A NOTE FROM FATHER EICKHOFF

If I asked you to recite a "Christian prayer" I have no doubt that you would immediately begin with the words "Our Father, who art in heaven, hallowed be thy name." The Our Father is the first prayer we learn as children, and it is the prayer that we hold in common with our fellow Christians throughout the world. The question that might be put to you upon hearing that opening line is what does it mean to "hallow the name of the Father?"

Normally when we hear the word "hallow" we equate it with the words "bless" or "sanctify." We often think of using these words in the sense of adding blessing to something or someone. Yet, this meaning does not work with God. It is a certainty that we human beings cannot add anything to the perfection, glory, holiness, and majesty of God. God is already infinitely perfect, holy, glorious, and majestic. What we can do is to acknowledge the fact God is indeed these things by living our lives in a manner worthy of being called children of God. St. Peter in today's Second Reading calls every Christian to do this when he writes:

"but sanctify Christ as Lord in your hearts."

In other words the best way to "hallow the name of the Father" is to act as Christ acted and to live as Christ lived. If we proclaim that "Jesus Christ is Lord," but then fail to live our lives in accordance with His teaching and example then those words are just a slogan (a true slogan mind you, but not one we have fully put into effect). However, if we both proclaim "Jesus Christ is Lord" in word and in the manner of our lives then we are truly, really placing Christ foremost in our heart and mind. We are in effect saying to ourselves, to the world, and to God "I know and believe that Jesus Christ is the Son of God, the Lord of Creation, and that His way of life is the path that I wish to follow." This commitment gives glory and praise to God and is the best way for us as disciples of Christ to "hallow the name of the Father."

Yours in Christ,

Fr. Stephen Eickhoff
Pastor

K-5 Family Scripture Connection

The scripture readings for this 6th Sunday of Easter are all about being happy. This is not the kind of happiness that comes from having lots of friends, being a sports star, or being rich. It is the kind of true happiness that only comes from being a child of God! The Psalm talks about crying out to God with joy and the 2nd Reading speaks of having a reason for our hope. The Gospel explains WHY we have joy and hope. Jesus tells us that He will not abandon us. He will give us an Advocate to be with us always – the Holy Spirit! We are joyful because Jesus has risen from the dead, saving us from sin so that we can have eternal life. We have hope because the Holy Spirit will always be with us to guide us and fill us with the love of God.

What's Next?

- We are now finished with RE/DASH classes for the 2022-2023 year. We hope to begin registration for the 2023-2024 year sometime in June. Details and dates will be sent to current RE/DASH families via email and will be published here for new families.
- It is never too early to prayerfully consider volunteering as a catechist, aide, or safety monitor in the RE/DASH program. Contact Cathy or Julie for more information about how you can help.
- If you are interested in Vacation Bible School (VBS) for your children or as a volunteer, mark your calendars for July 24-27 from 9:00AM to Noon. More details will be coming soon!

God gifts

During one of the last DASH 1 sessions, students were taught the 10-finger prayer. Left hand, 5 times say and complete the sentence: "I praise you God for..." and right hand, 5 times say and complete the sentence "God help me, or someone, with..." We need to practice how to see God and name His love in our lives and call upon Him for help. Today everyone can praise God for their gift of life from their mother. And, like Jesus spoke in the Gospel "if you love me, you will keep my commandments," if you love your mom, listen to her, respect what she says and ask you to do.

It's official, the DASH 2022-2023 year is complete for on campus work. Those in DASH 2 that aren't complete with things in Google Classroom, this is the week to finish everything.

Check your email for information coming to apply to be a VBS youth leader. And, for any possible fun events for JH youth that may be offered this summer.

Bishop Hicks' Column

May 2023:

Calling Joyful Shepherds

This year we will ordain five new priests for the Diocese of Joliet. While this quantity is outstanding, so is their quality. These five men are young, intelligent, faith filled, pastoral and enthusiastic, and they all strive for holiness. They easily could have followed one of many good and exciting career paths offered by the world. Counterculturally, they heard the call of the Lord and responded by choosing to follow the call to the vocation of ordained priesthood.

We are blessed in the Diocese of Joliet to have 23 seminarians studying for the priesthood. However, we cannot rest on our laurels. Encouraging young men to consider the priesthood is the responsibility of the entire people of God.

The question becomes, "How do we invite and encourage others to discern a life to the priesthood or religious life?" Most of us, I hope, feel comfortable praying for vocations and donating to our Seminarian Endowment Fund to help cover the costs of seminarian formation. However, when it comes to proactively inviting others to it, we can become tongue-tied and need help as to what we should say and do.

For that reason, I just recently sent an inspiring little book to all the priests in the Diocese of Joliet called, "Five Conversations about the Priesthood," by Father Michael Pratt. Studies show that the local priest is one of the most influential factors for their parishioners discerning a vocation to the priesthood or religious life. This book provides a simple and solid roadmap to intentionally encourage others to discern a priestly vocation.

Father Pratt's book gives five practical ways to talk about the following:

1. Priestly identity.
2. The Eucharist in the priest's life.
3. The Sacrament of Penance.
4. Preaching.
5. Parish priesthood.

While this book is geared to our priests, you might also want to consider reading it. A quick internet search of the title, or a visit to <https://vianneyvocations.com> will provide ordering instructions.

Just about all recently ordained priests throughout the country commonly report one of the reasons they took the leap of faith to actively discern the priesthood and to enter the seminary is that someone specifically invited them to do so. Just one voice has the power to break through all their doubts, fears and negative messaging about becoming a priest. My hope is that before we approach eternal life, we will be able to name someone specifically that we encouraged to discern the priesthood or religious life.

This may be hard to believe, but there are many parents who explicitly discourage their sons from considering the priesthood. While some parents claim it is because they want grandchildren or because they want their son to pursue a more prestigious profession and make a lot of money, the most common factor for their lack of support is because they think their son will be unhappy as a priest. Most parents' greatest desire is for their children to be happy. If they think that priesthood is the road to unhappiness, then they tend to actively discourage the possibility of it.

Most studies reveal that priests are happy. While there are exceptions to this rule, most of us know many happy and well-adjusted priests. I, for example, empathically declare that as I celebrate 29 years of priesthood, I am happy! I say so without being naïve or sugarcoating the challenges. The priesthood, like all vocations, comes with an experience of suffering. But these moments of the cross also lead us through and to the joy of the resurrection.

In 2010, after completing five-years of living and working in El Salvador, I spoke with Cardinal George in eager anticipation of my next assignment. I clearly remember him saying to me, "Fr. Ron, I am assigning you to Mundelein Seminary to be the Dean of Formation." Quickly brushing off my initial shock, I responded, "Well, thank you for that assignment. You know that I am obedient and will go wherever you send me. However, after spending five years in Central America and becoming fluent in Spanish, why are not sending me to be a pastor in a large, Hispanic parish, and instead sending me to the Major Seminary?" His answer surprised me, "Fr. Ron, you are a joyful priest...and the seminarians need to see your joy."

As we give thanks for our five new priests, please join me in expressing my gratitude to the priests in the Diocese of Joliet. With them, let us all strive to joyfully and intentionally encourage others to consider a vocation to the priesthood or religious life. To learn about priestly vocations and also for ways to encourage them, please go to our website at www.diojoliet.org/vocations or contact our Office of Vocations at 815-221-6171.

If there is anyone at home who cannot get to Mass and the Sacraments because of illness or age, please call the parish office at anytime to request the Sacrament of the Anointing of the Sick.

O.C.I.A. (Order of Christian Initiation of Adults)

Those interested in becoming Catholic or in learning more about the Catholic faith meet weekly. Call the parish office or e-mail rcia@stanneparish.org for more information.

STEWARDSHIP PARISH

We are a stewardship parish. This means that every parishioner with an income is asked to use a Sunday envelope, since we expect to meet our needs from the one collection at the Presentation of the Gifts.

NEW PARISHIONERS

All new families are warmly welcomed to Saint Anne Parish and we ask that you register your family through our website at <http://stanneparish.org/registration-form/>.

BULLETIN DEADLINE

Bulletin articles are due into the parish office by 10:00 AM Thursday, 10 days before the Sunday you wish the article to appear. Please email your copy to stanne@stanneparish.org using Microsoft WORD.
