The Eucharistic Miracles OF THE WORLD

Bois-Seigneur-Isaac
1413

Lanciano
750

In the entire history of the Catholic Church, there have been numerous Eucharistic miracles approved by the Catholic Church as truly worthy of belief. The Vatican Eucharistic Miracles Photographic Exhibition faithfully recounts many well-documented miraculous occurrences for us. Knowledge of these miracles strengthens our faith in Christ and His Church.

They are visible proof of Jesus Christ's Real Presence in the Holy Eucharist. The Exhibit was created by Blessed Carlo Acutis, a 15-year-old from Milan, Italy, who was beatified on October 10, 2020.

The Exhibit will be available for viewing at St. Anne Parish, Oswego, IL in Joachim Center-Anniversary Hall

Friday, November 17 from 9am - 12pm; 4 - 7pm

Saturday, November 18 from 4pm - 7pm

Sunday, November 19 from 8am - 1pm

We highly encourage you to make the time in your schedule to view the exhibit during this Year of the Eucharistic Revival.

Carlo's exhibition presents a selection of the main Eucharistic Miracles which occurred over the centuries in various countries that are recognized by the Church. There are about 158 miracles collected, each on a 2' x 3' laminated panel. Through these panels you can "virtually visit" the places where the miracles happened.

Please join us as we present the photographic display of the Eucharistic Miracles of the World. Panels are displayed in an art gallery setting that allows for a virtual tour of over 150 miracles from 22 countries.

A NOTE FROM FATHER EICKHOFF

Last week I wrote about some of the practical aspects of the return of the Precious Blood of Christ to Holy Communion at the weekend Masses. This week I want to mention some of the more spiritual aspects of the Precious Blood of Christ. Please note that this is only one of the many aspects of the Holy Eucharist. To describe all the effects of the Holy Eucharist would take a much, much longer bulletin article.

We often refer to Jesus Christ as the "Lamb of God;" but do we spend much time thinking about what this phrase means? The Holy Mass deliberately references the sacrifice of Our Lord and Savior upon the cross which occurred during the Feast of Passover. This feast which was (and remains) one of the most important Jewish feasts recalls the last and most terrible of God's display of power in Egypt prior to the Exodus of the Israelite people. During this moment of God's might every firstborn male – both man and beast – was slain except those of the Israelites. The Israelites, who had been forewarned by God through Moses, had prepared for this moment and for their coming flight into the desert by preparing unleavened bread and slaying and cooking a lamb for food for their upcoming journey. The blood of the lamb was marked on the doorposts of their dwellings as a sign that God's own people dwelt inside, and that the destroying angel of God was to "Passover" this house instead killing every firstborn male inside. Thus, the Israelite people would be saved.

During the Mass, at the moment of the consecration of the wine into the Precious Blood; the Blood of Jesus Christ, who is the Lamb of God, becomes truly real and present to us. This is in effect the same blood of the lamb that was marked on the doorposts of the Israelite people as a sign that the destroying angel was to spare the people inside from God's wrath and justice. When we at Holy Communion receive the Body and Blood of Jesus Christ as part of the action which occurs is that we are being marked as belonging to God so that we might be spared from the dreadful wrath of God that is the natural result of our sins. Please note that this is not the only effect the Holy Eucharist has on us. We are also being inwardly transformed by the power of the Eucharist to become more like Jesus Christ so that we might not need God's mercy as much to escape the effects of our sins, since with God's grace and our cooperation with that grace we will not sin as much or as gravely. When we say "amen" to the words "the Body of Christ or the Blood of Christ" we are saying in effect that we believe that this is truly the Lamb of God who has the power to save us from our sins.

Having written about the Holy Eucharist I want to encourage you to attend the exhibit that our parish will be hosting this Friday through Sunday (November 17-19) that describes some of the miracles that are connected to the Body and Blood of Jesus Christ in the Eucharist. You can find more details in the bulletin. The exhibit will be open before and after the weekend Masses so please plan on coming early or staying late and attending the exhibit.

Yours in Christ,

Fr. Stephen Eickhoff
Pastor

THE 2023 CATHOLIC MINISTRIES ANNUAL APPEAL IS NOW UNDERWAY

Pledge your gift to the CMAA

If you have already pledged your support to the Catholic Ministries Annual Appeal, THANK YOU! If we all participate, we can meet our parish's CMAA goal of $109,300.00. Each and every gift, large or small, makes a difference. To date we have received pledges totally $131,632.00 with $124,327.00 made towards pledges.

If you have not yet made your pledge, it's not too late. Please prayerfully reflect on how you can best support the CMAA this year and ensure all in our Diocese know that we belong to God. There are many options for giving, from pledging to monthly recurring gifts. Pledge envelopes are still available in the literature racks, or you can return the pledge card you received in the mail from the Diocese or make a gift online at jolietdioceseappeal.org.

Remember, if we raise more than our goal, the Diocese will return to us 70 percent of the amount over goal. This is an amazing opportunity for our parish.

K-5 Family Scripture Connection

The Gospel for this 32nd Sunday in Ordinary Time is all about being prepared. Who are we preparing for? GOD! When should we prepare? NOW! How do we prepare? PRAY and LOVE OTHERS! One of the best ways we can prepare our hearts for God is to be in relationship (friendship) with Him. It's hard to be friends with someone we never talk to, so it's important that we talk to God in prayer every day.

K-5 Schedule

RE classes for grades K-5 are in session as usual this week, November 13-15. The 2nd grade students will participate in a tour of the Reconciliation Rooms during their regular class time. Parents are welcome but not required to participate in the tour. There are no classes the following week on Wednesday, November 22 due to the Thanksgiving holiday.

Teen SPICE & Beyond

All teens and young adults with special needs (and their parents) are welcome to join us on Saturday, November 18 from 3:00 to 4:30 PM to learn about Blessed Carlo Acutis and take part in the Eucharistic Miracles Exhibit.

Preparing for the Eucharistic Miracle Exhibit

A question on a DASH 3 assignment asks: Do you think you, as a teen, can affect the faith of an adult? Some say no way, I'm too young and not wise enough; while others think it might be possible. Read a (youth friendly) interview with the mom of Blessed Carlo <https://blog.holyheroes.com/an-interview-with-the-mother-of-bl-carlo-acutis/>

Learn about the International Eucharistic Miracles exhibition, conceived and designed by Blessed Carlo Acutis at: MiracoliEucaristici.org

This fact is worth pondering. Carlo, at age eleven, was a catechist. He knew his faith that well. And, per his mom: "if Carlo had not had this experience of being a catechist, he would not have had this intuition to create these exhibits on Eucharistic Miracles. He felt the need to do this to re-activate the faith in people."

To all our DASH youth and high school students serving as aides, and a few as leaders for younger grades, thank you! You never know how God will use a simple service project to change the world.

If you didn't do this last week, it is also worth going deeper into this topic. Through YouTube, type in: The INDREDIBLE Details of Eucharistic Miracles w/Fr. Robert Spitzer (34minutes) and listen to this great presentation about the depth of miracles before you view them!

DASH 2 We have consistency this month, you meet today (November 12) and again next week. Then you are off until December when you also come 3 weeks in a row!

Blessing of St. Francis Xavier Statue

DECEMBER 3, 2023
1 P.M.

Blanchette Catholic Center
16555 Weber Rd., Crest Hill

On the Feast of St. Francis Xavier, and the final day of the Novena of Grace, a statue of the saint will be blessed at the BCC. The statue will serve as a constant reminder of the patron saint of our diocese. Bishop Hicks will bless the statue at 1 p.m. that day, in an open ceremony so that all may witness this moving event.

COMMEMORATING 75 YEARS OF CATECHESIS,
EVANGELIZATION AND SERVICE

Novena of Grace with St. Francis Xavier

From November 25 through December 3, 2023, members of our diocese will have the opportunity to participate in a nine-day novena of prayer to St. Francis Xavier, the patron of the Diocese of Joliet.

DAY 1 NOVEMBER 25

Lord, each day you give me new life, new graces, new opportunities to feel your presence. Give me the gift of attentiveness to notice you in the people and your creation which surround my life; that I may grow in faith, and hope, and love. Amen.

DAY 2 NOVEMBER 26

Father, each day you show me the love of a parent for its child: watchful of my every step, eager for me to thrive; you delight in my happiness and console me in my sadness. May the constant love in which you enfold me give me the confidence to show that same love to friend and foe, family and stranger, alike. Through Christ our Lord. Amen.

DAY 3 NOVEMBER 27

Father, you speak to me in the silence and in the empty spaces of my life. Give me ears to hear your voice in stillness and in the gentle breeze; eyes to see your presence in things that seem so insignificant at the time. Free me from the relentless whirl of activity, from the obsessions which limit me and snatch away my freedom to answer your call. Like St Francis, may I too become a pilgrim, called to walk the path you set before me, wherever it may lead but always safe in the knowledge that Christ walks beside me unseen. Amen.

DAY 4 NOVEMBER 28

Lord, before I ever came into being you knew me and loved me. You have knit me together the way I am, and given me life and laughter, friends and the faces of kind strangers, and a world of wonder and new discovery. Grant me the freedom and the courage to discover you anew each day in the people I meet, in the places I go, in the sounds I hear and the things I see. Through Christ our Lord. Amen.

DAY 5 NOVEMBER 29

Lord Jesus, it is so easy to be tempted as you were tempted in the desert; to make poor decisions for quick gains and satisfaction; to turn the wonderful gifts of your generosity towards unworthy and selfish ends. Give me, day by day, the same Spirit of strength with which you faced down those desert temptations of power, wealth and honour; that my desires and motives, my words and actions, may always be for the greater glory of God, my Lord. Amen.

DAY 6 NOVEMBER 30

Father, as I look back on this day, there are so many teeming thoughts, such a babble of words, and such a blur of activity, that it is difficult to see your gentle and faithful presence amid it all. Show yourself to me today, and every day. Amen.

DAY 7 DECEMBER 1

God our Father, praise to you! I am surrounded by so many good people, if only I take the time to notice: people who speak your word of compassion and kindness; people who act to give reality to your justice and reconciliation; people whose lives are good seed growing in rich soil. Give me, too, the grace to live in your Spirit, and to be your presence for those I meet as I go about the business of my day. Amen.

DAY 8 DECEMBER 2

Father, you are entire goodness and you are goodness for me. Creator of all things, who hold all things in being for me, give me faith in you and in myself, your creation. Amen.

DAY 9 DECEMBER 3

God our Father, as St Francis Xavier travelled to the ends of the earth, impelled by love of Christ and afire with his good news, give me the trust and the grace to base all that I do entirely on you, safe in the knowledge that you raise up the lowly and fill them with good things. Through Christ our Lord. Amen.
