A NOTE FROM FATHER EICKHOFF

The First Reading today is taken from the First Book of Samuel. The passage describes how David, when he was a fugitive hiding in the desert, refused to make use of an opportunity to kill King Saul who was pursuing him and his men. On the surface it may appear to be no more than an amusing tale of adventure and daring. However, upon closer inspection there is much more going on. Furthermore, this passage is a great illustration of the words of Jesus Christ in today's Gospel put into action.

First, we should keep in mind why David was hiding out in the desert. After David's slaying of Goliath, the people of the Kingdom of Israel proclaimed David as a great hero and began to esteem him over King Saul. Saul became insanely jealous of the people's praise of David and began to see in David a rival for the kingship. To no avail David protested that he was not seeking to overthrow King Saul and he was eventually forced to flee into the desert with some of his men to escape Saul's wrath. Thus, in today's First Reading David is provided with what appears to be a golden opportunity to kill Saul, return to his home, and seize the kingship of Israel for himself when he is able to sneak through King Saul's guards and stand over the sleeping Saul. Yet, David refuses to slay King Saul. Instead, David takes Saul's water jug and spear and carries them away to demonstrate to everyone that he could have slain Saul but did not.

King Saul was acting as an enemy to David and was seeking to kill David. In the way of typical human relations, we would consider that ample justification for harming our enemies in return. However, Jesus Christ tells us in the Gospel today that this is not the way that God acts towards us and if we want to be true children of God we must strive to act as God acts. That is, we must act with mercy and compassion towards those who are enemies. This makes a good bit of sense. Imagine if you will what our lives would be like if God took vengeance for every evil, sinful act that we have or will ever commit. A moment of consideration of this concept will likely make you tremble with fear. For every one of us has done wrong and every one of us would be subject to God's just vengeance if that vengeance was not tempered by God's mercy. Christ reminds us that as we have been the beneficiaries of God's mercy so we in turn should be merciful to others.

Yours in Christ,
Fr. Stephen Eickhoff
Pastor

Thank you for your continued generosity to St. Anne Parish

Your gift to CMAA makes an impact!

Through the CMAA, we show generosity toward the most vulnerable members of our community. We also benefit, as a parish, from the many ministries the CMAA supports, that touch our own lives and the lives of our fellow parishioners. Ministries that include vocations, Catholic education, and faith formation.

Our parish goal for the 2025 CMAA is $101,300. The diocese will return 70% of any amount we raise over our goal to us, to be used fruitfully within our own parish. Please review the materials you received in the mail from the Diocese of Joliet this month and prayerfully reflect on your gift to this year's annual appeal.

Thank you!

RESTORE THE CHURCH BUILD THE FUTURE

Decades ago, the bishops of the United States established a program to aid the Church in Central and Eastern Europe and help it rebuild after decades of communist oppression. The program is funded by an annual collection taken up in dioceses across the United States. That response continues today, even as the rebuilding Church faces the new challenges of war and the mass migration of refugees.

From the beginning of the Russian Federation's invasion of Ukraine in February 2022 and the subsequent war, the Catholic Church has vigorously responded to the ongoing humanitarian catastrophe by offering shelter, food, medicine, and necessities—as well as spiritual support and comfort—to displaced persons and other war victims. Among those leading this charitable response are the consecrated religious sisters and brothers of the Ukrainian Greek Catholic Church. Whether by providing shelter and basic necessities to internally displaced persons who have fled their homes for safety in other regions of the country, or by helping priests provide pastoral and humanitarian support in areas where the fighting is most heavy, these sisters and brothers have truly showed Christ's mercy to those most in need.

For them, the human suffering of war is compounded by the unique challenges that wartime conditions present for them as consecrated religious. Questions of how religious communities balance ministry to the needy with the sisters and brothers' needs to live their vows of prayer and community under such extraordinary circumstances require thoughtful responses.

Aided by funding from the collection, the Patriarchal Curia of the Ukrainian Greek Catholic Church gathered sisters, brothers, and their superiors for the spiritual renewal of a pilgrimage as well as formation sessions to address the challenges facing their communities. Your support for the Collection for the Church in Central and Eastern Europe is a vital way for you to make a tangible difference in the lives of Catholics in Ukraine and more than 25 other countries in Central and Eastern Europe.

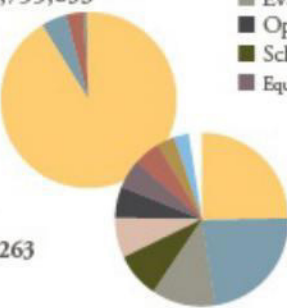

More information about the collection and the range of projects it supports can be found at www.usccb.org/ccce.
