A St. Vincent de Paul Society Gospel Reflection

Today as we celebrate Pentecost, the Holy Spirit wants to make us advocates of God's presence in order to bring new life to others, especially those who do not know the love of God in their lives.

Your contributions to our clothing drive today helps the poor to believe in the mystery of God's love for them. Thank you to all who made a donation.

A NOTE FROM FATHER EICKHOFF

Today I want to provide an update to you about the 2025 Catholic Ministries Annual Appeal. This is where St. Anne Parish currently stands:

Our parish goal amount is: $101,300

The amount currently pledged is: $128,809

The amount currently paid is: $92,866

The amount currently due from pledges is: $35,943

There are currently 472 donors for this year's appeal (compared to 485 last year)

The money raised by the Catholic Ministries Annual Appeal is used by the Diocese of Joliet to further Catholic ministries and charities in our own area. For example, some of the money raised goes to pay for the preparation and education of future priests for our diocese. Another example of where the donations go to would be charities that assist the poor and needy within our diocese. And other money is used to help fund various Catholic ministries that operate across many different parishes. St. Anne Parish did very well last year in exceeding our goal amount for money raised to support the appeal. And we are well on track to meet and exceed our goal amount this year.

If you have already contributed to the 2025 annual appeal I want to thank you for your support. If you have pledged money to the appeal, I encourage you to complete your pledge over the course of the remainder of the year. There are no doubt parishioners who were not in a financial position to contribute or pledge to the appeal when it was announced at the beginning of the year. If your financial position has changed, I encourage you to contribute to the appeal. You can support the appeal directly through the Diocese of Joliet website: www.diojoliet.org. Just look for the big red "Donate" button on the top of the main page. You can also take one of the Appeal envelopes that are located in the booklet racks in the narthex of the church.

Yours in Christ,
Fr. Stephen Eickhoff
Pastor

JUBILEE YEAR 2025 JUNE CELEBRATIONS

On June 9 our Holy Father will be remembering in prayer and celebrating with the members of the Holy See at the Vatican. This is a perfect time for families to pray together for our Holy Father and all the people who work in the Vatican. Consider creating 'thank you' cards to send to our Holy Father and other workers at the Vatican.

The Pope's address is:
His Holiness, Pope Leo XIV
00120 Vatican City.

Bishop Hicks' Column
June 2025
Habemus Papam: With God, All Things Are Possible

It was a moment I will never forget!

On May 9, 2025, I was traveling from Omaha back to the Diocese of Joliet after attending the installation of my classmate and friend as the new Archbishop of the Archdiocese of Omaha. I was glued to my phone, watching as white smoke billowed from the chimney at St. Peter's Basilica in Rome.

As I stood in line for TSA security at the Omaha airport, a woman in front of me asked, "Bishop, do you think we might get an American pope this time?" I quickly responded, "No, that's impossible."

I then placed my carry-on and phone on the conveyor belt, went through the metal detector, put my belt back on, and reclaimed my phone—only to see the news that the impossible had just happened. We had a new pope, born and raised in the USA... Pope Leo XIV! That moment solidified for me that the Holy Spirit is still in charge of our Church. Indeed, with God, all things are possible (Matthew 19:26).

My flight home was abuzz with joy and curiosity about this new pope as passengers all around me asked, "Do you know him?" The short answer is: "Yes, I know him." While I am twelve years younger than he is, we actually grew up in the same neighborhood in the South Suburbs of Chicago. He lived in Dolton, and I was raised next door in South Holland—and we even share a favorite pizza place.

I had the privilege of meeting Pope Leo XIV when he was still Cardinal Robert Prevost. On August 7, 2024, he came to our diocese to speak at St. Jude Parish in New Lenox. I attended his lecture, which focused on the Catholic Church and Pope Francis. What struck me most was the clarity with which he spoke—he was both deeply intelligent and remarkably pastoral. His insights were not hidden behind academic jargon. Instead, they were spoken plainly and with heart, taking complex concepts and making them understandable to all.

After his talk, I still remember him saying to me, "Can we get five minutes by ourselves to talk?" Our conversation lasted over fifteen minutes, just the two of us. I was moved by his warmth and attentiveness. He was not rushed or distracted—he was present. And as we wrapped up our conversation, he handed me his card and said, "If you ever need to talk, just call." That kind of humble openness left a lasting impression.

Besides asking if I know our new Holy Father, the other most common question I have received is: "What kind of pope do you think he will be?" That answer will unfold in the years to come. However, after greeting the world with the words Peace be with you, he has continued to preach about the absolute importance of cultivating a personal relationship with Jesus. While emphasizing the need for justice and peace for all people, he has also insisted that without faith, life lacks meaning.

During his inauguration Mass, Pope Leo XIV offered a powerful homily centered on unity, love, and humble service. He said, "I come to you as a brother, who desires to be the servant of your faith and your joy, walking with you on the path of God's love, for he wants us all to be united in one family." He urged the Church to be a "small leaven of unity" in a divided world, calling us to walk together as instruments of healing, hope, and reconciliation—to foster dialogue within the Church and beyond.

So far, it seems that Pope Leo XIV—formed by the Augustinian tradition and shaped by his missionary experiences—strongly desires to be a bridge-builder, encouraging all of us to tear down walls of division and live as one body in Christ.

On one last lighter, yet poignant note—even though he grew up a Sox fan and I am a Cubs fan—it's a joy to remember that we both play on the same team: working together for Christ and for the Church!

So, giving thanks to God for our new Holy Father, please join me in prayer—asking the Holy Spirit to guide, protect, and strengthen Pope Leo XIV.

Habemus papam! And may God bless him always.

On this Pentecost weekend, we ask for your prayerful support for 7 teens and 3 adults who will soon (June 27–29) experience their first life-changing, full weekend Catholic retreat/conference best known as “Steubenville.”

Fr. Eickhoff will also, at times, be present with us. Thankfully, we don’t have to travel to Ohio for this very powerful time of prayer, and worship, but just to Lisle. This year is the first time the Diocese of Joliet will host this fantastic weekend at Benedictine University.

Participants will be inspired from a great line-up of speakers: Fr. Mike Schmitz, Maggie Craig, Lisa Cotter and Michael Gormley. Worship time will be led by Sonar Worship. In addition to great speakers, the deep prayer time (adoration, reconciliation, Mass) is out of this world. It’s impossible for a teen to attend a Steubenville conference and not be massively impacted by the Holy Spirit.

Start praying now that our teens, adult chaperones and other parent volunteers from St. Anne, are open to the work of the Holy Spirit.
May they allow the Lord to more deeply enter their heart and change their life!

Family Car Talk

Catholics celebrate the Solemnity of Pentecost—today—as the birthday of our Church. We put the spotlight on the Holy Spirit on this day. He came to the apostles during the Jewish feast of Pentecost, a celebration of the harvest. We use the Greek name for the feast, and sometimes people are confirmed into our Church on Pentecost. On the way home from Mass with your family today, talk through the questions and brainstorm how you can celebrate.

- A When Jesus ascended into heaven, he told us he would send the Church the Holy Spirit. How do you see the Holy Spirit working in your life or in the world?
- B What are your favorite ways to celebrate birthdays as a family? How can you do some of those things today to celebrate the Church's birthday?
- I What would you and your family like to accomplish in this new year of the Church's life? Maybe invite more people into your home, go to confession more often, or read more about the saints!

MISSION STATEMENT

Learn, Live and Nurture –

Learn the Faith, Live the Faith and Nurture the Faith

As a welcoming Catholic community, we strive to be disciples of Jesus glorifying His true presence in the Eucharist. Just as St. Anne was called by God, we are called as faithful witnesses to celebrate the Sacraments, honor traditions and nurture the family by studying, praying and proclaiming the Good News through service and evangelization.

SACRAMENT OF BAPTISM

Baptisms are generally held the 1st and 3rd Sundays of the month (some months this may vary) at 12:30 PM. Expectant parents are to call the Parish Office, six months before the birth of their child for preparation information. Please do not choose Godparents until you receive the established Church guidelines for Godparents.

SACRAMENT OF MARRIAGE

Couples seeking the Sacrament of Marriage should call the parish office at least six months before the date of marriage. A wedding date may not be secured until meeting with the parish Deacon or Priest. At that time, the couple will be secured a date and begin the process of preparation for the Sacrament of Marriage.

SACRAMENT OF THE SICK

If there is anyone at home who cannot get to Mass and the Sacraments because of illness or age, please call the parish office at anytime to request the Sacrament of the Anointing of the Sick.

O.C.I.A. (Order of Christian Initiation of Adults)

Those interested in becoming Catholic or in learning more about the Catholic faith meet weekly. Call the parish office or e-mail rcia@stanneparish.org for more information.

STEWARDSHIP PARISH

We are a stewardship parish. This means that every parishioner with an income is asked to use a Sunday envelope, since we expect to meet our needs from the one collection at the Presentation of the Gifts.

NEW PARISHIONERS

All new families are warmly welcomed to Saint Anne Parish and we ask that you register your family through our website at <http://stanneparish.org/registration-form/>.
