Prayer for the repose of the soul

We ask for your prayers for the repose of the souls of our beloved parishioners who have recently passed away:

Joseph Burke- April 16, 2025

James DeVos – April 22, 2025

Glenn Richter- April 28, 2025

May their families find comfort in their faith and the love of our community.

"Eternal rest grant unto them, O Lord, and let perpetual light shine upon them. May their souls and the souls of all the faithful departed, through the mercy of God, rest in peace. Amen."

A NOTE FROM FATHER EICKHOFF

Last Saturday (May 3rd) over sixty children of St. Anne Parish received the Holy Eucharist for the first time. I want to offer my congratulations to these children on my own behalf and on behalf of the entire parish. Should you see one of these children during Mass you might also offer your congratulations. I also want to thank everyone who aided these children in their preparation for the Sacrament of Holy Communion. There are many volunteers in the Religious Education Program who have assisted these children in becoming ready to receive the Holy Eucharist. Their help is greatly appreciated not only by the children, but by the entire parish. I also want to thank the staff members in the Religious Education Program – Cathy Gillooly and Julie Krakora – for all their work in running the RE program and in preparing for the two First Communion Masses. I especially want to thank the parents and families of the children who have supported their preparation for the sacrament by their example in attending Mass and in many other ways.

I also want to thank the members of the children's choir. If you have missed hearing them, they normally sing at the 11am Sunday Mass. They will be going on hiatus for the summer and so last Sunday was their last performance until the Fall. Their efforts have been greatly appreciated this past year. I also want to thank their parents for supporting them and for helping to supervise their practices. A word of thanks also goes out to our Music Director – Richard Jurevich – for all his work in leading the children's choir; in addition to all the other choirs that he leads or supervises in the parish. The children's choir will return after the summer break so if you have a child who wishes to sing in the choir in the future please check for an announcement at the end of summer for when the children's choir will resume.

I also want to thank again the Arts and Environment Committee for a job well done in decorating the church during the Seasons of Lent and Easter. Last Sunday (May 4th) St. Anne Parish hosted the Diocese of Joliet Scout Religious Awards Mass during which many scouts from all over the diocese received recognition for Catholic religious awards they had earned this past year. The celebrant for the Mass was Bishop Hicks and he complemented the parish for the excellent decorations.

Yours in Christ,
Fr. Stephen Eickhoff
Pastor

JUBILEE YEAR 2025 MAY CELEBRATIONS

On May 10-11, our Holy Father will be remembering in prayer and celebrating with those who provide and use their gift of music. Musicians bring the splendor of sound and words that can fill our days with wonder and reflect the grandeur of God's presence in our world. As a reflection of our gratitude, we give thanks and pray for those who share their talent of making music with our communities.

Bishop Hicks' Column
May 2025
Hasta Luego: The Language of Pope Francis

While standing in Saint Peter's Basilica on June 29, 2015, Cardinal Blase Cupich turned to me and asked, "Have you ever met the Pope?" When I replied, "No," he immediately grasped my arm and said with a smile, "well, now is your chance."

He led me briskly toward Pope Francis and introduced me in Italian: "Holy Father, this is Ron Hicks, my Vicar General, and he speaks Spanish." At once, Pope Francis turned to me and began speaking in Spanish — a language in which we could communicate freely, warmly, and deeply.

From that moment forward, whenever we encountered one another, we spoke exclusively in Spanish, always accompanied by his direct and attentive gaze. Pope Francis had a remarkable gift: he made me feel not only heard but truly seen.

His warmth, care, support, and joy were not reserved for a select few; they were the hallmarks of his presence with everyone he encountered.

No one who leads a Church of over a billion faithful can expect unanimity on every issue. Throughout his pontificate, Pope Francis courageously engaged theological, ecclesial, spiritual — AND controversial — matters with conviction and pastoral tenderness. As we mourn his passing, it is fitting to give thanks for the many ways he shaped the life of the Church and touched the soul of the world, among them:

- Evangelii Gaudium — his first apostolic exhortation, joyfully setting forth a bold vision for a missionary Church that is merciful, inclusive, and centered on the poor;
- Laudato Si' — his groundbreaking encyclical calling humanity to respect, cherish, and protect our common home;
- A Synodal Church — a historic invitation and process for the People of God to walk together, listen to one another, and discern the voice of the Holy Spirit;
- Fratelli Tutti — his powerful call to recognize every person as a brother or sister, and to build a global culture of solidarity and peace;
- A Church of the Margins — his unwavering insistence that the Church must go forth to the peripheries to encounter and accompany the poor, the forgotten, and the excluded; and

- The Jubilee Year of Hope — announced just this year, reminding us that hope is a divine gift rooted not in mere human optimism, but in the sure promise of Christ's victory over sin and death.

The list of his contributions to the Church and to humanity is truly inexhaustible.

And as the years unfold, the world will continue to draw strength from some of his most unforgettable words.

- "The Church is a field hospital" (Evangelii Gaudium, 2013, §49).
- "Be shepherds with the smell of the sheep" (Chrism Mass Homily, March 28, 2013).
- "Reality is greater than ideas" (Evangelii Gaudium, 2013, §231).

Since the news of our Holy Father's death, I have received a profound outpouring of letters, emails, and notes of condolence from priests, deacons, religious, and lay faithful. What moved me especially were the unexpected expressions of sympathy and gratitude from Protestant ministers, rabbis, imams, and government leaders.

Pope Francis's life and leadership transcended boundaries, reaching hearts across religious, cultural, and political divides. In life, he brought hands and hearts together. In death, he continues to gather us — united in prayer, in gratitude, and in hope.

I will never forget that iconic moment twelve years ago, when Pope Francis, newly elected, stepped out onto the balcony of Saint Peter's Basilica and humbly asked the whole world to pray for him. And I was deeply moved when, at the close of the funeral Mass, Cardinal Giovanni Battista Re brought everything full circle in the final words of his homily. With great affection, he said:

"Dear Pope Francis, we now ask you to pray for us. May you bless the Church, bless Rome, and bless the whole world from heaven."

As we remember and give thanks to God for the gift of Pope Francis, my heart returns once more to the moments we shared speaking in Spanish. Because of the Resurrection and the hope we have in Jesus Christ, we do not say "adiós" (goodbye) to Pope Francis. Rather, with faith, with hope, and with profound gratitude, we say "hasta luego" (until later) — and until we meet again, let us pray: "May God hold him in the palm of His hand."

MISSION STATEMENT

Learn, Live and Nurture –

Learn the Faith, Live the Faith and Nurture the Faith

As a welcoming Catholic community, we strive to be disciples of Jesus glorifying His true presence in the Eucharist. Just as St. Anne was called by God, we are called as faithful witnesses to celebrate the Sacraments, honor traditions and nurture the family by studying, praying and proclaiming the Good News through service and evangelization.

SACRAMENT OF BAPTISM

Baptisms are generally held the 1st and 3rd Sundays of the month (some months this may vary) at 12:30 PM. Expectant parents are to call the Parish Office, six months before the birth of their child for preparation information. Please do not choose Godparents until you receive the established Church guidelines for Godparents.

SACRAMENT OF MARRIAGE

Couples seeking the Sacrament of Marriage should call the parish office at least six months before the date of marriage. A wedding date may not be secured until meeting with the parish Deacon or Priest. At that time, the couple will be secured a date and begin the process of preparation for the Sacrament of Marriage.

SACRAMENT OF THE SICK

If there is anyone at home who cannot get to Mass and the Sacraments because of illness or age, please call the parish office at anytime to request the Sacrament of the Anointing of the Sick.

O.C.I.A. (Order of Christian Initiation of Adults)

Those interested in becoming Catholic or in learning more about the Catholic faith meet weekly. Call the parish office or e-mail rcia@stanneparish.org for more information.

STEWARDSHIP PARISH

We are a stewardship parish. This means that every parishioner with an income is asked to use a Sunday envelope, since we expect to meet our needs from the one collection at the Presentation of the Gifts.

NEW PARISHIONERS

All new families are warmly welcomed to Saint Anne Parish and we ask that you register your family through our website at <http://stanneparish.org/registration-form/>.

BULLETIN DEADLINE

Bulletin articles are due into the parish office by 10:00 AM Thursday, 10 days before the Sunday you wish the article to appear. Please email your copy to stanne@stanneparish.org using Microsoft WORD.
