From Teenager to Saint: The Roadmap of Carlo Acutis

The Catholic Church is about to name the first saint who was a "Millennial!" And he is making a big splash! In an era where young people are often seen as distant from faith, Carlo Acutis gives us an example of a new path to reality and holiness in this digital world. Born in 1991 and raised in Milan, Italy, he will be canonized on Sunday, April 27, 2025.

He grew up as a typical teenager, playing soccer, video games, and the saxophone. His young faith blossomed alongside his deep love for the Eucharist as he attended Mass daily, making it central to his life. Carlo's use of technology to spread the Gospel and document Eucharistic miracles worldwide shows how technology can be a powerful tool for good and for evangelization.

Carlo passed away from leukemia at the age of 15, inspiring multitudes of people with his courage and faith. As a celebrated role model for young people, Carlo showed that holiness is achievable at any age. One of his famous quotes is, "To always be close to Jesus!" His life and words continue to inspire us to cultivate a close relationship with Jesus through prayer, the Eucharist, Confession, visiting holy sites, and helping others in need.

Just recently, I received a letter from the pastor in Crest Hill. Last year, in Phase II of our Targeted Restructuring Process, the parishes of St. Ambrose and St. Anne were united to form one new parish. Since then, the parish has entered a process of unification and renaming. He shared with me how the parishioners actively submitted recommendations for a new name for their parish. Originally, 90 names were submitted. After discernment through listening sessions and small groups, the selection was narrowed down to the top three names. Then, those three possibilities were given to me for my final choice. All three names were strong and worthy. However, after a time of prayer and reflection, one name stood out clearly for me... Saint Carlo Acutis!

By naming the newly united parish after him, we are not just honoring his memory but also encouraging parishioners to emulate his example of living faith boldly in today's world through the Eucharist. As we strive to pass on our faith to the next generations through catechesis, evangelization, and faith in action, this newly minted saint will hopefully inspire us, both now and into the future.

If you would like to learn more about Carlo Acutis, I encourage you to see the new film, "Carlo Acutis: Roadmap to Reality." For three days, April 27-29, 2025, it will be shown in 945 theaters across the United States. Once the first 5,000 tickets are sold, the film has been guaranteed an additional three days in theaters.

I saw clips of this film at a preview during the November meetings for the United States Catholic Conference of Bishops. I was fascinated by the life of Carlo Acutis and his impact on the youth of today. I also learned that all proceeds from this film will benefit causes for the youth, support the further spread of the Gospel, and help fund future National Eucharistic Congresses.

I invite you to consider seeing this movie as an individual, as a family, as a youth group, and/or as a parish outing. This is a great opportunity for us to learn more about a young saint and help evangelize others by inviting them to see it. You can purchase tickets through a pre-sale program. Locations and advance ticket sales are now available at www.carloacutisfilm.com. Even if you cannot see the movie right now, I urge you to visit this website, watch the trailer, and share it with others!

Before dying from leukemia, Carlo said, "Do not be afraid because with the Incarnation of Jesus, death becomes life, and there's no need to escape: in eternal life, something extraordinary awaits us." These saintly words highlight Carlo's deep faith in Jesus and encourage us on the way to holiness.

On Sunday, April 27, 2025, with fervent devotion and enthusiastic hope, please join me and the universal Catholic Church – no matter what your age – in exclaiming, "Saint Carlo Acutis, pray for us!"

A NOTE FROM FATHER EICKHOFF

Merry Easter!

No, that doesn't sound right. Perhaps the word "merry" has a too close connection to Christmas to be used for Easter.

Happy Easter!

No, that doesn't sound celebratory enough. Easter is the greatest and holiest day of the entire year. While "happy" is certainly a nice word it seems to lack the gravitas and cheerfulness that is needed for Easter.

Honestly, I don't know the right word to express the fulness of the joy of Easter. And so, I can only use a great many words to try and explain Easter. Certainly, Easter is joyful. We are celebrating the victory of Jesus Christ over the power and sin and death; and with Christ's victory our own triumph as Christ shares his victory with us. Certainly, Easter is awesome (as in full of wonder) since we marvel at all God has done for us through His Son Jesus Christ since we certainly did not merit or deserve our salvation from sin and death on our own. And certainly, Easter is amazing. We human beings are witnesses to the resurrection which is an event completely beyond our own abilities. And so, I suppose I should have started this bulletin article with:

Joyful, Awesome, Amazing Easter!

Yeah, I don't expect it to become the standard greeting for this day.

Having failed to come up with a good greeting for this Easter day I want to switch my attention to something that is achievable. Namely to offer my thanks to all the volunteers in the parish who have helped make the worthy celebration of this past Holy Week and Easter Sunday possible. A great many parishioners have spent a great deal of time decorating the church for each liturgy this past week. Many others have contributed their time and energy to preparing and performing the music we heard these past few days. Others have served in a number of liturgical ministries such as altar servers, lectors, eucharistic ministers, and ushers. Your efforts on behalf of the people of St. Anne Parish are greatly appreciated.

Yours in Christ,
Fr. Stephen Eickhoff
Pastor

STRENGTHENING THE CHURCH AT HOME

Dear Brothers and Sisters in Christ,

Dioceses supported by the Catholic Home Missions program of the Catholic bishops of the United States are found throughout our country, its territories and former territories. They also include dioceses and eparchies of Eastern Catholic Churches, which are in full communion with Pope Francis and the Holy See but have their own distinct cultural heritages, liturgical traditions, and bishops. Here in the United States, these communities often have large populations of recent immigrants and refugees who present unique challenges to pastoral outreach, including language barriers and cultural pressures to assimilate.

Among the most ancient of the Eastern Churches is the Chaldean Catholic Church, whose members trace their roots from ancient Mesopotamia to the northern region of modern-day Iraq. Facing persecution from groups in their homeland, many Chaldean Catholics have migrated to the United States, especially in and around Detroit, Michigan, where the Chaldean Eparchy of St. Thomas the Apostle is based. With support from Catholic Home Missions, the eparchy covers more than 30 states and serves more than 180,000 members through essential pastoral ministries such as its marriage preparation program to help couples build a solid foundation for their lives together.

The program, offered through the eparchy's Eastern Catholic Re-Evangelization Center, is led by lay people. It incorporates small-group discussions of practical topics, presentations by married couples, and prayer. The support of Catholic Home Missions has allowed the eparchy to create a translated Syriac Aramaic/Arabic-language version of the program, which it can now offer to those who do not yet speak English.

Your participation in the annual Catholic Home Missions Appeal supports dioceses throughout the United States and its current and former territories that need financial help to sustain core pastoral services and missions of mercy to those they serve. Please prayerfully consider how you can support the appeal this year. To learn more about the appeal and those who benefit from it, visit www.usccb.org/home-missions.

Thank you for strengthening the Church at home.

With best wishes, I ask God to bless you always.

As I remain –

Sincerely yours in Christ,

Most Reverend Ronald A. Hicks
