Why a Church?

What's Our Story?

Who Are You?

Am I Saved?

A NOTE FROM FATHER EICKHOFF

The Holy Catholic Church has a serious problem.

This week the Church is competing with the secular feast of Halloween for the attention of people in our community. Halloween of course features parties, costumes, and lots and lots of candy. The Church wants us to focus on the virtuous lives of the saints and the necessity of praying for those persons who have died. As much as I enjoy reading of the heroic lives of the saints of God and accept that praying for the dead is a good and righteous activity, I must admit that fun and sweets has the greater immediate appeal.

As you can tell by the opening lines of this bulletin article, this week features two of the most important feasts of the Church Year. On November 1 the Church celebrates the Solemnity of All Saints. The following day (November 2) the Church remembers all of the dead with the Commemoration of All the Faithful Departed. When it comes to speaking about the saints of God, it should be kept in mind that we – The Church on Earth – do not claim to know who all the saints of God are. The Church recognizes men and women as saints, but we human beings are not the ones who actually determine whether a person is a saint. That determination belongs to God alone. There are doubtless many men and women who lived holy lives devoted to God whose names we do not know, but are known to God, and are His saints in heaven now. This Solemnity of All Saints is set aside to thank God for these unknown men and women and to praise God for giving to all of us the hope of being someday saints of God through His generosity and mercy.

The Commemoration of All the Faithful Departed is set aside to pray for those persons who have died. We ask God in prayer to forgive the sins of those who have died and to grant them a place in the Kingdom of God. If we are honest with ourselves, we know that none of us are perfect and all of us are in need of prayer and God's grace. The saints themselves are often recorded as asking for prayers for themselves after they have died. If these holy men and women - who were known on Earth as being devoted to God - frequently asked for prayers for themselves after their earthly death, then it follows that we should pray for everyone who has died.

WITH HEARTFELT GRATITUDE

The Mantellate Sisters Servants of Mary (Marian Lake) wish to extend their heartfelt expression of gratitude to Fr. Eickoff and the St. Anne parish staff for their prayers and support upon the sudden death of Sr. Margaret Anne. The Sisters are grateful to Deacon David and Jan for assisting with the Mass of Resurrection and to Rich and the choir for their inspirational music. We are overwhelmed by the love and support that we have received from the parishioners of St. Anne during this difficult time. Thank you to all of you who celebrated her life with us in prayer and in offering to us words of comfort.

Sister Margaret Anne loved sharing her faith with the families and people of St. Anne Parish and felt very blessed because of the many people who extended their friendship and love to her and to all the Sisters. She would want all of you to know how grateful she was for you and that she always prayed for you and we believe, continues to pray for each of you even now. Our Sisters continue to give thanks to God for you and remember you in our prayers each day.

SPIRITUAL COMMUNION

"My Jesus, I believe that you are present in the most Blessed Sacrament. I love You above all things and I desire to receive You into my soul. Since I cannot now receive You sacramentally, come at least spiritually into my heart. I embrace You as if You were already there, and unite myself wholly to You. Never permit me to be separated from You. Amen."

K-5 Family Scripture Connection

The Gospel this weekend is one of my favorite stories of Jesus's forgiveness. Zacchaeus knew that the people of his town didn't like him because he took extra tax money from them to keep for himself, but he was willing to face their hatred just for a chance to see Jesus. Imagine his surprise when Jesus ignored the bad things the people were saying and invited Zacchaeus to have supper with Him. Because of Jesus's love and forgiveness, Zacchaeus promised to give back all the money he had taken, plus four times more! No matter what we do, Jesus will always forgive us if we are truly sorry. What are YOU willing to do to celebrate Jesus's love?

Celebrating Holy Days This Week

Class = Mass! In honor of All Hollow's Eve (Halloween), All Saints Day, and All Souls Day, we do NOT have our usual RE classes this week: October 31 – November 2. Instead of class, plan to join us for one of the All Saints Day Masses on Tuesday, November 1 so we can celebrate the holy day together as a community. The "RE family Mass" is scheduled for 4:45 that day.

Jesus in you?

Knowing "why" we do something is so important. Today's 2nd reading gives strength for our why: "We pray always for you...that the Lord Jesus may be glorified in you and you in Him!" Our goal as disciples is to be in relationship with the person who is the lover of our souls (stated in the 1st reading.) In your thoughts, scrolling, video choices, words and actions how will you allow Jesus to be seen through you?

For those who signed up, see you there. Decided last minute you want to come? Have a parent check you in with Ms. Julie so we know you are present and have parent permission.

DASH 1: This coming week you will not be in the classroom to honor Halloween on Monday, ensure everyone can come to Mass on Tuesday for All Saint's Day (Holy Day of obligation) and respecting All Soul's Day on Wednesday.

DASH 2: We don't meet tonight because of the full Halloween weekend. We are on for 3 weeks in a row in November! Plan to be present.

DASH 3: You are moving into a new choice for your Prayer Experience and continuing your personal learning assignment. Keep up the commitment, you are doing great!

Saint Charles Borromeo: The Good Shepherd

As the Cardinal-nephew of Pope Pius IV, Saint Charles Borromeo was one of the wealthiest and most powerful men in all of Rome. Yet he chose the extraordinary challenge of reforming the enormous Archdiocese of Milan to the pampered life of a Renaissance prince, and willingly spent himself in the service of his flock.

The Catholic Take on Halloween

Remembering the dead in purgatory, celebrating the Saints, and the Catholic perspective on Halloween.

Purgatory by Dr. Scott Hahn

This remarkable talk is an essential resource for answering the various objections that Protestants make to the Catholic Faith, including the authority of the Pope, the doctrine of Purgatory, devotion to the Blessed Virgin Mary and the Saints, the Sacrament of Confession, and the Real Presence in the Holy Eucharist.

St. Vincent de Paul Society Gospel Reflection

In the Gospel today, Zacchaeus accepts our Lord joyfully; and the sign of his acceptance is his open house and his resolution to give half of his goods to the poor.

Through your prayers and gifts to the Society of St. Vincent de Paul, you also show your acceptance of our Lord by joyfully sharing your goods with your neighbor who is hungry, hopeless, alone, and frightened.
