

Welcome to the NEWLY BAPTIZED

We want to warmly welcome and congratulate the following children who were recently Baptized at St. Anne Parish by Deacon David Brockman.

Adalyn Rose Falkowski

Raelynn Grace Llanos

Then he opened their minds to understand the Scriptures.

A NOTE FROM FATHER EICKHOFF

“You are witnesses of these things.”

These are the final words in today's Gospel passage and nearly the final words spoken by Christ in the entire Gospel of Luke. Jesus Christ is directly speaking to the disciples as He speaks these words. He is charging the disciples to go out into the world and tell other people what they have seen and heard in the presence of Jesus for what they have witnessed cannot and should not be held back from other people. Their time with the Lord has not been some private, secret revelation that is meant for them alone. No. Christ's actions, His words, His sacrifice has been done for many. And the many people need to know of it. It is now the mission of the disciples to let people know what God has done for them.

Now this is not just a mission whose time has come and gone with the first disciples of Jesus Christ. Everyone who has heard and believed the words of the Gospel has become a witness to Jesus. That includes us today. Now that does not mean that every parishioner reading these lines should immediately make themselves a big sign with the words “repent now!” in giant letters and carry it through the streets. That would likely be ineffective in convincing anyone to repent of their evil ways and turn to Jesus. Indeed, notice how St. Paul witnesses to Jesus Christ in the scriptures. He doesn't wander through the city streets shouting out about Jesus. Instead, he has a plan and a method when he visits a new place. In his own words he describes how he first speaks in the synagogues and other places where believers in God gather in order to witness to them about Jesus Christ. We ourselves can learn from St. Paul and seek to have a plan as to how to witness to Christ in the way that best suits our own abilities and talents.

What that plan will look like will vary from person to person. The religious brother or sister who lives in a cloistered monastery – who rarely interacts with outsiders – yet prays regularly on behalf of the world and its people is a witness to Christ. And the man or woman who is too ill to leave the house or lives in a nursing home yet daily prays for the world and its people is a witness to Christ. The modern missionary working in a distant land among people who do not know Jesus is surely a witness to Christ. And so is the man or woman living here who simply and openly practices their Christian faith among people who have forgotten or ignore Christ. We can be witnesses to Christ no matter where we are or who we are. Seek out the way to be a witness to Christ in the way that will be suitable for you and will most likely lead others to Jesus; and you will be fulfilling the Lord's mission that He has given you.

Yours in Christ,

Fr. Stephen Eickhoff
Pastor

THE 2024 CATHOLIC MINISTRIES ANNUAL APPEAL

Pledge Your Gift to the CMAA

If you have already pledged your support to the Catholic Ministries Annual Appeal (CMAA), we sincerely thank you! If we all join together, we can meet our parish's goal of $105,700.00. Each and every gift, regardless of size, truly matters and makes a difference.

If you still plan on making your gift, please prayerfully reflect on how best you can support the CMAA this year to help those in need throughout our Diocese, For the Glory of God. Pledge envelopes are still available in the literature racks or you can use the envelope you received in the mail from the Diocese. We also welcome online gifts at jolietdioceseappeal.org.

Remember, if we raise more than our goal, the Diocese will return 70 percent of the amount over goal to us to reinvest in our own parish. This is an incredible opportunity and blessing!

K-5 Family Scripture Connection

The scripture readings for this Third Sunday of Easter remind us of the many ways that we can know that Jesus is the Son of God and our Savior. We know Jesus through the words of the prophets, by keeping His commandments, in the breaking of the bread, in the breaking open of scripture, and ultimately in His death and Resurrection. When we know Jesus, we want to follow Him! But this isn't always easy. We know from the Gospel that Jesus' disciples had questions in their hearts. We, too, experience questions and doubts. And that's okay! We just can't let them turn us from the love and mercy of God. Just as Jesus said "peace be with you" to His disciples, He blesses us with that same peace.

K-5 Schedule

- The next four weeks we have classes as usual. The last week of classes will be May 6-8.
- Looking ahead to the summer, Vacation Bible School (VBS) is scheduled for July 22-25. Mark your calendars now!

Peace & Doubts

Is it okay to be uncertain about God? In The Chosen S1 E5 Jesus says to Thomas: "I do not rebuke you" because of his questions and doubt that Jesus could turn the water to wine. And in today's Gospel, we hear it again in a new way. Let's be honest, if the person we loved died and came back to life, but we hadn't yet seen him, we would be terrified too. Jesus gifts peace and immediately offers proof. Turn to God (Jesus/Holy Spirit) with all your thoughts. He hears you.

DASH 1: This week is catch up for the Monday group and a woman of courage (Esther) for other groups.

Designed by FreePik

DASH 2: You are doing a great job keeping on top of assignments, only two episodes from The Chosen left to go!

DASH 3: See you again tonight (April 14th) from 5 – 7pm and the next two weeks. After that, formal D3 sessions are concluded. The retreat is on August 17th and other Confirmation items needed will happen in the Fall.
