

Fifth Sunday of LENT

This illness is not
to end in death,
but is for the glory of God,
that the Son of God may be glorified through it.

A NOTE FROM FATHER EICKHOFF

Next Sunday is Palm Sunday which marks the beginning of Holy Week. It is during Holy Week that the Church celebrates the defining moments of our Christian Faith. That is the suffering, death, and resurrection of our Lord Jesus Christ. It is through the sacrifice of Jesus Christ upon the cross that our sins have been wiped away and we have been reunited with God. And, it is through the resurrection of Jesus Christ that we have the great hope of everlasting life. In other words, if there is any one week of the year in which we should especially concentrate our thoughts and actions upon practicing our Christian Faith, this is it.

I want to draw your attention to one particular spiritual practice that takes place on Holy Thursday. After the 7pm Mass of the Last Supper, the Holy Eucharist will be exposed for adoration in the church until midnight. This traditional practice recalls how Jesus after the Last Supper went into the garden to pray before the soldiers and guards came to seize Him. When Jesus went into the garden to pray, He took with Him several of the disciples as companions. This coming Holy Thursday night when we come to pray before the Blessed Sacrament we will be standing with the disciples as companions of Christ. I encourage you to come and pray with Jesus Christ for one hour after the 7pm Mass. The time for adoration will begin immediately after the end of the Mass of the Last Supper (sometime after 8pm). Judging from past experience, many people will stay with the Lord in the church until 9pm. If you are able, I hope that some of you will commit yourselves to returning to the church for one hour between 9pm and midnight. In the back of the church there is a poster with the names of parishioners who have already committed themselves to staying with the Lord for one hour. Please feel free to join them on Holy Thursday night even if you have not signed up beforehand.

There is one final note that I want to add. And that is about the Blessing of Easter Food. It may not be the most solemn traditional spiritual practice as compared to staying with the Lord on Holy Thursday night, rather it is a joyous traditional practice. Blessing of Easter food will take place at St. Anne Parish on Holy Saturday at 12.30pm in the Parish Hall.

Yours in Christ,

Fr. Stephen Eickhoff
Pastor

SPIRITUAL COMMUNION

"My Jesus, I believe that you are present in the most Blessed Sacrament. I love You above all things and I desire to receive You into my soul. Since I cannot now receive You sacramentally, come at least spiritually into my heart. I embrace You as if You were already there, and unite myself wholly to You. Never permit me to be separated from You. Amen."

WE BELONG TO GOD

THE 2023 CATHOLIC MINISTRIES ANNUAL APPEAL IS NOW UNDERWAY

Pledge your gift to the CMAA

If you have already pledged your support to the Catholic Ministries Annual Appeal, THANK YOU! If we all participate, we can meet our parish's CMAA goal of $109,300.00. Each and every gift, large or small, makes a difference.

If you still need to make your gift, please prayerfully reflect on how you can best support the CMAA this year and ensure all in our Diocese know that we belong to God. There are many options for giving, from pledging to monthly recurring gifts. Pledge envelopes are still available in the literature racks, or you can return the pledge card you received in the mail from the Diocese or make a gift online at jolietdioceseappeal.org.

Remember, if we raise more than our goal, the Diocese will return to us 70 percent of the amount over goal. This is an amazing opportunity for our parish.

SUNDAY PRAYER SHAPING LIFE AND BELIEF

This Bulletin Shorts Series began in 2016 during the Extraordinary Jubilee Year of Mercy. Now, in this sixth year, it still aims to help the faithful and catechumens delve into the Sunday Scripture and wrestle with Christian life. The hope is to rest more and more in God's grace and act in more merciful ways. The style is mystagogical.

Corporal Works of Mercy

Fifth Sunday of Lent – 26 March 2023

Ezekiel 37:12-14. Psalm 130:1-2, 3-4, 5-6, 7-8. Romans 8:8-11. John 11:1-45.

Dying with Christ; Dying to Self. Even when his friends are disappointed with him and his disciples misunderstand him, Jesus is clear and resolute. No one's death is everlasting. We believe that just as Baptism graces us with new life in Christ, physical death transmits us to newer life with God for ever.

† What "death" is sucking the life out of me? What will I do about it?

† What will I do, as one loved by Christ beyond all measure, for those in need of mercy works?

† How will I be a sign of Christ-filled life for the elect preparing for Easter Baptism?

K-5 Family Scripture Connection

The Gospel story for this 5th Sunday of Lent of Jesus raising His friend Lazarus from the dead makes me think of TRUST. Martha trusted that Jesus was the Christ, the Son of God, and that those who believe in Him will never die. Jesus trusted that God the Father would hear his prayer and that he had the power to bring Lazarus back to life. We are called to trust that with God, all things are possible. Is there anything in your life causing you to doubt God? What can you do in the remaining weeks of Lent to turn that doubt to trust? When you fully trust God, how will your life be different? How can you help others to trust?

K-5 Schedule

- There are no RE classes this week, March 27-29, due to District 308 Spring Break.
- There are also no classes the following week, April 3-5, in honor of Holy Week. Please check out the Holy Week schedule on the parish website or in the Bulletin and plan join us for the holy liturgies.
- Monday RE families: Please note that we DO have class on April 10 even though District 308 is off that day.

Purpose and Plan

As Jesus taught and slowly revealed His true identity and ultimate plan, He also shared that the Holy Spirit would come to help His followers. Though we are far removed in time from the first disciples, we too are called to listen and live according to God's will. We are "in the spirit, if only the Spirit of God dwells in you." Students, you are always invited to ask questions, share doubts, and be real with your thoughts so that you can grow and learn like the disciples. Everything we do here has purpose to help you be more open to the Holy Spirit moving in your heart as you prepare your yes to be sealed with Holy Spirit at Confirmation.

DASH 1: We will see everyone back on campus the week of April 10 (Monday groups ARE on campus even though you aren't in school). It will be time to start discussing the 4th theme of our kerygma tree – responding to Jesus's death and resurrection.

DASH 2: Enjoy spring break! Feel free to go ahead and complete any/all assignments with The Chosen early so your April is more open to enjoy the outdoors.

DASH 3: Lazarus was in the tomb for 4 days, and you are "off" now for a month, 4 weeks. Enjoy spring break, completing anything needed (saint report) and finishing up your Discipleship Project. When we return, it is "go time" with the Holy Spirit and summing up your journey to this point.

The Hour of Our Death | Eternal Rest | Episode 3

The Anointing of the Sick is one of the seven sacraments of the Church. This session, we discover the role of this sacramental anointing in the spiritual struggle during serious illness, the final stages of our temporal life, and the hour of our death.

The Paschal Mystery: The Mystery of Jesus' Death

Through Jesus's Death on the Cross, God reveals himself most profoundly as the God who is love. Christ's sacrificial love saves us from sin and shows us the pathway to true human happiness. We are made to live like Christ: in total, self-giving love.

Living Lent as a Family (Part 4 of 4)

Dr. Ben Akers sits down with Kevin and Lisa Cotter to discuss liturgical living during Lent as a family. They discuss together about a variety of topics, including having a prayer space in the home and decorating the home according to the liturgical season.

MISSION STATEMENT

Learn, Live and Nurture –

Learn the Faith, Live the Faith and Nurture the Faith

As a welcoming Catholic community, we strive to be disciples of Jesus glorifying His true presence in the Eucharist. Just as St. Anne was called by God, we are called as faithful witnesses to celebrate the Sacraments, honor traditions and nurture the family by studying, praying and proclaiming the Good News through service and evangelization.
