A NOTE FROM FATHER EICKHOFF

Now that we are in the month of February we begin to look forward to the Season of Lent. It is amazing how fast the period of time between the end of the Christmas Season and the beginning of Lent races by. Since this time seems so short, it is a good idea to mark your calendars now for the Mass that you wish to attend on Ash Wednesday (that is February 22). St. Anne will hold Masses at:

7am, 12pm, 5.30pm, and 7.30pm (all in the church)

One of my fellow priests frequently points out to me how strange it is that so many people desire to place ashes on their head on Ash Wednesday, but do not want to receive Holy Communion. Ashes are a symbol of our sinfulness and our unworthiness before God. Ashes mark us as bearing the disfiguring effects of sin which sickens us and drives us away from God. We do not celebrate the ashes we wear on Ash Wednesday. Rather, we should mourn the necessity of displaying them. The Blessed Eucharist on the other hand is God Himself giving of Himself as medicine for our healing. Holy Communion is the antidote for our sins. Marking ourselves with ashes without receiving Holy Communion is like entering a doctor's office and never asking for treatment.

The Season of Lent is also a great time to develop spiritual practices that can help us grow in the faith. One of these spiritual practices is praying before the Blessed Eucharist. St. Anne Parish holds Eucharistic adoration on Wednesday evenings at 7pm in the chapel and on Friday morning at 8.30am in the church. Everyone is welcome to join those who are already coming to adoration and take some time to pray during Lent. There will also be a special three-hour Eucharistic adoration on Saturday, March 25 between 2pm and 5pm in the church.

The Season of Lent is also a great time to go to the Sacrament of Confession. Confessions are heard on Wednesday evenings from 7pm to 8pm and Saturday afternoons from 3.30pm to 4.30pm. During the Season of Lent there will also be two extra opportunities to go to confession when there will be extra priests available. The first will be a special parish reconciliation service on Sunday, March 5 beginning at 4pm. The second will be during the special Eucharistic adoration service on Saturday, March 25 from 2.30pm to 4.30pm.

Yours in Christ,

Fr. Stephen Eickhoff
Pastor

SPIRITUAL COMMUNION

"My Jesus, I believe that you are present in the most Blessed Sacrament. I love You above all things and I desire to receive You into my soul. Since I cannot now receive You sacramentally, come at least spiritually into my heart. I embrace You as if You were already there, and unite myself wholly to You. Never permit me to be separated from You. Amen."

Thank you for your continued generosity to St. Anne Parish.

THE 2023 CATHOLIC MINISTRIES ANNUAL APPEAL IS NOW UNDERWAY

As the Diocese of Joliet launches the 2023 Catholic Ministries Annual Appeal (CMAA), we are asking all parishioners to pledge their support to this important effort for our community of faith.

This year's CMAA theme is We Belong to God. Through our support, we ensure that the mission and ministries of Christ's Church are available to everyone. Together, we help the poor and vulnerable, increase vocations and educate people of all ages, ethnicities, and abilities in the faith. Our parish could not accomplish all of this on its own.

Our parish's goal for the 2023 CMAA is $109,300.00, and 70 percent of any amount we raise over our goal will be returned to us. Please review the materials you receive in the mail from the Diocese of Joliet this month and prayerfully reflect on your gift to this year's annual appeal.

If you do not receive a CMAA mailing, please contact the parish office.

K-5 Family Scripture Connection

Have you ever heard the song, "This little light of mine, I'm gonna let it shine"? That's what I thought of when I heard Jesus tell us in the Gospel that "you are the light of the world." We are supposed to let our good deeds shine like a light for other people, leading them to God. The 1st Reading gives us a clue about how to do this. We can feed the hungry, give shelter to the homeless, and clothing to those in need. We call these things the Corporal Works of Mercy. We spread the love of God when we show mercy (love) for others in what we say and do. What is one thing you can do this week to show love for others and shine with the light of God?

K-5 Schedule

Classes meet as usual on Monday and Tuesday of this week but there are no classes on Wednesday, February 8. Looking ahead, please note that there are no classes the week of February 20–22. All families are encouraged to join us for one of the Ash Wednesday Masses on February 22 instead.

The "Proof is in the Pudding"

Sacraments of Initiation (Baptism, Eucharist, Confirmation) are usually chosen by the parents for their child. While Confirmation needs to be chosen by the teen who needs to desire it for themselves, it still begins with parent prodding. This is why youth can show up to DASH sessions hesitant, doubtful, and not engaged. The task on our end is usually to 'prove' why they should care. St. Paul shared that he didn't have "words of wisdom" but showed others the power of the Holy Spirit. The more we, as a community, live out our faith, the more it will make sense for our youth to desire it! Our lives are a vessel to allow our actions to be a "demonstration of Spirit" though us. May we all offer proof of Jesus' light in our lives!

DASH 1: Monday and Tuesday class are on campus. Wednesday group will finish the Moses movie at home. See email with questions to complete.

DASH 2: Look for Episode 2 of "The Chosen" in Google Classroom this weekend.

DASH 3: See you again tonight, February 5 from 5:00–7:00 PM. This group then has two weeks off and will be back on campus (parents may also be invited) on February 26.

Next youth group is THIS COMING Friday, February 10 from 6:00-8:00 PM. Check out invite link sent through Flocknote to those in DASH or contact Julie if you want to come.

MISSION STATEMENT

Learn, Live and Nurture — Learn the Faith, Live the Faith and Nurture the Faith

As a welcoming Catholic community, we strive to be disciples of Jesus glorifying His true presence in the Eucharist. Just as St. Anne was called by God, we are called as faithful witnesses to celebrate the Sacraments, honor traditions and nurture the family by studying, praying and proclaiming the Good News through service and evangelization.

SACRAMENT OF BAPTISM
Baptisms are generally held the 1st and 3rd Sundays of the month (some months this may vary) at 12:30 PM. Expectant parents are to call the Parish Office, six months before the birth of their child for preparation information. Please do not choose Godparents until you receive the established Church guidelines for Godparents.

SACRAMENT OF MARRIAGE
Couples seeking the Sacrament of Marriage should call the parish office at least six months before the date of marriage. A wedding date may not be secured until meeting with the parish Deacon or Priest. At that time, the couple will be secured a date and begin the process of preparation for the Sacrament of Marriage.

SACRAMENT OF THE SICK
If there is anyone at home who cannot get to Mass and the Sacraments because of illness or age, please call the parish office at anytime to request the Sacrament of the Anointing of the Sick.

O.C.I.A. (Order of Christian Initiation of Adults)
Those interested in becoming Catholic or in learning more about the Catholic faith meet weekly. Call the parish office or e-mail rcia@stanneparish.org for more information.

STEWARDSHIP PARISH
We are a stewardship parish. This means that every parishioner with an income is asked to use a Sunday envelope, since we expect to meet our needs from the one collection at the Presentation of the Gifts.

NEW PARISHIONERS
All new families are warmly welcomed to Saint Anne Parish and we ask that you register your family through our website at http://stanneparish.org/registration-form/.

BULLETIN DEADLINE
Bulletin articles are due into the parish office by 10:00 AM Thursday, 10 days before the Sunday you wish the article to appear. Please email your copy to stanne@stanneparish.org using Microsoft WORD.
