Hospitality Sunday

December 1, 2024

After all Masses

Looking forward to seeing everyone for fellowship after Mass.

A NOTE FROM FATHER EICKHOFF

This Sunday in the Church calendar is the Feast of Christ the King, the last Sunday of the Liturgical Year. The next Sunday (December 1st) will be the start of the new Liturgical Year, the Year of Grace 2025; and also the start of the Season of Advent. Since the Season of Advent is rapidly approaching, I want to share with you some important information about preparing in the spiritual way for Christmas. This is after all what the Season of Advent is all about, preparing for the arrival of Christ.

Before we get to the Season of Advent however there is one last item of note in the week before Advent: that is Thanksgiving Day. It is interesting to note that Thanksgiving Day is not a Church holy day. There are no special liturgical items of note on this day. However, it is certainly a good idea to take time to give thanks to God for the blessings He has bestowed upon us. There will be a special Mass on Thanksgiving Day at 9.30am in the church in place of the usual 7am communion service.

There are several different paths for preparing for Christ's coming at Christmas that we can go down during the Season of Advent. First, we should take the time to examine how we have lived our lives and what we have done for good or ill towards God, our families, and our neighbors. Then, having examined our lives, we should seek the forgiveness of God for those times we have done wrong in the Sacrament of Reconciliation. As a reminder, confessions are heard every Wednesday evening between 7pm and 8pm and every Saturday afternoon between 3.30pm and 4.30pm. There will also be a parish reconciliation service on Sunday, December 8th beginning at 4pm. At this service there will be additional priests present to hear confessions.

Second, we should take the time to pray. Christmas is so much more than simply giving and receiving presents. It is truly about welcoming our savior Jesus Christ into our lives. Perhaps the best way to pray is to come to church and pray together with other Christians and to pray before the Blessed Sacrament. There are several opportunities to do this at St. Anne Parish. Every Wednesday there is a holy hour in the parish chapel between 7pm and 8pm. Every Friday there is a half-hour period of adoration in the church beginning at 8.30am. During the Season of Advent there will be a special Vesper prayer service every Sunday "mas spirit!" On Saturday, December 14th St. Anne Parish will host a Christmas concert in the church. This will be a wonderful moment for letting go – for a time – of the cares of the world and simply enjoying the gifts of music and song that God has granted to us.

Yours in Christ,
Fr. Stephen Eickhoff
Pastor

A St. Vincent de Paul Society Gospel Reflection

Today as we celebrate Christ the King, may we open the door of our heart so wide that we may listen to the voice of Jesus calling us to help build his kingdom here on earth.

This Thursday is Thanksgiving. What better way to bring God's kingdom of love and mercy to families than to contribute generously to the Thanksgiving collection. That collection will go to St. Vincent de Paul and will help sustain us for 2025. God Bless You!

Week of November 24, 2024

St. Andrew the Apostle | Catholic Saints

All of the saints had a story before they met Christ. For St. Andrew, he was a fisherman. Hearing the call of Christ, Andrew and his brother Peter left everything behind to follow Jesus. Join Dr. Ben Akers and Mary McGeehan as they discuss St. Andrew, his life, and the example he provides to all Christians.

Abraham: Father of Faith

He left his home, the bones of his ancestors, and the false gods of his fathers to follow the God of glory. Excruciating trials, weary miles of desert travel, and even the command to offer his son Isaac as a sacrifice did not deter him. Mount your camels and ride back in time to discover Abraham, the only man called the "Friend of God."

The Perpetual Virgin | Lectio: Mary | Episode 5

Why do Catholics believe that Mary remained a virgin her whole life? Dr. Brant Pitre unpacks this much debated topic in this engaging presentation.

Bishop Hicks' Column

November 2024

Faith in Action: Jubilee Style

During our year-long celebration of the 75th anniversary of the Diocese of Joliet in Illinois, we have emphasized that we are "Founded in Faith, Called to Witness, Sent Forth to Serve." During the month of October, we decided to focus on the last four words, "Sent Forth to Serve."

Specifically, I asked every parish to undertake a communal service project during the month of October. I did not care what date they selected or what type of service project they chose. The goal was simply for every parish to do something - anything - of service in the name of the Lord.

As our parishes participated, each in their own way, I recognized that, as the Shepherd of the Diocese, it was important that I "walk the talk" by joining a parish in their service project. So, on the morning of Saturday, October 19, 2024, I arrived eagerly at one of our parishes to pitch in on their service day. I was greeted by hundreds of parishioners of all ages who were ready to assemble food for the hungry, pack boxes of dry ingredients at a "Feed My Starving Children" event, visit the elderly in nursing homes and extended care, give donations to the Little Sisters of the Poor, make autumn cards for the homebound and veterans, and carry out clean-up projects that included washing windows, pulling weeds, and raking leaves at the homes of people in need of assistance.

I joined a group of 10 wonderful team members that delightfully included grade school students and their parents. We went to the home of a man named George. It was a warm, sunny autumn day. We immediately took off our jackets, donned work gloves and began raking, pulling weeds, and sweeping. As I was raking, George approached me, and we engaged in a friendly conversation. Eventually, I said, "George, I love talking to you! But I need to be a good example, so I better get back to my chore." He kindly replied, "Oh, Bishop, I want to tell you something. Just by being here, you are setting a good example for everyone. Thank you for your service."

George shared about his amazing life, including how he went to New York City after 9/11 to help rescue people from the ash and how he went to New Orleans after Hurricane Katrina to assist with the cleanup efforts. "But I have to tell you," he added, "I feel a little embarrassed now that I have my bishop and this group helping me with my leaves and weeds. I have three dislocated discs in my back, and I cannot bend or twist." He sighed and lamented, "I really wish I could work alongside all of you right now, but I can no longer be of service."

I stopped him and said, "George, you've shared with me that you pray a daily rosary for peace in the world, attend daily Mass, and once a week bring Holy Communion to the sick in the hospital. You might not be able to serve in the ways you used to, but you are still serving the Lord and your neighbor with your prayers and by bringing the Eucharist to the sick." Believing that one kind word deserves another in return, I expressed, "Thank YOU for your service!"

My warm chat with George can be summed up with the powerful quote from Saint Mother Teresa of Calcutta: "I cannot do what you do, and you cannot do what I do, but together we can do great things!" That's it! Depending on our age, abilities, time constraints, and other life challenges, we will all put our faith into action in different ways. The goal is to do something - anything - always in the name of the Lord to build the Kingdom of God.

And remember, when we serve, we may feel good about ourselves with what we did. But there is more to it than that. Jesus himself commanded us to love and serve others. Therefore, as Catholics, our service to others is an outward expression of our love for God, whose Son we follow. To paraphrase the Gospel of Matthew 25:40, "Whatever you do for the least of your brothers or sisters, you do for Jesus!"

As we approach the conclusion of our Jubilee year, with faith, let us never cease to witness Christ by being, "Sent Forth to Serve!"
