A NOTE FROM FATHER EICKHOFF

Today's Second Reading is taken from St. Paul's Letter to the Ephesians. It is worth quoting the opening line taken from Ephesians 5 verse 8 before continuing onward:

"For you were once darkness, but now you are light in the Lord. Live as children of light."

Notice that the line does not read "you were once in darkness, but now you are in the light of the Lord. Live as children of the light." (Yes, I used both bold and underline to bring out the changes). The differences might seem to be unimportant, but that would be wrong. The differences are crucial to understanding how we interact with God and whether we are changed by God.

In a few short weeks we Christians will be celebrating Holy Week and Easter. Those great days in which Jesus Christ suffered, died, and rose from the dead. During those days, Jesus accomplished the work of our salvation in which our sins are forgiven, and we are united with God forever. But how is our salvation accomplished? Are we moved from one situation (that is alienation from God) to another (that is union with God) by fiat? Are we internally changed by our salvation? These questions can have profoundly different answers with dramatically different consequences for who we are in Christ.

Recall the opening line of today's Second Reading. We were not in darkness, instead we were darkness. Darkness was not some place that we were stuck in, but a part of who we were before Christ. Through Christ's saving action upon the cross we are not simply moved from darkness to light. Rather, we have become light. Our very nature has been changed by Jesus Christ. We have been and continue to be transformed by the action of God to be more like Him who is light. Truly, this is a marvelous transformation that goes far beyond simply moving us from darkness to light but leaving us as we were before Jesus Christ died and rose again for us.

Finally, we must recognize and give thanks to God for this transformation of our very being. The very best way to carry out this act of thanks to God is to live according to the teaching of God. When we do so, we are cooperating with God in remaking us in His image. Recall that God earnestly desires us to be united with Him, but He always respects the human will. Living as children of light is an act of the human will that demonstrates that we want to be transformed by God.

One final note:

Saturday, March 25 is the Solemnity of the Annunciation of the Lord. It is not a Holy Day of Obligation. However, there will be a Mass at 8am in the church that morning in honor of the solemnity.

Yours in Christ,

Fr. Stephen Eickhoff
Pastor

SPIRITUAL COMMUNION

"My Jesus, I believe that you are present in the most Blessed Sacrament. I love You above all things and I desire to receive You into my soul. Since I cannot now receive You sacramentally, come at least spiritually into my heart. I embrace You as if You were already there, and unite myself wholly to You. Never permit me to be separated from You. Amen."

THE 2023 CATHOLIC MINISTRIES ANNUAL APPEAL IS NOW UNDERWAY

Pledge your gift to the CMAA

This year's CMAA theme is We Belong to God. We must work together to ensure all feel included in our community of faith. Through our annual appeal, our parish joins with the other parishes in the diocese to help the poor and vulnerable, form our children in the faith and strengthen vocations. We could not accomplish these and the many other ministries the CMAA supports on our own.

Seventy percent of any amount we raise over our goal will be returned to us, which is a wonderful opportunity for our parish. Please prayerfully reflect on how you can best support our annual appeal and help our parish reach its $109,300.00 goal. To make a gift, complete and return one of the pledge envelopes in church today. In advance, thank you for your support!

K-5 Family Scripture Connection

In the Gospel for this 4th Sunday of Lent, we hear about a man born blind. He literally could not see anything. But even those of us with good eyesight can sometimes be blind. Because of our sins (our bad choices), we sometimes fail to see what is most important. Maybe we don't notice when someone is lonely or needs our help. Maybe we are blind to how our words and actions sometimes hurt other people. Maybe we don't see how it hurts our friendship with God when we don't take the time to pray or worship Him. The season of Lent is the perfect time for us to think about our choices, ask for forgiveness, and have our eyes opened by the love and mercy of God. Then, no longer blind, we can go out to spread the Good News and be a disciple of Christ.

No Longer Blind!

K-5 Schedule

Classes are in session as usual this week, March 20-22. There are no RE classes the week of March 27-29 for Spring Break and April 3-5 to honor Holy Week. Please check out the Holy Week schedule on the parish website or in the Bulletin and plan join us for the holy liturgies.

Don't judge by appearance

We know that we shouldn't judge a book by its cover, but it's sometimes hard not to choose a book that way (or a Tik Tok video) because certain covers (short clips) really draw us in. It's a good thing in life, despite the hard times as youth (and even adults) thinking outer appearances matter the most, that God doesn't judge our worthiness that way. God tells Samuel today that He "looks into the heart." This Lent, how are you doing in prayer, fasting in a way to give God more glory, and giving of your time/heart to others? God sees and loves that!

DASH 1: This whole year has been a focus on the kerygma tree and Old Testament people/themes. As Holy week approaches, we connect dots of why it matters to know the Old Testament as Jesus fulfills it.

DASH 2: You guys are back to The Chosen, episode 5, which is Jesus' first miracle. Over the next three weeks, as all assignments have been posted to the classroom. Feel free to go ahead and finish all the episodes so you will be almost done in April.

DASH 3: Today, March 19, is normal time (5:00-7:00 PM) and then we have a few weeks off due to spring break, Holy Week and Easter. It's crazy to think after this, you only have 3 sessions left in April, a retreat in August, and then you are done with DASH. But you are never done in your choice to show up to God. He judges by your heart so continue to commit to your prayer time and draw closer to Jesus/Holy Spirit/God.

PEACE AND JUSTICE MINISTRY
Service Sunday Event—March 26

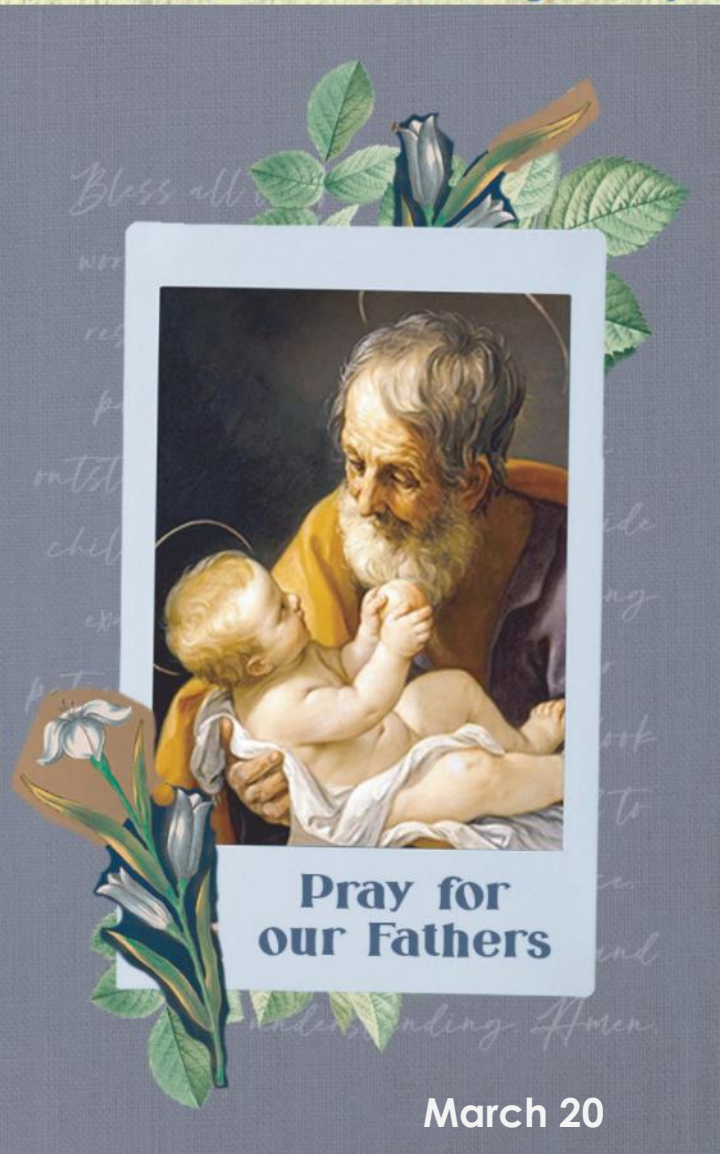

There will be a Service Sunday Event on Sunday March 26 after the 9:15 and 11:00 AM Masses to prepare Easter cards for nursing homes in our community.

So, if you have a few minutes after Mass, you can share some love for Easter with the seniors. Thank you and God Bless You!
