

Then let us celebrate with a feast,
because this son of mine
was dead,
and has come
to life again,
he was lost, and
has been found.

A NOTE FROM FATHER EICKHOFF

Later this week between 12pm Friday, April 4th and 12pm Saturday, April 5th St. Anne Parish will hold a special event called the 24 Hours of Eucharistic Adoration. During these 24 hours the Blessed Sacrament will be exposed for all to see on the altar in the church. It is a long-standing tradition in the Catholic Church for parishioners to be present before the Eucharistic whenever the Blessed Sacrament is placed outside the tabernacle. This is one reason why I am asking for parishioners to commit themselves to spending one hour before the Blessed Sacrament so that there will always be people present in the church during these 24 hours. The other reason is more practical. I want there to be multiple people in the church at every hour so that people are comfortable with coming to the church during the overnight hours. If you are able to commit to one or more hours, please sign up. You will find the poster with the sign-up sheet in the narthex of the church. However, the church will be open to everyone who wants to pray even if they can't commit to spending one full hour.

During the Season of Lent, it is a wonderful practice to take stock of how we have lived our lives in the past weeks or months and ask the Lord for forgiveness for the things we have done wrong and to thank the Lord for His help in those things we have done right. Eucharistic Adoration is a great opportunity to do this. Coming to adoration also provides an opportunity to simply take time to pray, especially if all the chaos of daily life has limited your ability to take the time to pray in the last few weeks or months. You might be wondering: how do I pray during Eucharistic Adoration? The answer is that there is no one way to pray. Some people spend their time in mental prayer to God. Other people read the Holy Scriptures and meditate on what they have read. Still others bring devotional literature with them and read that. It is your choice to do any of these things or some combination of them. Most people who regularly come to Eucharistic Adoration treasure the ability during this time to “catch up” on their prayer time and sacred reading. I encourage you to come to adoration this Friday and Saturday at a time of your choosing for however long you might have and “catch up” on your personal time with Jesus Christ.

Yours in Christ,
Fr. Stephen Eickhoff
Pastor

IF...

The title of this article, “If,” is so short that it’s easy to overlook — yet few words carry so much weight in the Catholic imagination. These two simple letters hold the potential to launch beautiful dreams or plant seeds of destructive doubt.

On the positive side, the word “if” opens possibilities, like saying, “If I work hard, I can succeed.” It encourages hope and stimulates creativity, like wondering, “What if we did it this way?” It motivates action by highlighting the rewards, like a teacher saying to their student, “If you study, you’ll pass the exam.” And it suggests a promising outcome, like me predicting, “If you are reading this article, you are probably a disciple of Jesus.”

“If” is the kind of word that sparks dreams — If I trust in God, maybe He will take care of everything. It invites us to imagine what God could do if only we dared to trust and surrender ourselves to His will. Consider the Gospel of Matthew, where Jesus says, “If you have faith the size of a mustard seed, nothing will be impossible for you” (Matthew 17:20). That tiny word, “if,” encourages us to believe in the miraculous, and to trust that God can work wonders through even the smallest act of faith. It does not demand perfection but presents many hopeful possibilities.

There is, however, another side to “if” that can be perilous. When used with doubt or hesitation, “if” becomes a stumbling block. During this Lenten season, we are reminded that Jesus was tempted in the desert by Satan with the word “if” (Matthew 4):

- “If You are the Son of God, command that these stones become bread.”
- “If You are the Son of God, throw yourself down.”
- “All these I will give you, if you kneel down and worship me.”

Satan’s use of “if” was not just about testing Jesus’ power — it was about trying to plant doubt in Jesus’ very identity as the Son of God. That is the same tactic the enemy uses against us today, aiming to make us question who we are in God’s eyes. But Jesus bravely resisted these “if”-based lies. He knew and fully embraced His identity as the Son of God and remained grounded in His mission, united with His Father and the Holy Spirit.

In moments of trial, we too face the temptation to question God’s love or plan: “If God is good, why am I suffering?” We are fallible humans; our faith is often tested during challenging times. But our faith calls us to move beyond these doubts, trusting in God’s greater purpose even when we do not completely understand.

Just as Satan tempted Jesus to doubt His own identity, we too can be lured into believing a deceitful lie about our identity. But there is no “if” about our awe-inspiring identity: we are all made in the image and likeness of God. We are God’s beloved sons and daughters. And although we are sinners, Jesus came to forgive us and save us from our sins. We trust that promise. Our faith is founded on that truth.

I have seen too many people accept the lie about their true identity. That lie is often planted subtly through internal narratives like, I cannot really be God’s beloved son or daughter because I am not smart enough, not good enough, not holy enough, not attractive, not athletic, not popular, not likable... or even worse, not lovable. We are bombarded daily with subtle lies about our worth — in social media, in relationships, and even in our own thoughts. But God’s truth is unwavering: you are His beloved. There’s no “if” about it. When we reject that basic lie and live in the light of our identity as a beloved daughter or son of God, we are on the road to true joy and salvation.

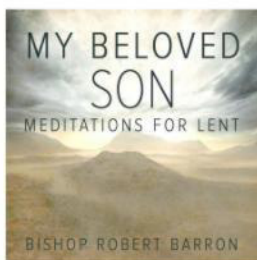

I invite you to eliminate any and all doubts about Jesus and yourself. God never says, I will only love you “if” you are perfect. God’s love and mercy for you are unconditional.

So, as we journey through this Lenten season, let us reject the “if” of doubt and embrace the certainty of God’s love. Pray for the strength to ignore the negative “speak” and to center on the positive truths. With clarity and conviction, we proclaim that Jesus is God. He alone is worthy of our praise, honor, and glory. He is our Savior through His life, suffering, death, and resurrection. He has won the victory over death and offers eternal life to all who believe and follow Him.

You are a beloved child of God. When it comes to God and the divine love freely given to all of us, there is no “if” whatsoever!

Lenten Simple Supper

Join us April 11, 2025 @ 6PM
at St. Anne (Joachim Center)
(prior to Stations of the Cross)

At the Last Supper, Christ gathered His disciples to share a simple meal, breaking bread as an act of love and unity. This season of Lent invites families to come together and share in the simplicity of a meal, reflecting on the deeper meaning of fellowship and sacrifice.

Just as Christ spent 40 days fasting in the desert, we too can embrace spiritual discipline through prayer, fasting, and self-reflection. This time of sacrifice prepares our hearts to celebrate Christ's victory over sin and death at Easter.

Let us use this Lenten season to draw closer to God, share with others, and renew our faith as we look forward to the joy of Christ's resurrection.

MISSION STATEMENT

Learn, Live and Nurture –

Learn the Faith, Live the Faith and Nurture the Faith

As a welcoming Catholic community, we strive to be disciples of Jesus glorifying His true presence in the Eucharist. Just as St. Anne was called by God, we are called as faithful witnesses to celebrate the Sacraments, honor traditions and nurture the family by studying, praying and proclaiming the Good News through service and evangelization.

SACRAMENT OF BAPTISM

Baptisms are generally held the 1st and 3rd Sundays of the month (some months this may vary) at 12:30 PM. Expectant parents are to call the Parish Office, six months before the birth of their child for preparation information. Please do not choose Godparents until you receive the established Church guidelines for Godparents.

SACRAMENT OF MARRIAGE

Couples seeking the Sacrament of Marriage should call the parish office at least six months before the date of marriage. A wedding date may not be secured until meeting with the parish Deacon or Priest. At that time, the couple will be secured a date and begin the process of preparation for the Sacrament of Marriage.

SACRAMENT OF THE SICK

If there is anyone at home who cannot get to Mass and the Sacraments because of illness or age, please call the parish office at anytime to request the Sacrament of the Anointing of the Sick.

O.C.I.A. (Order of Christian Initiation of Adults)

Those interested in becoming Catholic or in learning more about the Catholic faith meet weekly. Call the parish office or e-mail rcia@stanneparish.org for more information.

STEWARDSHIP PARISH

We are a stewardship parish. This means that every parishioner with an income is asked to use a Sunday envelope, since we expect to meet our needs from the one collection at the Presentation of the Gifts.

NEW PARISHIONERS

All new families are warmly welcomed to Saint Anne Parish and we ask that you register your family through our website at <http://stanneparish.org/registration-form/>.

BULLETIN DEADLINE

Bulletin articles are due into the parish office by 10:00 AM Thursday, 10 days before the Sunday you wish the article to appear. Please email your copy to stanne@stanneparish.org using Microsoft WORD.
