A St. Vincent de Paul Society Gospel Reflection

After Jesus was baptized, he saw the Spirit of God descending like a dove and a voice was heard "This is my beloved Son, with whom I am well pleased."

As we give to the poor, we also can hear these same words. By helping those who are suffering, know in your heart the truth of the words "you are my beloved in whom I am well pleased".

Prayer for the repose of the soul

Please pray for the repose of the souls of Anna Marie Leganski who passed away December 20, 2024, Barbara Mittelstaedt who passed away December 22, 2024 and Mary Clark who passed away December 25, 2024.

"Eternal rest grant unto them, O Lord, and let perpetual light shine upon them. May their souls and the souls of all the faithful departed, through the mercy of God, rest in peace. Amen"

A NOTE FROM FATHER EICKHOFF

Today is the Feast of the Baptism of the Lord. This feast marks the end of the Christmas Season in the Church. After today the Church returns to Ordinary Time and the color green, the Christmas decorations are taken down, and the music during the Mass switches from the familiar Christmas tunes to what I like to think of as "standard Catholic music." This is also a good day to ponder for a moment your own baptism. Now, I don't expect you to remember your own baptism – unless of course you were baptized as an older child or an adult – but rather to think about what baptism means for you as a child of God. Baptism is indeed the moment of being adopted forever as a son or daughter of God. Meditate on that statement for a moment and ponder what it means. You, who are otherwise a puny, short-lived creature on one little planet in the cosmos, become in the moment of the Sacrament of Baptism part of the very family of the creator of the universe. That is an extraordinary thought. A thought so outrageous that in any other context you would sweep it out of your mind. And yet, through the words of Jesus Christ, through the words of the Scriptures, through the words of the Apostles; we don't just accept this thought to be true, we strive to live our lives by it. Every time we walk into a church and bless ourselves with holy water, we are reminding ourselves of our baptism and of our kinship with God.

In other news:

Starting with the new year we will begin announcing with the Prayers of the Faithful the names of those persons who have died and will have or have already had funeral masses said for them here at St. Anne Parish. There will also be a notice in the bulletin listing the names of these same persons who have died and the day and time of the funeral mass if applicable (if applicable, meaning if the funeral mass is still in the future when the bulletin is distributed).

There is a tradition in the Church that the dates for the moveable feasts of the Church (that is those feast days that don't have a specific date in the calendar but rather appear on different dates each year depending on the lunar calendar) starting with Easter are announced to the congregation at the end of the Christmas Season. So with that in mind here are the dates for the important feasts of the Church for the year 2025:

Ash Wednesday – March 5th

Palm Sunday and the beginning of Holy Week – April 13th

Easter Sunday – April 20th

Yours in Christ,
Fr. Stephen Eickhoff
Pastor

The 2025 Catholic Ministries Annual Appeal has begun!

As the Diocese of Joliet launches the 2025 Catholic Ministries Annual Appeal (CMAA), we are humbly asking all parishioners to pledge their support for this important effort, as together we can make a profound difference.

This year's CMAA theme is Open your heart to God's goodness. Through our support, we ensure that the mission and ministries of Christ's Church are available to everyone. Together, we can help provide safe shelter for the homeless, feed the physical and social needs of those who are hungry, inspire those discerning a life of vocation, and aid in the education of our next generation of Catholics. Our parish could not accomplish all of this on its own. As a diocese working together, we can do so much more.

Our parish goal for the 2025 CMAA is $101,300 and 70% of any amount we raise over our goal will be returned to us and used fruitfully within our own parish. Please review the materials you receive in the mail from the Diocese of Joliet this month and prayerfully reflect on your gift to this year's annual appeal.

If you do not receive a CMAA mailing, please contact the parish office. Thank you!

Support the Collection for the Church in Latin America

Dear Brothers and Sisters in Christ,

Soon our diocese will take up the Collection for the Church in Latin America. For more than 50 years, this collection has given Catholics in the United States an opportunity to share faith in unity with our brothers and sisters in Christ throughout Latin America and the Caribbean islands.

Through the Collection for the Church in Latin America, Catholics in the United States can express a closer unity with and love for their brothers and sisters in Central and South America and the Caribbean islands. This unity was fully expressed in autumn 2024, when Catholics from around the world gathered for an International Eucharistic Congress in Quito, Ecuador, to celebrate the country's 150th anniversary of its consecration to the Sacred Heart of Jesus.

Using funds received from the Collection for the Church in Latin America, the Archdiocese of Quito welcomed thousands from around the world—including a delegation of Catholics from the United States led by Bishop Andrew Cozzens—to pray together, encounter the love of Jesus in the Blessed Sacrament, and share their faith. When you participate in the collection at your parish, you support special events such as the Eucharistic Congress as well as the ongoing work of forming catechists, supporting vocations to priesthood and religious life, and implementing family ministries throughout Latin America.

Our diocese takes up this collection on the weekend of January 25-26, 2025. Please be generous toward this collection. Consider giving at Mass or through your parish's online giving platform. The #iGiveCatholicTogether website (<https://usccb.igivecatholictogether.org/organizations/usccb-church-in-latin-america>) also accepts online funds for the collection. Your support truly makes a difference. Thank you and God bless you.

For more information on the Church in Latin America and the many projects funded by the collection, please visit www.usccb.org/latin-america.

With best wishes, I ask God to bless you always.

As I remain –

Sincerely yours in Christ,

Support the Collection for the Church in Latin America

In the 13th century, St. Francis and St. Clare said yes to the Lord's call to renew the Church in Assisi, Italy, through lives of prayer, peace, and love for the poor. Their example inspired the men and women of their time to embrace the Gospel and dedicate their lives to God as religious brothers and sisters.

Nearly 800 years later, women continue to answer God's call following St. Clare's example by taking up lives of prayer at the Monastery of St. Clare in the Dominican Republic. Women who enter the monastery begin a formation process that encompasses prayer, study, and adaptation to separation from the world in a cloistered community. With funding through the Collection for the Church in Latin America, the monastery has been able to cover the food, clothing, and educational expenses for 18 sisters in various stages of formation.

Vocations to religious life are fulfilled through the prayers and contributions that sustain men and women religious in their mission. Helping the sisters at the Monastery of Saint Clare say yes to God's call is just one of the many positive impacts made by your support for the Collection for the Church in Latin America in strengthening the relationship between Catholics in the United States and those in Latin America and the Caribbean.
