A NOTE FROM FATHER EICKHOFF

You will recall from the Passion Narrative on Palm Sunday the charge laid against Jesus when He was questioned before the Sanhedrin.

""Finally two came forward who stated, "This man said, 'I can destroy the temple of God and within three days rebuild it.'"

In ancient times throughout the Middle East the belief among peoples was that their gods actually dwelt in the temples that human beings built for them. The statues of their various deities were not just artistic accomplishments or adornments for the temple. Rather, the statues were tangible representations of the physical presence of their gods present in the temple and in their cities. Now, the Israelites were fully aware that the One, True God did not physically dwell in the Temple of Jerusalem. Nor, did the God of All Creation need or desire a statue in the Temple to be a representation of His physical presence. In fact, we have a historical account from when the Romans first came to Jerusalem in the years before Jesus of their amazement that there was no statue of God in the Temple of Jerusalem. Although God did not physically live in the Temple, His presence can be said to have been most keenly felt in the Temple. For it was in the Temple that God's people came to have their most important encounters with God and the Temple was the center of worship for the Jewish people.

Thus, Jesus' statement that He could destroy the Temple and rebuild it in three days was deeply distressing to His detractors. However, we know that Jesus, the Son of God, did not mean to destroy the Temple and leave His people without a means to truly encounter God. Rather, the temple made of stone has been replaced by the very body of Jesus Christ. Jesus Christ who died and three days later was raised to life is the Temple of God. The Holy Eucharist, which is the Body and Blood of Jesus, is the means by which disciples of God most fully encounter God. The Holy Eucharist is the means by which God's presence within us and within the world is most keenly experienced and felt. Thanks to the gift to God's people of the Holy Eucharist it is not necessary to make a long journey to a specific place such as Jerusalem to fully encounter God. Instead, wherever and whenever the Holy Mass is celebrated and the Body and Blood and Jesus Christ is made present to us there is God fully present and there we fully encounter God.

Yours in Christ,

Fr. Stephen Eickhoff Pastor

Help us write our 75th anniversary prayer!

The Diocese of Joliet will celebrate its 75th anniversary on December 11, 2024, and we want you to help write the official anniversary prayer.

The theme of the yearlong celebration beginning in December 2023 is "Founded in Faith, Called to Witness, Sent Forth to Serve." We are asking that everyone join in this creative exercise to craft language for a prayer that can be easily prayed aloud in a group setting. The anniversary prayer will be translated into the various languages found in the diocese, so feel free to write your prayer in your native language.

This is a perfect project for religious education and Catholic school students, parents and parish organizations. Fire up your laptops and tablets or sharpen your pencils, and then call upon the Holy Spirit for inspiration in creating poetic anniversary prose.

Send your prayers to Sr. Sharon Stola, OSB, at the Office of Divine Worship at sstola@dioceseofjoliet.org or c/o the Blanchette Catholic Center, 16555 Weber Road, Crest Hill, IL 60403 by June 1, 2023. Include your name, address, phone number, email address and name of parish or institution. The 75th anniversary committee will look to your submissions for guidance in writing the prayer.

Bishop Hicks' Column

April 2023: The Chrism Mass: A Call to Newness of Life

By the time you are reading this article, we will probably have already celebrated Palm Sunday, Holy Week, the Triduum and Easter Sunday. During that holy and busy week in the Catholic Church, there is a beautiful, albeit sometimes overshadowed, Mass we celebrate called the "Chrism Mass." Here in the Diocese of Joliet, we gather for it each year on the Monday after Palm Sunday, and I would like to share with you why I love it so much.

During this joyous and powerful celebration, there are two additional parts that are included in the Mass. The first one is the "Renewal of Priestly Promises." Immediately after the homily, the priests all stand and the bishop begins to address them with these words: "Beloved sons, on the anniversary of that day when Christ our Lord conferred his priesthood on his Apostles and on us, are you resolved to renew, in the presence of your Bishop and God's holy people, the promises you once made? This year at the Chrism Mass, as I listened to the priests renewing their promises with zeal and courage, I felt a deep sense of unity with them and gratitude for them. I also thanked God not only for their original "Yes" to the priesthood, but also for publicly reaffirming their commitment throughout all the ups and downs of the journey.

The second additional part is the "Presentation of the Oils." The Oil of the Sick and the Oil of Catechumens are first presented and blessed. Then the Chrism oil is presented to the bishop. Right before the bishop consecrates it, he pours the 'chrism essence' into the container and stirs the oil, then he literally breathes upon it, recalling when Jesus breathed on his disciples after the resurrection, thus sending the Holy Spirit. (John 20:22)

I love that after this Mass, representatives from each of our parishes and various institutions receive a box containing the newly blessed Oils and return to their parishes with these Holy Oils. On Holy Thursday, these Holy Oils are presented in all of our parishes at the beginning of the Mass of the Lord's Supper. These Holy Oils are used throughout the year for the Sacraments of the Anointing of the Sick, Baptism, Confirmation, Holy Orders, and in the dedication of a new church and/or a new Altar.

Immediately after the blessing of the new Oils at the Chrism Mass, we turn to the Liturgy of the Eucharist as the gifts of bread and wine are presented with this prayer over the offerings, "May the power of this sacrifice, O Lord we pray, mercifully wipe away what is old in us and increase in us grace of salvation and newness of life." It strikes me that the Chrism Mass magnifies this newness of life through Christ our Lord as the priests renew their promises and as the people bring back the new holy oils to their parishes. This newness of life was celebrated in your parish on Easter Sunday and these Holy Oils will be used in your parish and ministries in the year ahead to renew us in our lives.

After the Chrism Mass, as I exited the Cathedral and I was walking through the parking lot, I noticed a small group of people who had also attended the Mass. They were walking to their car, gently carrying the newly blessed Holy Oils almost like parents carrying a new-born baby into the house for the first time. I was delighted by their care and attention.

They told me that they had driven to the Cathedral from Kankakee. One of the women then said, "Bishop, I felt like I won the golden ticket when I was asked to represent my parish at this Mass today. It was just splendid! And it reminded me that our diocese is a lot bigger than just my parish. It felt good to worship with the larger Church today."

As I started my car, I thought about her comment. Sometimes, we might think that the Church is only as big as our experience in our own local parish. We can easily get focused on just our own personal communities, realities, needs and issues. And yet, we are a large and diverse diocese made up of many people from various demographics and locations with a wide variety of opinions and points of view. Through it all, part of the beauty of what makes us "Catholic" is that amid our diversity and individual parish experiences, we are also united in Christ. And yet together, wholeheartedly, we all believe that salvation is only through, with and in Him.

So, as I drove home from the Chrism Mass with a smile on my face, I spontaneously uttered a prayer of thanksgiving to God for all of the laity, religious women and men, deacons and priests across our diocese, and for the newness of life that we share, united through Christ, our Lord.

K-5 Family Scripture Connection

Have you ever heard the phrase, "Seeing is believing?" It means that we only believe that something exists or is real if we can see it. But in the Gospel for this 2nd Sunday of Easter, Jesus is asking us to believe in Him without seeing Him. We cannot touch the nail marks and wounds on Jesus like Thomas did, but we are asked to believe that Jesus really did rise from the dead. Believe! This is what faith is all about. Without "proof," we trust that God is real, that He loves us so much that He sent his Son, that Jesus suffered and died to forgive our sins, and that He rose again to new life. The good news is that we do not have to believe all on our own. The peace of the Holy Spirit is with us! Alleluia! Jesus is truly risen! I believe!

K-5 Schedule

We have classes as usual for the next four weeks. The last week of classes will be May 8-10.

First Holy Communion News

This year, we have 87 children who will receive their First Communion on Saturday, April 29. Please keep them in your prayers as they participate in tours of the Church during their regular class time this week, April 17-19, complete the last of their Nourish family gatherings at home, and prepare to receive Jesus in the Eucharist for the first time!
