A NOTE FROM FATHER EICKHOFF

Sometimes it helps to flip the Holy Scriptures around in order to better understand them. Now by this I do not mean that you should take your Holy Bible and turn it around and try to read it upside down. If you can do that, I will be very impressed. Or very disturbed. No, I mean that we should take a passage of Scripture such as today's Second Reading from St. Paul's Letter to the Corinthians and flip it around.

Consider the following example. In today's Second Reading St. Paul tells the Corinthians that:

"Not many of you were wise by human standards, not many were powerful, not many were of noble birth."

Now let us flip it around by changing the tense from the past to the present so that it reads:

Now you are wise, now you are powerful, now you are of noble birth.

In what ways can the followers of Christ be considered wise, powerful, and of noble birth?

Certainly, the followers of Jesus Christ can be considered wise by virtue of being joined to the very person of God through the Sacrament of Baptism. God, who is the very source of wisdom, shares not only His grace, and His life with us, but He also shares with us His wisdom. There can be no higher wisdom in all of creation than what God has so generously made known to us by virtue of being brothers and sisters of Jesus Christ.

Or consider how the follower of Christ is powerful. Before becoming followers of Christ every human being was subjected to the baleful influence of sin and the power of the evil one. We were weak not only in terms of human societies, but in every other way such as spiritual, behavioral, and mental. However, after becoming a disciple of Jesus Christ we have through Jesus gained power over sin and the evil one. We no longer must be subjected to these forces. Rather, we can triumph over them. The Christian is powerful in a way that goes well beyond what is visibly seen in human societies for the Christian can be victorious over sins and vices that utterly dominate those persons who are called "powerful" in human society.

Finally, let us consider how we might be of noble birth. Through Baptism we become sons and daughters of God. Once again, there is no one greater than God. If we are truly children of God, then we are also of the highest possible noble birth. Now, I will grant you that there are few people in the United States today who expect to be called "Lord so and so" or "Princess whoever" (that is unless you run into some member of the British royal family) and so you might think that this is unimportant nowadays. However, there are people who have prestige and opportunities given to them solely based on who their parents are. Look at the children of just about any politician if you need an example. To be of noble birth through Jesus Christ is to stress how this nobility is not limited to just a few, but rather to everyone who belongs to the family of God.

Yours in Christ,

Fr. Stephen Eickhoff
Pastor

SPIRITUAL COMMUNION

"My Jesus, I believe that you are present in the most Blessed Sacrament. I love You above all things and I desire to receive You into my soul. Since I cannot now receive You sacramentally, come at least spiritually into my heart. I embrace You as if You were already there, and unite myself wholly to You. Never permit me to be separated from You. Amen."

THE 2023 CATHOLIC MINISTRIES ANNUAL APPEAL IS NOW UNDERWAY

As the Diocese of Joliet launches the 2023 Catholic Ministries Annual Appeal (CMAA), we are asking all parishioners to pledge their support to this important effort for our community of faith.

This year's CMAA theme is We Belong to God. Through our support, we ensure that the mission and ministries of Christ's Church are available to everyone. Together, we help the poor and vulnerable, increase vocations and educate people of all ages, ethnicities, and abilities in the faith. Our parish could not accomplish all of this on its own.

Our parish's goal for the 2023 CMAA is $109,300.00, and 70 percent of any amount we raise over our goal will be returned to us. Please review the materials you receive in the mail from the Diocese of Joliet this month and prayerfully reflect on your gift to this year's annual appeal.

If you do not receive a CMAA mailing, please contact the parish office.

FEAST OF SAINT BLAISE—February 3

This bishop suffered martyrdom early in the fourth century. Legends say that he was a physician before becoming a bishop. While in prison he miraculously cured a young boy who was choking from a fish bone in his throat. St. Blaise became one of the most popular saints during the Middle Ages, being invoked as a helper in times of sickness related to the throat. The tradition of blessing throats of parishioners with two crossed candles has been popular for centuries. The ritual prayer is:

"Through the intercession of St. Blaise, bishop and martyr, may the Lord free you from evils of the throat and from any other evil."

Blessing of throats will take place at 8:00 AM Mass on Friday, February 3.

RELIGIOUS ARTICLES STORE Good News!!!!

COMING SOON

The Religious Articles Store will be reopening. The store will be open once a month usually on a Sunday. The next date the store will be open is:

Sunday, February 12
8:00 AM-12:30 PM

Stop by the store and see what items are available. We will have rosaries, holy cards, medals, Baptism items, Bibles, Sunday Missals.

Watch for dates in March and April when we will have items for First Holy Communion and Confirmation.

K-5 Family Scripture Connection

In the Gospel for this 4th Sunday in Ordinary Time, Jesus teaches us the Beatitudes. They show us what it looks like to live life God's way, which is very different than how the world tells us we should live. We will only be truly happy (blessed) when we make God the most important thing in our lives. We should rely on God to comfort us when we are sad rather than having lots of "stuff." We should always try to do what is right instead of what is popular. We should forgive others instead of holding a grudge. We should focus on having a beautiful heart rather than being beautiful on the outside. We should work for peace rather than trying to get our own way. We should care what God thinks rather than what others think of us. If we try our best to do these things, we will be truly happy!

K-5 Schedule

Our classes are on schedule as usual for the next few weeks. The next "day off" is on Wednesday, February 8. There are no classes that night so that our volunteers can attend a special event.

Seek

The first three words from prophet Zephaniah are: "Seek the Lord." Doesn't it seem like such a simple phrase, like the game Hide and Go Seek? Sometimes seeking in fun, especially when you know all the hiding places and can easily find the person. But seeking God, who you cannot see but is always present, can be hard. I know that is the case for many youth when prayers don't seem to be answered, or an immediate response isn't heard. Continue to seek and know God is waiting for you to bump into Him. Live the way God asks of us, going against culture, and God will be found.

DASH 1 Due to days off, each RE day is on a different topic (Abraham Family Tree or Moses), but everyone is on campus this week.

DASH 2: Look for Episode 2 of "The Chosen" in Google Classroom this weekend.

DASH 3: See you again tonight, January 29 and next week February 5 from 5:00-7:00 PM.

Next youth group is Friday, February 10. No doubt it will have some kind of Valentine connection and probably some pizza to eat, games to play, and fun questions to answer.

SACRAMENT OF MARRIAGE

Couples seeking the Sacrament of Marriage should call the parish office at least six months before the date of marriage. A wedding date may not be secured until meeting with the parish Deacon or Priest. At that time, the couple will be secured a date and begin the process of preparation for the Sacrament of Marriage.

SACRAMENT OF THE SICK

If there is anyone at home who cannot get to Mass and the Sacraments because of illness or age, please call the parish office at anytime to request the Sacrament of the Anointing of the Sick.

O.C.I.A. (Order of Christian Initiation of Adults)

Those interested in becoming Catholic or in learning more about the Catholic faith meet weekly. Call the parish office or e-mail rcia@stanneparish.org for more information.

STEWARDSHIP PARISH

We are a stewardship parish. This means that every parishioner with an income is asked to use a Sunday envelope, since we expect to meet our needs from the one collection at the Presentation of the Gifts.

NEW PARISHIONERS

All new families are warmly welcomed to Saint Anne Parish and we ask that you register your family through our website at <http://stanneparish.org/registration-form/>.

BULLETIN DEADLINE

Bulletin articles are due into the parish office by 10:00 AM Thursday, 10 days before the Sunday you wish the article to appear. Please email your copy to stanne@stanneparish.org using Microsoft WORD.
