A NOTE FROM FATHER EICKHOFF

There is a good piece of advice that everyone should take regarding the news media. First, read or listen to the news concerning a topic that you are very familiar with. Second, notice how badly the reporter understands and conveys to the public the topic you know well. Third, realize that most reporters and journalists have the same lack of knowledge or understanding about topics you don't know well. Fourth, have a healthy caution concerning the validity about anything you read or hear in the news media. This piece of advice is especially true about anything you read or hear in the news media concerning the Catholic Church. The vast majority of reporters and journalists have little knowledge about the Catholic Church and therefore make some mind-numbing mistakes in their news stories.

It is important to keep this in mind when reading news reports about the recent document entitled "Fiducia Supplicans" released by the Dicastery for the Doctrine of the Faith (a part of the governing structure of the Catholic Church) and approved by Pope Francis concerning the nature of blessings and whether persons in same sex civil unions can have their "marriages" blessed in the Catholic Church. In many news reports the headlines stated that the Catholic Church was now allowing priests to bless same sex "marriages." That is not what the document stated. Instead, the document made a distinction between what we might call "everyday blessings," impromptu blessings requested by a person or persons to a priest; and "formal blessings," which take place in a liturgical setting, and which bestow legitimacy upon a person or situation. In the first example "everyday blessings" cover situations such as asking a priest to bless someone who is recovering after surgery or for a safe trip. In the second example, "formal blessings" cover such cases as marriage in the Church. The document repeated the Church's teaching that a situation that is inherently liturgically invalid (such as a same sex union) cannot be blessed in the Church. However, anyone regardless of their current state of moral rectitude, may rightly request an "everyday blessing" from the Church and its ministers for cases that do not confer legitimacy upon immoral situations. The document points out that God's mercy and compassion are for all persons including and especially sinners - a fact that all of us should be grateful for since we are all sinners in some fashion - and that God does not only give His blessings to the morally upright. In granting "everyday" blessings to persons who are in sinful situations a greater good may result since God's blessings often work to encourage a sinful person to abandon his sinful ways to draw closer to the goodness of God.

In other words, should two persons in a same sex civil union approach me as a priest and ask for a blessing upon their "marriage" before they leave on a beach vacation, I would have to refuse their request to bless their civil union in the church. On the other hand, I could bless them to have a safe trip so that they are not eaten by sharks while at the beach.

Yours in Christ,

Fr. Stephen Eickhoff
Pastor

THE 2024 CATHOLIC MINISTRIES ANNUAL APPEAL HAS BEGUN!

As the Diocese of Joliet launches the 2024 Catholic Ministries Annual Appeal (CMAA), we are humbly asking all parishioners to pledge their support for this important effort, as together we can make a profound difference.

This year's CMAA theme is For the Glory of God. Through our support, we ensure that the mission and ministries of Christ's Church are available to everyone. Together, we can help provide safe shelter for the homeless, feed the physical and social needs of those who are hungry, inspire those discerning a life of vocation, and aid in the education of our next generation of Catholics. Our parish could not accomplish all of this on its own, but together through the appeal we can do so much more.

Our parish's goal for the 2024 CMAA is $105,700.00 and 70 percent of any amount we raise over our goal will be returned to us and used fruitfully within our own parish. Please review the materials you receive in the mail from the Diocese of Joliet this month and prayerfully reflect on your gift to this year's annual appeal. Last year we received $16,935.00 back due to your generosity.

If you do not receive a CMAA mailing, please contact the parish office. Thank you!

TUTOR VOLUNTEERS NEEDED Dominican Literacy Center

The Dominican Literacy Center in Aurora, celebrating its 30th year, has just received The Best Practices Award from the National Library of Congress. The Center will be training new tutor volunteers for its literacy program in January.

Female volunteers (with high school diploma) are trained to help women students learn to read, write, and speak English. Tutoring sessions are 90 minutes, once a week, from September to May, at 260 Vermont St., Aurora (behind St. Therese Church). Tutors do not need to speak Spanish or have teaching experience, but all volunteers must attend 7 hours of training in addition to viewing several training videos online.

The next training date is Saturday, January 20, from 9:00 AM to 3:30 PM. Tutors will begin with their new student the following week.

To volunteer, email Alison Brzezinski at Alison@dominicanliteracycenter.org.

K-5 Family Scripture Connection

In the First Reading for this 2nd Sunday in Ordinary Time, we hear the story of Samuel. The Lord called to Samuel in his sleep and at first, Samuel didn't realize that it was God speaking to him. He needed Eli's help to recognize the Lord's voice. The next time God called to Samuel he answered, "Speak, for your servant is listening." Because Samuel listened, the Lord was with him as he grew up. Do you need help to hear God's voice? Do you truly listen to God when he calls to you? What is God's message for you this week?

K-5 Schedule

This week, there are no classes on Monday, January 15 in honor of Martin Luther King Day but classes will meet on the 16th and 17th. The following three weeks, classes will meet as usual.

Here I Am Lord

In our lives it is hard to say we will do anything other than what we want and best fits our schedule. What does it mean, then, to be like Samuel and say, "Here I am Lord, I come to do Your will?" When we say yes to God, to allowing His Spirit to work in us, we give Him the key to our heart – open access to everything. As we venture further into this new year, can you say, "Here I am" and give Jesus Christ permission to enter? Those in DASH 2 wait for The Chosen Season 1 Episode 2 to have a concrete image of letting Jesus into your home! And DASH 3 be open to the journey ahead to dive deeper into your relationship with Jesus this semester.

DASH 1: Monday groups are off tomorrow (though a movie was assigned). Tuesday and Wednesday groups will meet!

DASH 2: Parents were emailed a reminder to get into Google Classroom. Your online work begins January 21.

DASH 3: Our first all group session is next week, on Sunday, January 21 from 5:00-7:00 PM! Make sure all calendar dates are already on your phone.

Next Youth Group: Friday, February 9, 2024 (off site!)

God's Doorkeeper: St. André of Montreal

This week, we celebrate the memorial of a humble doorkeeper, St. André of Montreal. Learn how this man became a great saint through his small acts of love!

The Bible Collection - Genesis

Experience the epic tale of creation in this Christian anthology that details the stories of Adam and Eve, Cain and Abel, and Noah and the Ark.

Padre Pio: Between Heaven and Earth

Based on the historical records and the personal testimony of his fellow friars, this is the amazing true story of the life of the famous stigmatic monk, St. Padre Pio, a contemporary saint who died in 1968. Blessed with incredible spiritual gifts, including healing, bi-location, reading of souls, and the stigmatic wounds, Padre Pio was a powerful witness for Christ, and a great spiritual guide to countless souls for over fifty years.

ST. VINCENT DE PAUL SOCIETY GOSPEL REFLECTION

In the Gospel today, Jesus asks, "What are you looking for?" Often, we are looking for happiness in very selfish ways. But we find that when we look for ways to make others happy, that is when we become truly happy.

You may have read about the horrible fire in West Chicago a few weeks back when a 100 people were displaced and left homeless. When a catastrophe such as that occurs in our area, many organizations, both government and volunteer, help. And that includes The Society of St. Vincent de Paul.

These unfortunate souls had nothing left but what they were wearing. Tables were set up by several organizations to give advice and help. One table was manned by volunteers from St. Anne. A grant of $5000 was issued from St. Vincent de Paul's national organization to use for gift cards to help these unfortunates establish a foothold. The St. Vincent de Paul store was made available, and a Basic Needs Form allowed each family to receive three outfits per person. This clothing came from donations made during our clothing drives. It's yet another way where we present God's love to our neighbor and bring some happiness to a tragic circumstance.

PEACE and JUSTICE : PRISONER ALERT!
Please Pray for this Persecuted Christian

- Pastor Wang Yi is the influential leader of Early Rain Covenant Church in the city of Chengdu, Sichuan province - one of the best-known house churches in China. He and his wife, Jiang Rong, were detained in December 2018 and charged with "inciting subversion of state power" and "illegal business operations."
- A former law professor, Pastor Wang has been vocal in calling on the state to uphold religious liberties. Early Rain Covenant Church had been under pressure from the authorities for some time but matters escalated on Dec. 9, 2018. That night and the next day, police raided church members' homes and arrested them. By the end of the week, about 150 church leaders and seminary students were in police custody, and the church had been forcibly closed.
- Early Rain may have been targeted because of its open approach to church mission, which included posting sermons online and street evangelism. The church also ran a Bible school for about 100 students and had a primary school. Its meetings around the city regularly attracted more than 800 people each week. Pastor Wang himself has been a prominent campaigner for greater religious freedom. In 2018, he wrote a declaration signed by hundreds of Chinese pastors, which includes a statement of Christian beliefs and a call for an end to persecution; it also recognizes the Chinese government's authority. Many of those in China who have signed the 'Declaration for the Sake of the Christian Faith' have suffered persecution since.
- None of his close associates are certain where Wang Yi is being held, since officials have not released that information, and Wang Yi's chosen lawyers were prevented from either seeing him or working on his case. The provided address is one of the locations where he could likely be held.
- According to Pastor Wang Yi's lawyer, the Presbyterian pastor will not appeal his nine-year prison sentence he received at trial. Instead, he will serve it in full. His lawyer said, "God is continuing his ministry ... by moving him from the courtroom to prison." Continue to pray for him and his family.

Please pray for this Persecuted Christian. The power of prayer can work miracles. More information about what we can do and about others being persecuted is available at www.prisoneralert.com.

Mission Trip
June 1 to 14, 2024

The Diocese of Joliet will return to Navajo Nation for a two-week mission focused on construction and outreach from June 1 to 14, 2024.

The Diocese of Joliet has been putting faith into action—through intentional service and solidarity with the poor—in Chinle, Arizona, for 20 years.

The Office of Mission is seeking parishioners (18+) willing to help local area families with light construction work. No experience is necessary, but a heart willing to serve is required! Missionaries stay on the campus of Our Lady of Fatima, and the trip will include a pilgrimage to New Mexico's Loretto Chapel and its "miraculous staircase."

An informational meeting on the mission trip will be held at 7 p.m. on Wednesday, January 17, 2024, at the Blanchette Catholic Center in Crest Hill (16555 Weber Road).

MISSION STATEMENT

Learn, Live and Nurture –

Learn the Faith, Live the Faith and Nurture the Faith

As a welcoming Catholic community, we strive to be disciples of Jesus glorifying His true presence in the Eucharist. Just as St. Anne was called by God, we are called as faithful witnesses to celebrate the Sacraments, honor traditions and nurture the family by studying, praying and proclaiming the Good News through service and evangelization.

SACRAMENT OF BAPTISM

Baptisms are generally held the 1st and 3rd Sundays of the month (some months this may vary) at 12:30 PM. Expectant parents are to call the Parish Office, six months before the birth of their child for preparation information. Please do not choose Godparents until you receive the established Church guidelines for Godparents.

SACRAMENT OF MARRIAGE

Couples seeking the Sacrament of Marriage should call the parish office at least six months before the date of marriage. A wedding date may not be secured until meeting with the parish Deacon or Priest. At that time, the couple will be secured a date and begin the process of preparation for the Sacrament of Marriage.

SACRAMENT OF THE SICK

If there is anyone at home who cannot get to Mass and the Sacraments because of illness or age, please call the parish office at anytime to request the Sacrament of the Anointing of the Sick.

O.C.I.A. (Order of Christian Initiation of Adults)

Those interested in becoming Catholic or in learning more about the Catholic faith meet weekly. Call the parish office or e-mail rcia@stanneparish.org for more information.

STEWARDSHIP PARISH

We are a stewardship parish. This means that every parishioner with an income is asked to use a Sunday envelope, since we expect to meet our needs from the one collection at the Presentation of the Gifts.

NEW PARISHIONERS

All new families are warmly welcomed to Saint Anne Parish and we ask that you register your family through our website at <http://stanneparish.org/registration-form/>.
