of these threats, the archbishop continued to use his voice against the corruption, hatred and killings of innocent people. Then, on March 24, 1980, while Romero was celebrating Mass in a Carmelite chapel, a lone gunman opened fire on him and killed him.

After Romero's assassination, a bloody civil war continued to rage in El Salvador, in which the poor, the Catholic Church and the people were cruelly persecuted. Finally, after more than 12 years, the war formally ended in 1992 with the signing of the Chapultepec Peace Accords.

Over the years, I have taken family, friends and visitors to see the "holy sites" of St. Oscar Romero in San Salvador, including the chapel where he was martyred and his tomb. I have always thought we were visiting "historical" sites, thinking to myself, "That all happened in the past, and thank God things like that no longer happen here and in our modern world."

That overly innocent idea of mine was recently shattered, as we have been following the current persecution of the Church in Nicaragua. The secretary-general of the United Nations has indicated he is "very concerned" about the Nicaraguan government's actions against democracy, civil society organizations and the Catholic Church. A few weeks ago, the Nicaraguan police conducted an overnight raid on the main offices of the Diocese of Matagalpa.

They forcibly took and arrested several people that night, including Bishop Rolando Álvarez, who had been under house arrest. Leaders around the world have called these actions by the Nicaraguan government a systematic persecution and harassment against the Catholic Church. As I write this, Álvarez is reportedly being held under yet another house arrest, at his parents' home in the capital city of Managua.

One might wonder: Why is this government targeting and repressing the Catholic Church and its leaders? Part of the reason is the Church continues to follow the example of St. Oscar Romero by being the voice of the voiceless, especially by speaking out against human rights violations throughout the country. During his house arrest at diocesan headquarters, Bishop Álvarez posted a message on social media: "We have to respond to hate with love, despair with hope, and fear with the strength and courage given to us by the glorious and resurrected Christ."

On August 19, the U.S. Conference of Catholic Bishops conveyed our support of the Church and people of Nicaragua through a statement from Bishop David J. Malloy of Rockford, who serves as the chairman of the USCCB Committee on International Justice and Peace: "I express our continued steadfast solidarity with our brothers in the Nicaraguan episcopate, along with their priests and foreign missionaries, in their calling to freely proclaim the Gospel and live the faith. The faith of the Nicaraguan people, who stand in solidarity with their bishops and priests, is an inspiration for us all."

Because we are a church that embraces the ideals of justice, peace and human dignity, please join me in solidarity with our Nicaraguan brothers and sisters. Let us also work and pray for an end to persecution against the Church, as well as for the protection of religious freedom - not only in Nicaragua, but throughout the world.

Jesus stood up to read, and they handed him the scroll of the prophet Isaiah. Unrolling the scroll, he found the passage where it is written: "The Spirit of the Lord is upon me, because he has anointed me to bring the good news to the poor. He has sent me to proclaim release to prisoners and recovery of sight to the blind, to let the oppressed go free, and to proclaim the year of the Lord's favor." (Luke 4: 17-19) †

SUNDAY PRAYER SHAPING LIFE AND BELIEF

This Bulletin Shorts Series began in 2016 during the Extraordinary Jubilee Year of Mercy. Now, in this sixth year, it still aims to help the faithful and catechumens delve into the Sunday Scripture and wrestle with Christian life. The hope is to rest more and more in God's grace and act in more merciful ways. The style is mystagogical.

Twenty-Sixth Sunday in Ordinary Time – 25 September 2022

Amos 6:1a, 4-7. Psalm 146:7, 8-9, 9-10. 1 Timothy 2:11-16. Luke 16:19-31.

Are the Rich in Trouble? Here, today, is the story of a rich man and a poor man, Lazarus (means, "My God helps"). The impoverished life of the latter and the sumptuous life of the former gets reversed in death and the life that follows. Are the rich in trouble? It depends.

† How will I keep one eye on heaven, my final home?

† How will I be generous today?

† How can I feed those who are hungry?

O.C.I.A. (Order of Christian Initiation of Adults)

Those interested in becoming Catholic or in learning more about the Catholic faith meet weekly. Call the parish office or e-mail rcia@stanneparish.org for more information.

STEWARDSHIP PARISH

We are a stewardship parish. This means that every parishioner with an income is asked to use a Sunday envelope, since we expect to meet our needs from the one collection at the Presentation of the Gifts.

NEW PARISHIONERS

All new families are warmly welcomed to Saint Anne Parish and we ask that you register your family through our website at <http://stanneparish.org/registration-form/>.

BULLETIN DEADLINE

Bulletin articles are due into the parish office by 10:00 AM Thursday, 10 days before the Sunday you wish the article to appear. Please email your copy to stanne@stanneparish.org using Microsoft WORD.
