A NOTE FROM FATHER EICKHOFF

Welcome to the Season of Advent!

Although the Season of Advent is a penitential season of the Church; a season in which we are to be especially mindful of our sins and failings; a season in which we are to strive with God's help to amend our sinful ways and to live according to the Law of God. This season is filled with hope and joyful anticipation for we look forward to the coming of our Savior, Jesus Christ, and the celebration of Christmas. Perhaps the anticipation is best expressed in today's liturgy by the words in the first stanza of the Responsorial Psalm (Psalm 122):

I rejoiced when they said to me,

“Let us go to the house of the LORD.”

And now our feet are standing

within your gates, Jerusalem.

As Christians we have been called by God to enter into the house of the Lord. This calling should be received with joy and excitement. We should be filled both with a desire to cast off from our lives all the thoughts and actions that are contrary to God's law and to take up every virtue and practice that is recommended to us by our Savior Jesus Christ. When we hear that Christmas is coming we should be thinking less of presents and decorations (I've got nothing against presents and decorations, but they should not be the primary goal of our thoughts and actions leading up to Christmas) and more about the joy that comes from our entering the house of the Lord; which is the Church given to us by Jesus Christ and the Kingdom of God promised to us by our Savior.

In the here and now we as Christians are standing inside the gates of the heavenly Jerusalem. Just as the gates to an ancient city marked the boundary between the dangerous outside and the secure inside; so too as Christians are we at once at the boundary between two worlds. The outside for us Christians is the society in which we live which is so often hostile to living our lives as disciples of Christ. The inside is the very Kingdom of God, the destination for which we as disciples long for and the goal of our desires. Every time the Season of Advent comes around we need to be reminded to turn our backs on the outside and keep our faces firmly directed to the inside. The celebration of Christmas is a vivid reminder for us who are still in the gate of the glory that lies within the city. With the words of Saint Paul from our Second Reading ringing in our ears, let us keep to the way of the Lord and set ourselves to passing through the gate and going into Jerusalem with joy.

Yours in Christ,

Fr. Stephen Eickhoff
Pastor

SPIRITUAL COMMUNION

"My Jesus, I believe that you are present in the most Blessed Sacrament. I love You above all things and I desire to receive You into my soul. Since I cannot now receive You sacramentally, come at least spiritually into my heart. I embrace You as if You were already there, and unite myself wholly to You. Never permit me to be separated from You. Amen."

LECTIO DIVINA

Reading—Meditation—Prayer—Contemplation

Lectio Divina or “divine reading” is a process of engaging with Christ, the Word of God. Through this sacred exercise, we enter into a closer relationship with the very Word Himself, who communicates the love of the Father to us through the Holy Spirit.

Lectio Divina has four steps in which we first hear what God has said (reading). We then take it in and reflect on it (meditation). From this our hearts are lifted up (prayer). Finally, after speaking to the Lord in prayer, we rest and listen for His message to us (contemplation).

This is the process of Lectio Divina. It is a conversation with God, grounded in God's own self-revelation to us. This helps us speak to God with a focus on what He has already told us about His relationship with humanity, His plans and desires for us, His promises, His admonitions and His guidance on how we can live, so as to find true life in abundance in Christ.

Join us on the Tuesdays of Advent at 9:30 AM or 7:00 PM in the Chapel.

St. Vincent de Paul Society Gospel Reflection

There is an Advent spirit in the heart of every human person. It is one of longing, of yearning for a fulfillment that somehow lies beyond ourselves, for we long for the coming of the Lord.

As you pray for the poor and offer your financial support to St. Vincent de Paul, your heart will discover the true meaning of Christmas by helping those who are suffering find hope in the coming of the Lord.

K-5 Family Scripture Connection

Part of the Gospel story for this 1st Sunday of Advent is kind of a “no-brainer.” If you knew that a robber was going to break into your house tonight, of course you wouldn’t just go to sleep and let it happen! You would stay awake and be prepared. But the robbers of the world do not give us warning, so we must be prepared for the unexpected to happen at any time. The same is true for our relationship with God. We never know when Jesus will return or when God will call us to heaven. We must have our hearts ready at all times. How will you “stay awake” and get ready for Jesus this Advent?

Reconciliation This Week

This week, November 28-30, the students in grades 3-6 will have the opportunity to receive the Sacrament of Reconciliation during their regular class time.

Getting ready in the morning

Most people get up and are out the door before the sun is shining bright. As you head out in the darkness, waiting for light, do you prepare yourself for the world (day) you are about to face in prayer? Do you call on your guardian angel and the Holy Spirit to help you and light your path to make the best decisions and do your best? Today’s 2nd reading had this beautiful image: “Let us then throw off the works of darkness and put on the armor of light.” As we wait for the Light of the World, Jesus, to be born again, let’s continue to ask for the support from God to put on His armor of light (kindness/goodness/love)!

DASH 1: This coming week, all classes are in session and for half of class time students are invited to participate in the Sacrament of Reconciliation.

DASH 2: Enjoy your Thanksgiving weekend! Please check emails to know which of the two timeframes your child’s group was assigned for December 4.

DASH 3: A new prayer reflection was posted a few days ago. This month, along with anything else you may choose to do, our prayer experience is praying the joyful mysteries and utilizing some great Catholic/
