

When the wine ran short,
the mother of Jesus said to him,
"They have no wine."

And Jesus said to her,
"Woman, how does your concern affect me?
My hour has not yet come."

His mother said to the servers,
"Do whatever he tells you."

John 2:3-5

A St. Vincent de Paul
Society
Gospel Reflection

In the Gospel today, at the wedding feast in Cana, Jesus reveals himself to his disciples and they began to believe in him.

Every day, God also gives us signs of his love, and so we also can respond in faith and trust. Your gift to the Society of St. Vincent de Paul becomes a sign of God's love to those who are suffering, and you give them reason to believe and to trust.

A NOTE FROM FATHER EICKHOFF

I invite you to imagine yourself as taking the place of the headwaiter at the wedding at Cana that we hear about in today's Gospel reading. What must have been a stressful occasion under the best of circumstances was becoming for the headwaiter an absolute nightmare. The wedding party hosts had either miscalculated the number of people present; or they had through penny-pinching deliberately not purchased enough wine to accommodate the entire party. In any case the wine was running out and the scandal of running out of wine would cast a blight upon the hosts and the marriage. What to do?

The Gospel does not tell us if the headwaiter went to Mary and asked for her help or if Mary on her own noticed the dire situation. In any case Mary went to her Son Jesus and told Him about the situation and then leaves the scene confident that Jesus will remedy the problem (and yes there is a lesson in there for us today about the assistance the Blessed Mother can obtain for us through Jesus Christ). Jesus then goes to the servers and directs them to fill the ceremonial water jugs with water and then Jesus directs the servers to draw the water from the jugs to take to the headwaiter. So, there you are in the place of the headwaiter; desperately wondering what you are going to do about the shortage of wine and no doubt thinking of how you are going to be blamed for this disaster when the servers show up with a new supply of wine. And not the cheap stuff either; but a superior vintage, the best of the entire party. The party is saved, the hosts will not be social pariahs, and your reputation as the best headwaiter in the Galilee remains intact.

It is important to remember that Jesus' miracles do not happen in a vacuum. That is, Jesus does not simply stand up and wave His arms to attract attention and shouts "watch this!" Rather, Jesus' actions are directed to the real needs of individuals. It is the desire of Jesus to come to the aid of people who need assistance. This is true at the Wedding at Cana or in any number of healings that Jesus carries out or in the defeat of evil spirits. Jesus does not "show off." Instead, His miracles are almost secondary to His care and concern for those who need His help. Yes, it is true that Jesus' assistance is often miraculous – He is the Son of God after all and the help that Jesus can give is divine in nature – yet I suspect there were many instances where Jesus came to someone's assistance with a remedy that is available to any of us. This is not to say that the miracles of Jesus are not important. They are important in that they provide evidence of His divinity and His ability to make good on His promises of the forgiveness of sins and everlasting life. Still, it is good for us to remember that Jesus came not to provide a spectacle (or in modern terms to be an "influencer"), but rather to save individual members of the human race.

Yours in Christ,
Fr. Stephen Eickhoff
Pastor

The 2025 Catholic Ministries Annual Appeal has begun!

As the Diocese of Joliet launches the 2025 Catholic Ministries Annual Appeal (CMAA), we are humbly asking all parishioners to pledge their support for this important effort, as together we can make a profound difference.

This year's CMAA theme is Open your heart to God's goodness. Through our support, we ensure that the mission and ministries of Christ's Church are available to everyone. Together, we can help provide safe shelter for the homeless, feed the physical and social needs of those who are hungry, inspire those discerning a life of vocation, and aid in the education of our next generation of Catholics. Our parish could not accomplish all of this on its own. As a diocese working together, we can do so much more.

Our parish goal for the 2025 CMAA is $101,300 and 70% of any amount we raise over our goal will be returned to us and used fruitfully within our own parish. Please review the materials you receive in the mail from the Diocese of Joliet this month and prayerfully reflect on your gift to this year's annual appeal.

If you do not receive a CMAA mailing, please contact the parish office. Thank you!

WEDDINGS, GIFTS, AND OUR MOTHER'S FAITH

Isaiah 62:1-5 • 1 Corinthians 12:4-11 • John 2:1-11

Family Car Talk

Instructions: Have you ever been to a wedding? Weddings are some of the happiest events. It is when a man and a woman who love each other deeply join their lives together forever. Today's First Reading says, "And as a bridegroom rejoices in his bride so shall your God rejoice in you." It might be hard to believe, but God loves us as much and is as excited to be with us as a groom is to marry his bride. On your way home from Mass today, read these questions and talk with your family about how much God loves us:

- B What things about you do you think God rejoices in the most?
- A What are some memories of weddings you have? What is your favorite part of a wedding?
- I Do you believe that God loves us as a groom loves his bride? (He loves us even MORE.)

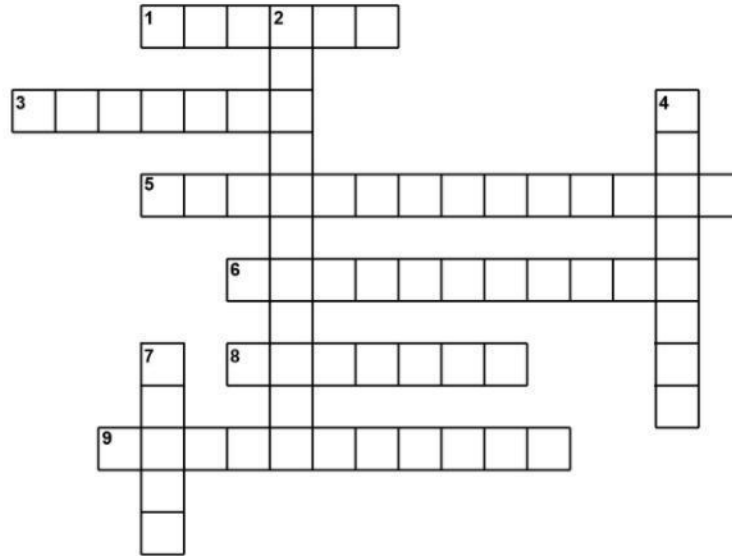

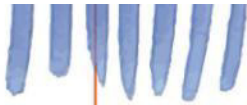

A SPIRITUAL GIFTS CROSSWORD

Instructions: Using the word bank and the clues below, solve the crossword and learn about the spiritual gifts that St. Paul writes about the Second Reading from 1 Corinthians 12:4-11. If you don't know what a word means, it's OK. Ask someone.

MARY SETS THE STAGE FOR A MIRACLE

Instructions: In today's Gospel, Jesus performs his first miracle. At a wedding, his Mother Mary sees a problem and tells him, "They have no wine." Jesus asks her how that concerns him, because "my time has not yet come." Mary seems to know Jesus will do something, so she tells the servers, "Do whatever he tells you." They fill six large jugs with water. Our Lord then miraculously turns that water into wine. Mary brought a problem to her Son because she had faith that he would take care of it.

On a separate sheet of paper, draw a comic strip showing Jesus changing the water into wine as his mother Mary requested. Use your imagination to create the scene!

Share ^{YOUR} Faith

Support the Collection for the Church in Latin America

Dear Brothers and Sisters in Christ,

Soon our diocese will take up the Collection for the Church in Latin America. For more than 50 years, this collection has given Catholics in the United States an opportunity to share faith in unity with our brothers and sisters in Christ throughout Latin America and the Caribbean islands.

Through the Collection for the Church in Latin America, Catholics in the United States can express a closer unity with and love for their brothers and sisters in Central and South America and the Caribbean islands. This unity was fully expressed in autumn 2024, when Catholics from around the world gathered for an International Eucharistic Congress in Quito, Ecuador, to celebrate the country's 150th anniversary of its consecration to the Sacred Heart of Jesus.

Using funds received from the Collection for the Church in Latin America, the Archdiocese of Quito welcomed thousands from around the world—including a delegation of Catholics from the United States led by Bishop Andrew Cozzens—to pray together, encounter the love of Jesus in the Blessed Sacrament, and share their faith. When you participate in the collection at your parish, you support special events such as the Eucharistic Congress as well as the ongoing work of forming catechists, supporting vocations to priesthood and religious life, and implementing family ministries throughout Latin America.

Our diocese takes up this collection on the weekend of January 25-26, 2025. Please be generous toward this collection. Consider giving at Mass or through your parish's online giving platform. The #iGiveCatholicTogether website (<https://usccb.igivecatholictogether.org/organizations/usccb-church-in-latin-america>) also accepts online funds for the collection. Your support truly makes a difference. Thank you and God bless you.

For more information on the Church in Latin America and the many projects funded by the collection, please visit www.usccb.org/latin-america.

With best wishes, I ask God to bless you always.

Sincerely yours in Christ,

JUBILEE YEAR 2025 JANUARY CELEBRATIONS

Throughout this year, our Holy Father will be remembering in prayer, and with special activities in Rome, various groups of peoples. We have been asked to do the same. On January 24-26, the World of Communications will be remembered. How have the activities of Communications assisted all people in becoming "neighbors" to each other? How have we used Communication tools and techniques to better our life and the life of all peoples? Do you know someone who works in the World of Communications? If so, this would be a good time to thank them for their service to others.
