

HABEMUS PAPAM

POPE LEO XIV

O God, who chose your servant Pope Leo XIV in succession to the Apostle Peter as shepherd of the whole flock, look favorably on the supplications of your people and grant that, as Vicar of Christ on earth, he may confirm his brethren and that the whole Church may be in communion with him in the bond of unity, love and peace, so that in you, the shepherd of souls, all may know the truth and attain life eternal. Through our Lord Jesus Christ, your Son, who lives and reigns with you in the unity of the Holy Spirit, God, for ever and ever.

Prayer for the repose of the soul

We ask for your prayers for the repose of the souls of our beloved parishioners who have recently passed away:

Patrick Forde- May 5, 2025

May their families find comfort in their faith and the love of our community.

"Eternal rest grant unto them, O Lord, and let perpetual light shine upon them. May their souls and the souls of all the faithful departed, through the mercy of God, rest in peace. Amen."

A NOTE FROM FATHER EICKHOFF

He will wipe every tear from their eyes, and there shall be no more death or mourning, wailing or pain, for the old order has passed away."

This verse from today's second reading is from the Book of Revelation. The idea – no, the knowledge – that sorrow does not, will not, last forever is a source of hope for many people. It is proper that we ask ourselves just how and why sorrow, wailing, or pain will cease in the coming Kingdom of God. It is easiest to start off by saying that these things will truly be rendered non-existent. In other words, they will not be still present but cloaked or buried. Instead, they will truly be completely gone. Sorrow and grief will simply not exist in the Kingdom of God. Nor will they be swept away by some giant rising tide of "bliss" as if the presence of God is some sort of addictive drug that simply swamps out everything in its way. Rather, the Kingdom of God (as fully revealed when Christ returns in glory) will take away the causes of death, mourning, wailing, and pain. These things will not exist for the simple reason that they will not have any basis to exist.

Let me have the Church Father Tertullian of Carthage (2nd and 3rd century AD) explain in his own words:

"If sorrow, and mourning, and sighing and death itself assail us from the afflictions both of soul and body, how shall they be removed, except by the cessation of their causes, that is to say, the afflictions of flesh and soul? Where will you find adversities in the presence of God? Where incursions of an enemy in the bosom of Christ? Where attacks of the devil in the face of the Holy Spirit—now that the devil himself and his angels are "cast into the lake of fire"? Where now is necessity, and what [the pagans] call fortune or fate? What plague awaits the redeemed from death after their eternal pardon? What wrath is there for the reconciled after grace? What weakness after their renewed strength? What risk and danger after their salvation?" ON THE RESURRECTION OF THE FLESH 58.

Quoting Tertullian allows me to write a brief note on his life. You will notice that I did not describe him as "Saint Tertullian." That is because Tertullian broke from the Catholic Church late in his life as he did not believe that "fallen away Christians" should be readmitted to the Church. Despite that he is one of the most important theologians the Church has ever had and is frequently quoted by all the most recent popes including our new Holy Father Pope Leo XIV in one of his very first public addresses.

Returning to the main point of this article let me point out that as Christians we do not simply look forward to a better or nicer earth in the coming Kingdom of God which is like our present circumstances but more pleasant. Rather we look forward to a new earth in which things will be radically different and which will allow human beings to exercise the full extent of their God given gifts as received and promised in baptism. A life free from all the difficulties and sorrows

Yours in Christ,
Fr. Stephen Eickhoff
Pastor

JUBILEE YEAR 2025 MAY CELEBRATIONS

On May 16-18, our Holy Father will be remembering in prayer and celebrating with the Confraternities that have a mission in the Church, our Diocese and our Parishes. These are the voluntary associations, often coordinated by lay women and lay men, to promote charitable works, devotional life, or specific missions in the Church. Which Confraternities does your parish community support? Look around your parish community and you will find many of these groups actively doing good works for the Church. You are encouraged to pray for them and find ways you can personally thank them for their service to others.

Hasta Luego: The Language of Pope Francis

While standing in Saint Peter's Basilica on June 29, 2015, Cardinal Blase Cupich turned to me and asked, "Have you ever met the Pope?" When I replied, "No," he immediately grasped my arm and said with a smile, "well, now is your chance."

He led me briskly toward Pope Francis and introduced me in Italian: "Holy Father, this is Ron Hicks, my Vicar General, and he speaks Spanish." At once, Pope Francis turned to me and began speaking in Spanish — a language in which we could communicate freely, warmly, and deeply.

From that moment forward, whenever we encountered one another, we spoke exclusively in Spanish, always accompanied by his direct and attentive gaze. Pope Francis had a remarkable gift: he made me feel not only heard but truly seen.

His warmth, care, support, and joy were not reserved for a select few; they were the hallmarks of his presence with everyone he encountered.

No one who leads a Church of over a billion faithful can expect unanimity on every issue. Throughout his pontificate, Pope Francis courageously engaged theological, ecclesial, spiritual — AND controversial — matters with conviction and pastoral tenderness. As we mourn his passing, it is fitting to give thanks for the many ways he shaped the life of the Church and touched the soul of the world, among them:

- Evangelii Gaudium — his first apostolic exhortation, joyfully setting forth a bold vision for a missionary Church that is merciful, inclusive, and centered on the poor;
- Laudato Si' — his groundbreaking encyclical calling humanity to respect, cherish, and protect our common home;
- A Synodal Church — a historic invitation and process for the People of God to walk together, listen to one another, and discern the voice of the Holy Spirit;
- Fratelli Tutti — his powerful call to recognize every person as a brother or sister, and to build a global culture of solidarity and peace;
- A Church of the Margins — his unwavering insistence that the Church must go forth to the peripheries to encounter and accompany the poor, the forgotten, and the excluded; and

- The Jubilee Year of Hope — announced just this year, reminding us that hope is a divine gift rooted not in mere human optimism, but in the sure promise of Christ's victory over sin and death.

The list of his contributions to the Church and to humanity is truly inexhaustible.

And as the years unfold, the world will continue to draw strength from some of his most unforgettable words.

- "The Church is a field hospital" (Evangelii Gaudium, 2013, §49).
- "Be shepherds with the smell of the sheep" (Chrism Mass Homily, March 28, 2013).
- "Reality is greater than ideas" (Evangelii Gaudium, 2013, §231).

Since the news of our Holy Father's death, I have received a profound outpouring of letters, emails, and notes of condolence from priests, deacons, religious, and lay faithful. What moved me especially were the unexpected expressions of sympathy and gratitude from Protestant ministers, rabbis, imams, and government leaders.

Pope Francis's life and leadership transcended boundaries, reaching hearts across religious, cultural, and political divides. In life, he brought hands and hearts together. In death, he continues to gather us — united in prayer, in gratitude, and in hope.

I will never forget that iconic moment twelve years ago, when Pope Francis, newly elected, stepped out onto the balcony of Saint Peter's Basilica and humbly asked the whole world to pray for him. And I was deeply moved when, at the close of the funeral Mass, Cardinal Giovanni Battista Re brought everything full circle in the final words of his homily. With great affection, he said:

"Dear Pope Francis, we now ask you to pray for us. May you bless the Church, bless Rome, and bless the whole world from heaven."

As we remember and give thanks to God for the gift of Pope Francis, my heart returns once more to the moments we shared speaking in Spanish. Because of the Resurrection and the hope we have in Jesus Christ, we do not say "adiós" (goodbye) to Pope Francis. Rather, with faith, with hope, and with profound gratitude, we say "hasta luego" (until later) — and until we meet again, let us pray: "May God hold him in the palm of His hand."

“Christ is Alive” Essay Contest Winner from St. Anne!

This year students in 3 - 8th grade were invited to enter the “Christ is Alive” essay contest, which is open to parish RE programs and schools across the United States, to share about a moment where they felt God’s presence in their life. Each grade level had two winners, one from a Catholic School and one from an RE program. The winners received $100 and a Bible of their choice, and the parish/school also received prize money. We are incredibly blessed that, for our first time entering this contest, we had a winner in 6th grade. Though she does not want to be named, we are so proud of her heart and amazing ability to witness her faith in words that are far beyond a typical 6th grader. Read her open paragraph below and go to the parish website to read her entire essay and beautiful soul feeling God’s presence in her life.

*“Have you ever wondered what it’s like to feel God?
I did, until I was dragged out of the darkness by the incredible light of God.
It is an astonishing peace that surpasses all understanding. It shows the marvelous love and care that God shows. God is always with us whether we feel Him or not. He is always listening to what we have to say, and He always loves us no matter what we do. He will not give up on us, and He will be with us, protecting and sheltering us wherever we go.”*
